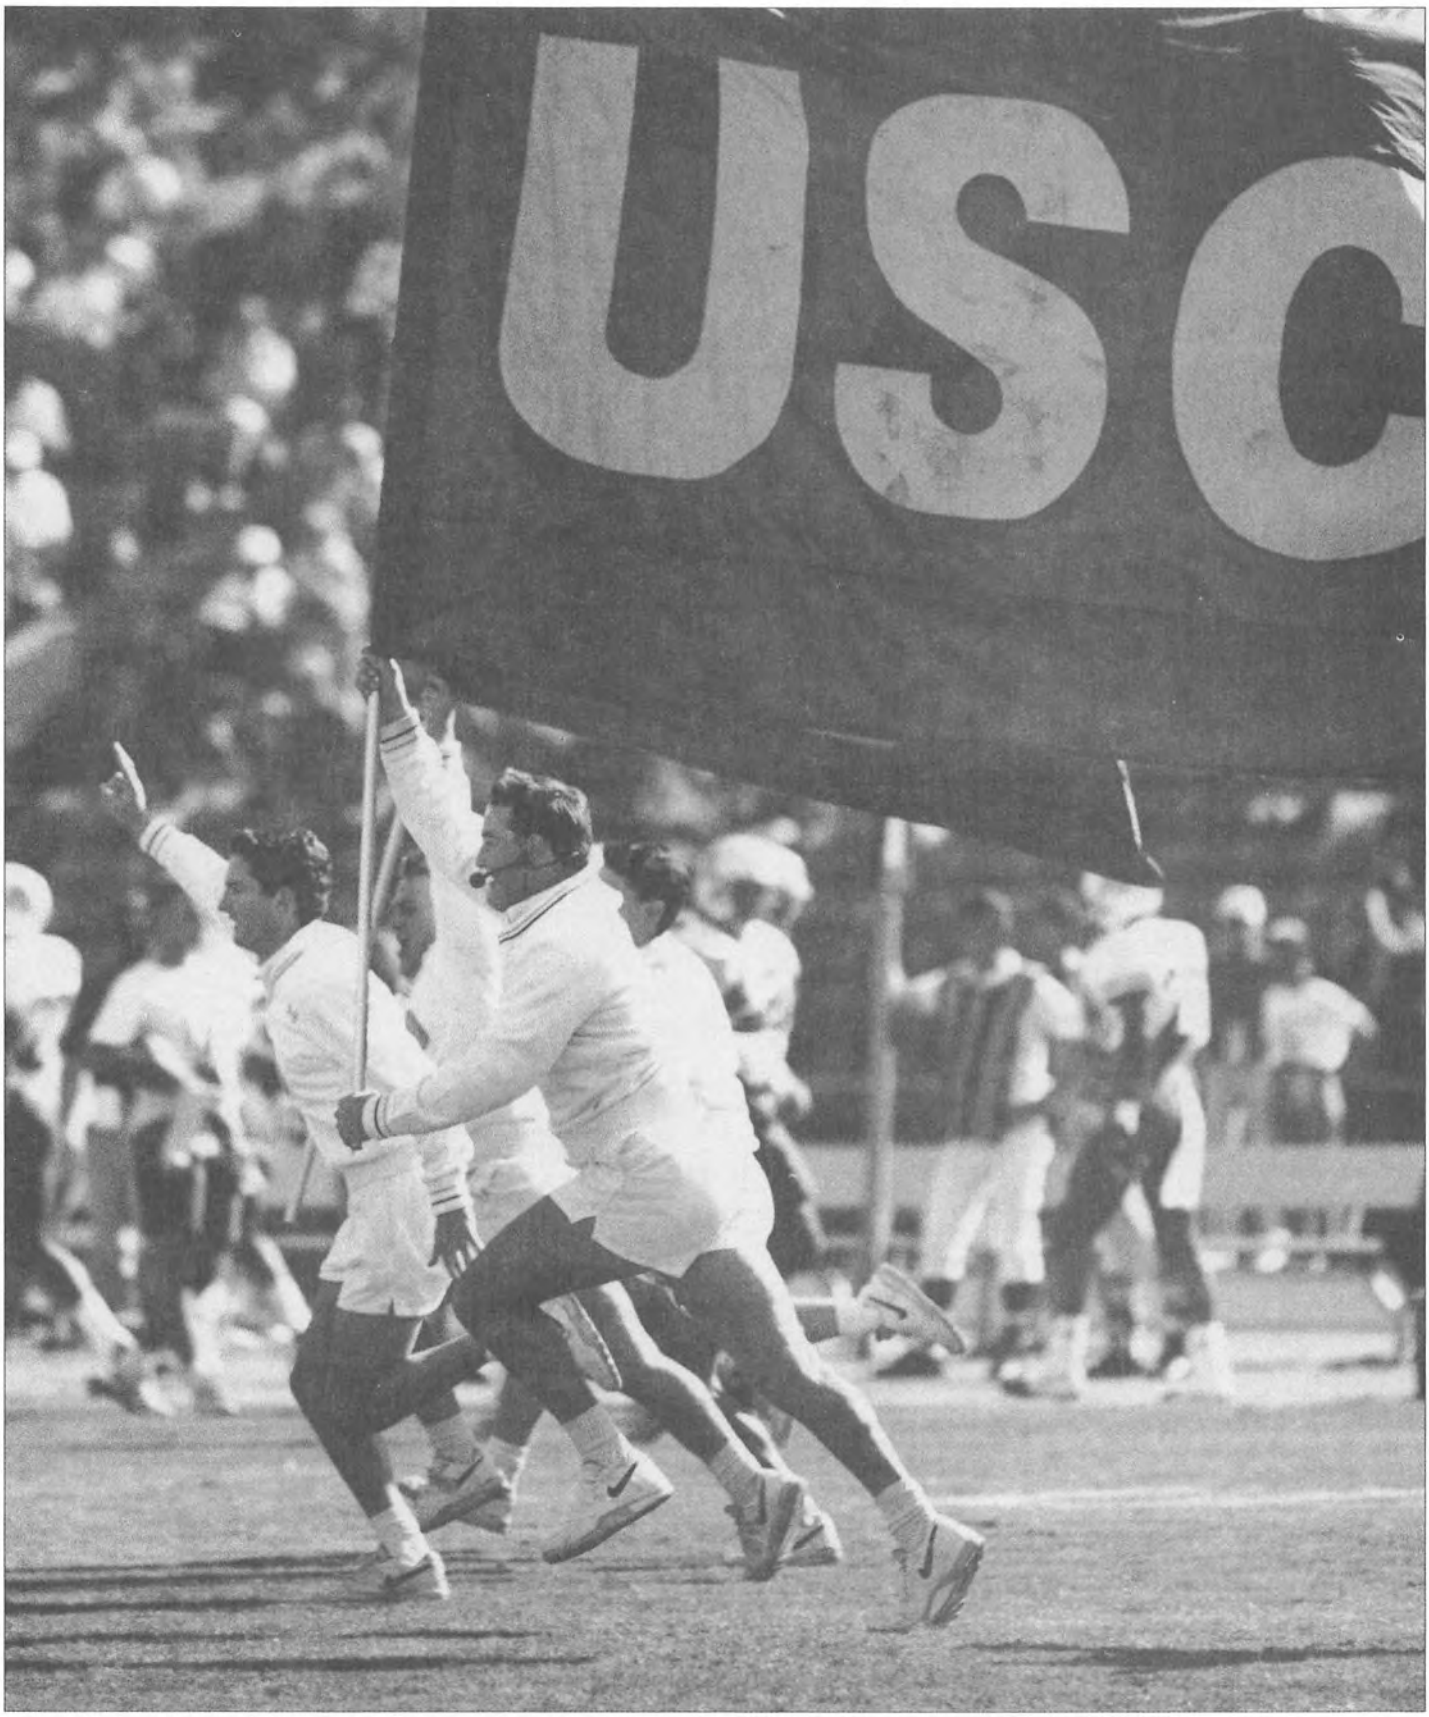
IT'S NOT "SOUTHERN CAL"

Note to the media: In abbreviated references to athletic teams of the University of Southern California, the following are preferred: USC, Southern California, So. California, Troy, Trojans, and Women of Troy. PLEASE do not use Southern Cal (it's like calling San Francisco "Frisco" or North Carolina "North Car.").

1995 OUTLOOK



—1995 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

John Robinson works quickly.

When he returned to USC as its head football coach prior to the 1993 season, Robinson predicted the Trojans would reappear among the nation's elite teams in short order.

As he begins the third year of his second tenure at Troy, it is apparent that Robinson has his 1995 team on the verge of realigning itself among the top squads in the country.

After all, in each of the past 2 years, USC has:

--won 8 games (including going 8-3-1 in 1994)
--finished ranked in the Top 25 (including 13th last fall)
--won its bowl game (including an eye-opening 55-14 victory over Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl)
--gone 6-2 in the rugged Pac-10 to finish no lower than second (including a second place tie in 1994)
--played schedules graded among the 5 toughest in the country (including fifth in 1994)
--brought in a recruiting class ranked among the nation's Top 10 (this year's includes 14 prep All-Americans)

With this momentum, good things seem to be ahead for USC in 1995. The Trojans return 74 players from 1994, 50 of whom were lettermen. Starters return at 13 positions (7 on offense, 6 on defense, not counting the punter). Among the returnees are a Heisman Trophy candidate at wide receiver, an All-American candidate at punter, a center who is a candidate for Academic All-American and a Rhodes Scholarship, and Troy's rushing leader the past 2 seasons.

But quality depth and experience, not individual stars, are USC's strengths this year.

"The key for us in 1995 is the development of the overall team and the team concept," said Robinson, whose 78.2% winning percentage (83-22-3 in his 9 years at USC) makes him Division I-A's fourth winningest active coach. "We have more depth and quality players than we've had in the past. But it's hard to point to too many established stars. No one player will be expected to carry the team. At many positions, there's intense competition between 2 really good players. Whether we can get the 'total team concept' to be our strength is what will decide our season."

THE THIRD TIME'S A CHARM

In the third year of Coach John Robinson's previous stints at USC, the Trojans won the national championship (1974 as an assistant and 1978 as head coach). Will history repeat itself in 1995?

There are, however, some players who fit the "established star" category.

Keyshawn Johnson, perhaps the nation's top wide receiver, is an All-American candidate (he's made a number of preseason All-American squads) whose name has popped up often in 1995 Heisman Trophy discussions. His size and speed make this one-time USC ballboy nearly impossible for a defensive back to cover. An All-Pac-10 first teamer and All-American second teamer in 1994, he was second nationally in receiving yards (123.8) while catching 66 passes for 1,362 yards and 9 TDs. He had 9 100-yard games, including the last 8.

John Stonehouse is aiming to be USC's first-ever All-American punter. He has the credentials: he averaged 44.1 in 1994 (eighth in the nation), Troy's best mark in 41 years. He had 16 punts travel 50-plus yards in 1994, including a 76-yarder. He holds USC career records for punts and punt yardage.

Running back Shawn Walters, already in the Top 20 of USC's prestigious all-time rushing list, has topped Troy in rushing the past 2 years. He just missed a 1,000-yard season in 1994, getting 976 yards and 11 scores after gaining 711 yards in 1993.

Center Jeremy Hogue, a 2-time Pac-10 All-Academic first teamer who has a 3.90 GPA and is in USC's M.B.A. program, is a candidate for Academic All-American honors (he was a second teamer in 1994). He is also looking to become a Rhodes Scholar.

Other returning starters on offense are running back Terry Barnum, USC's No. 2 receiver in 1994 (34 catches), tackle Norberto Garrido, who'll be starting for his third year in 1995, tight ends Johnny McWilliams and Tyler Cashman (they were 1994 co-starters who had 40 catches between them), and guard Chris Brymer. Eight other offensive players who have at least 1 career start also return: quarterback Brad Otton, tight end John Allred, running back Leonard Green, guard Phalen Pounds, center-guard Robert Loya, guard Kyle Ramsay, guard Clay Hattabaugh, and running back David Dotson.

The Trojans suffered some key offensive losses, including quarterback Rob Johnson, Troy's career passing leader and the owner of 20 NCAA, Pac-10 and USC records, 2-time All-American and 1995 NFL first round tackle Tony Boselli, wide receivers Edward Hervey and Ken Grace, co-starters who combined for 49 catches in 1994 (Grace was also USC's top kickoff and punt returner in 1994), and 3-year starting guard Kris Pollack. Also gone is Cole Ford, USC's strong-legged placekicker the past 4 years.

The returning defensive starters are safety Sammy Knight, who was third on the Trojans in tackles in 1994, tackle Matt Keneley, who'll be starting for his third season in 1995, cornerback Brian Kelly, tackle Darrell Russell, end Willie Lowery, safety Micah Phillips, and cornerback Mario Bradley (he and Phillips were co-starters at safety in 1994). Also, linebacker Errick Herrin and defensive end Israel Ifeanyi were 1994 part-time starters at inside and outside linebacker, respectively. Four defenders who have started at least once in a Trojan uniform also are back (cornerback Quincy Harrison, linebacker Scott Fields, and defensive ends Marcus Bonds and Junior Rickman).

Gone from the starting defensive unit are inside linebacker Jeff Kopp, USC's leading tackler the past 2 years, outside linebacker Brian Williams (Troy's No. 2 tackler the last 2 seasons after topping the squad in 1992), cornerback John Herpin, who led the Pac-10 in interceptions in 1994, inside linebacker Donn Cunnigan (who shared time in 1994 with Herrin) and outside linebacker Errol Small (who split time with Ifeanyi last season).

On the field, Robinson says 2 things need to happen for USC to have a successful season.

"First, we must expand our offense while maintaining our impressive low turnover margin from 1994," he said. "And second, we must show improvement on defense.

"This team has the potential to contend for a national championship, but 'potential' is the key word. We still have a way to go. We need to have all those intangible things happen that cement you as a team. But we feel good about the players we have and we think the young players will really step up."

Although USC's schedule features only 3 bowl teams from 1994--Notre Dame, Arizona, and Washington State--it's never an easy route through the Pac-10 slate. USC's 5 road games are particularly challenging: at Arizona, California, Notre Dame, Washington and Oregon State. At home, the Trojans host San Jose State, Houston, Arizona State, Washington State, Stanford and UCLA.

OFFENSE

Starters return at 7 positions--wide receiver Johnson, running backs Walters and Barnum, tackle Garrido, center Hogue, guard Brymer and 1994 co-starting tight ends McWilliams and Cashman--from a 1994 offensive unit that averaged 398.0 total yards per game. While the Trojan offense was effective through the air (278.9, 13th in the U.S.) and scored points (29.7), it was only moderately successful on the ground (131.0)--still an improvement over the previous 2 years--and must improve its running attack. USC also took care of the football, as it was eighth nationally in turnover margin (+1.2).

"If anything offensively, we intend to be more expansive and wide open," said Robinson. "We'll go to a 2-back offense to make better use of our talent. We can expand our offense with proper use of our players.

"We want to continue in the direction we gone the past few years, but we want to run the football better. Also, we want to make the quarterback position less important than it has been. We've emphasized the quarterback too much to that the last 2 years. The teams that have won here at USC have had great quarterbacks, but they weren't the only focal point."

QUARTERBACK--Usually, when a team loses a quarterback the caliber of Rob Johnson, USC's career passing leader who set 20 NCAA, Pac-10 and USC records, there's a huge hole to fill. But the Trojans are well-stocked with a pair of veteran signalcallers, both who subbed for an injured Johnson during the past 2 seasons and proved they could move the team.

They'll enter the fall battling for the starting job and they could share the position all season. It's happened before at USC...and with success. For example, Troy's 1962 (Pete Beathard, Bill Nelsen) and 1972 (Mike Rae, Pat Haden) national championship squads used 2 quarterbacks.

Junior Otton (55-of-92, 59.8%, 787 yards, 6 TDs, 0 interceptions in 1994) was a pleasant surprise after he transferred to Troy in the spring of 1994 from Division I-AA Weber State. He appeared in 7 games last year, starting twice (USC was 2-0), and the Trojans never missed a beat. He displayed a cool demeanor, intelligent play, an accurate arm, and good scrambling ability. At 6-6, he's the tallest quarterback in USC history.

Although rifle-armed senior Kyle Wachholtz (23-of-35, 65.7%, 238 yards, 2 TDs, 1 interception in his career) missed the 1994 season while academically ineligible (he served as USC's scout team quarterback), he has impressed the coaches in previous years with his skills. He has appeared in 9 contests in his career.

"We have 2 equally-talented players competing for the starting job," said Robinson. "Neither has an edge at this point. Both have outstanding potential and both are very competitive. Otton has great instincts on the field and a cool demeanor, while Wachholtz is a big, tough player. We could be a 2-quarterback team in 1995 or 1 could clearly establish himself. I refuse to speculate, but I can't wait to watch them at practice."

Also available is effective junior Matt Koffler (7-of-13, 53.9%, 61 yards, 2 TDs, 0 interceptions in 1994).

"Koffler could go in a game and compete effectively," said Robinson. "He's a leader on our team."

Joining the fray this fall are a pair of prep All-Americans: John Fox (Centennial HS in Corona, Calif.) and Quincy Woods (Rich East HS in Park Forest, Ill.).

RUNNING BACK--USC is loaded at running back (the Trojans didn't lose anybody at this position from last year), but the implemenation of the 2-back offense (instead of a tailback/fullback system) will give all 8 of these talented runners a chance to display their abilities.

"There's going to be lots of competition at the running back spots and I like that," said Robinson. "It'll be a great opportunity, but also a bit of a problem. We have to find a way for 6 running backs to compete for time and establish themselves.

"We've pretty much employed a 2-back set the past few years by having a tailback play fullback. But we didn't give the fullback the chance to run the ball much. Now, we want to increase the carries of that fullback-type player and increase the pass receptions of the tailback-type."

Walters (193 carries, 976 yards, 5.1 avg., 11 TDs rushing in 1994, plus 8 catches, 5.0 avg. receiving), USC's leading rusher the past 2 years as the starter (he had 711 yards in 1993), returns for another go-around. The well-tested junior, who is already 18th on Troy's career rushing list with 1,687 yards, combines good speed and moves with a bruising (6-0, 225) running style. He went over the 200-yard rushing mark twice in 1994 (234 yards at Stanford and 207 versus Baylor). His 11 rushing TDs were the most at USC in 13 years. He was an All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection in 1994.

"Walters has become an outstanding physical runner," said Robinson. "He can attack, break tackles and make the consistent gain as well as any back. Although I see him as a power runner, he's an excellent breakaway back. And he's just a junior, but he has lots of experience."

Expect heady senior Barnum (4 carries, 5 yards, 1.3 avg. rushing in 1994, plus 34 catches, 8.9 avg., 3 TDs receiving), who came to USC as a defensive back and then was converted from a tailback to the starting fullback last year, to play a key role again in 1995, this time receiving and running. He was the Trojans' No. 2 pass catcher last fall, but carried the ball only 4 times. He's also an effective blocker.

RUNNING BACKS
TERRY BARNUM, Sr.	USC's No. 2 receiver in '94
David Dotson, Jr.	Academically inelligible in '95
Mark Farlin, Jr.
Leonard Green, Sr.	USC's No. 2 rusher in '94
Rodney Sermons, So.	USC's No. 3 rusher in '94
SHAWN WALTERS, Jr.	USC's top rusher in '93 & '94
Delon Washington, So.	Had 100-plus yards in '94 opener
LaVale Woods, So.

"What a great lift Barnum gave us last year," noted Robinson. "He was as efficient and effective as any player we had in 1994. He made spectacular catches in key moments. He's one of the smartest players I've known and one of the most competitive."

A quartet of other running backs--all who showed flashes of brilliance in 1994--also figure to see the field often: senior Green (68 carries, 343 yards, 5.0 avg., 2 TDs rushing in 1994, plus 10 catches, 8.4 avg., 1 TD receiving), USC's No. 2 rusher in 1994 as a 3-game starter (hamstring injuries hampered him in the first part of last season) whose speciality is as a third down back, and sophomores Delon Washington (25 carries, 170 yards, 6.8 avg., 1 TD in 1994), who was limited to 3 contests in 1994 because of eligibility questions, Rodney Sermons (78 carries, 249 yards, 3.2 avg., 3 TDs in 1994), Troy's No. 3 rusher last fall, and LaVale Woods (15 carries, 85 yards, 5.7 avg. in 1994). Green led Troy in rushing 3 times, while Washington did so twice (including 109 yards against Washington to become the first Trojan true freshman to run for 100 yards in a season opener and only the fourth Trojan true frosh to get 100 yards in a game) and Sermons did it once.

"Green is Mr. Versatility," said Robinson. "He can do everything. He's an excellent receiver out of the backfield and we'll use him much more that way in 1995. When he was healthy, he played very well, particularly in big games. Although Washington had limited opportunities last year, he established that he has potential greatness. His vision and balance are at the highest level. Sermons had a really solid freshman season and matured dramatically over the season. He's now bigger and more physical, and that goes well with his excellent speed and outstanding competitiveness. Woods has shown great promise and that promise is becoming reality because he is as competitve as any of our backs."

Junior Mark Farlin, who appeared as a reserve fullback last year, will be used in short yardage situations. Dotson (2 carries, 2 yards, 1.0 avg. rushing in 1994, plus 3 catches, 15.0 avg receiving), a junior who started once in 1994 but spent most of the season as a reserve fullback, will sit out 1995 while academically ineligible and while recuperating from injuries that sidelined him for 4 games last fall.

WR KEYSHAWN JOHNSON

WIDE RECEIVER--There's little doubt that Johnson (66 catches, 1,362 yards, 20.6 avg., 9 TDs in 1994) is one of the nation's premier wide receivers, worthy of all the Heisman Trophy and All-American talk swirling around him. The senior is big, he's fast, he's got great hands, he's difficult to cover and he's hard to bring down. He's a difference maker. To top it off, he's a great story: a one-time USC ballboy who grew up around the corner from the Trojan campus and who now possesses the ability and charisma of a Michael Irvin. As a J.C. transfer to USC last season, he had a dramatic impact while earning All-Pac-10 first team and All-American second team honors. He led the Pac-10 (and was second nationally) in receiving yards (123.8). Just the third Trojan with 1,000 receiving yards in a season, he had 9 100-yard games in 1994, including the last 8. All but 10 of his catches were for first downs. He had a number of big games, none more impressive than the Cotton Bowl (he was the game's Offensive MVP) when he had 8 receptions for 222 yards and 3 scores (including an 86-yarder). He also had 11 grabs for 175 yards and a TD at UCLA and 8 catches for 145 yards and 3 TDs at Washington State.

"Johnson is as good as any wide receiver I've ever been around," said Robinson. "We must get him the ball often and in a variety of ways this year. He seems to fit the new mold of wide receivers: big, physical, extremely athletic. He has all the gifts a wide receiver needs, plus he has an intangible quality that makes him as competitive and star-like as anyone I've known. He'll contend for the highest honors in 1995."

Battling for the other wide receiver spot vacated by Hervey and Grace will be high-potential sophomore Larry Parker (14 catches, 9.8 avg. receiving in 1994, plus 4 kickoff returns, 20.8 avg.), a high-potential sophomore with speed but limited experience, and J.C. transfer Chris Miller (West Los Angeles CC in Los Angeles, Calif.), a junior who came to USC this past spring (he is Johnson's cousin).

Also in the mix is blazing sophomore Anthony Volsan (3 catches, 8.7 avg. receiving in 1994, plus 3 kickoff returns, 16.0 avg. and 2 punt returns, 8.0 avg.), who has sprinted for USC's track team the last 2 springs, and junior walk-on Benji DeBord, who had an impressive spring showing.

USC signed 3 prep All-American wide receivers who come aboard in this fall and could figure in the action: Mike Bastianelli

WIDE RECEIVERS
Mike Bastianelli,	'94 prep All-American
Benji DeBord, So.
Tony Griffin, In. Fr.	'94 prep All-American
KEYSHAWN JOHNSON, Sr.	'95 Heisman, All-American candidate
Billy Miller, In. Fr.	'94 prep All-American
Chris Miller, Jr.	Spring '95 J.C. transfer
Larry Parker, So.	14 catches in '94
Anthony Volsan, So.	Also on USC track team

(De La Salle HS in Concord, Calif.), Tony Griffin (Westchester HS in Los Angeles, Calif.) and Billy Miller (Westlake HS in Westlake Village, Calif.).

"We lost some pretty good receivers from 1994, so some younger players will have to fill in and help out Johnson," said Robinson. "Parker has outstanding promise, Miller has outstanding speed and adjusted to our offense in the spring as well as any new player we've had here, and Volsan has great speed and shown great improvement. They will be important players for us. After that, the door is open to a number of new players who have real potential."

TIGHT END--"Tight end could be our strongest position," said Robinson. "We expect to have 2 tight ends on the field a lot in 1995. We have 3 players who we consider starters. We want to develop the tight end as a consistent weapon."

Seniors McWilliams (23 catches, 10.9 avg., 4 TDs in 1994), who is among the best in the country, and Cashman (17 catches, 10.4 avg., 1 TD in 1994) shared the job in 1994. Both have been used effectively as traditional down position tight ends and as H-backs (tight ends-in-motion). Junior Allred (11 catches, 13.0 avg. in 1994) began the 1994 season as the starter, but broke his leg prior to the fourth game and didn't return until late in the year. All 3 are cut from the same mold--big, rugged, strong blockers, good hands--and all could contend for post-season honors.

"McWilliams improved greatly last year," said Robinson. "He's one of the better tight ends in America, both as a blocker and downfield receiver. Cashman is more of an H-back. We need to find specific ways to use his ability. He's extremely competitive and has triple value as a tight end, H-back and wide receiver. Allred was on his way to a great season in 1994 until the injury. He's a dominant blocker, a fierce competitor, a team leader and one of the better all-around players in the Pac-10."

TIGHT ENDS
John Allred, Jr.	Started 3 games in '94
TYLER CASHMAN, Sr.	'94 co-starter
Jeff Diltz, Jr.
Rome Douglas, Rs. Fr.	Also plays basketball at USC
Travis Hall, Sr.	Tranfer from CS Northridge
JOHNNY McWILLIAMS, Sr.	'94 co-starter

Two others add quality depth to the position: junior Jeff Diltz (3 catches, 8.0 avg., 2 TDs in 1994) and redshirt frosh Rome Douglas, who also played on the USC basketball team.

"Diltz did some good things for us in 1994," said Robinson. "He's a solid player. Douglas has a very bright future. He can become a dominant blocker and he's getting better as a receiver."

Senior Travis Hall will redshirt the 1995 season after transferring to USC from Cal State Northridge, where he started for 2 seasons and had 53 career receptions.

TE JOHNNY McWILLIAMS

TE TYLER CASHMAN

OFFENSIVE LINE--Robinson says that losing a player like 2-time All-American Boselli, the second pick of the 1995 NFL draft who will go down among USC's all-time great offensive linemen, "leaves an unfillable hole, but we certainly have the combination of maturity and youth that gives us a chance to have an outstanding line in 1995."

Troy will build its offensive front around the 3 returning starters: senior right tackle Garrido (6-7, 325), a 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention choice who'll be starting for a third year, senior center Hogue (6-4, 285), a 2-time Pac-10 All-Academic first teamer now in USC's M.B.A. program who has a 3.90 GPA after earning his bachelor's degree in political science (he is a candidate for Academic All-American honors and aspires to become a Rhodes Scholar), and precocious sophomore left guard Brymer (6-3, 285).

"Garrido made considerable progress last year," said Robinson. "He is becoming an outstanding all-around tackle and a physically dominant presence. Hogue had a good season in 1994 and could improve into an outstanding player this season. Plus, he stars in the classroom. Brymer is a tough player with good potential, and he's already been tested."

The likely starter at the open right guard spot vacated by Pollack will be soph Pounds (6-7, 310), who started 2 early-season games in 1994 before suffering a knee injury. The top candidate to replace Boselli at left tackle, as difficult as that may be, is capable but little-used senior John Michels (6-7, 270), a one-time defensive lineman who was moved to offense in the middle of the 1993 season. But he'll be challenged by senior Ramsay (6-3, 285), who has started 4 times at USC. Ramsay will also compete with Brymer for the starting left guard job.

"Pounds is potentially outstanding, Michels has improved dramatically and will do a good job, and Ramsay is experienced and has done a good job for us," said Robinson.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

David Pratchard, OG, Rs. Fr.
Kyle Ramsay, OT-OG, Sr.	4 career starts
Brett Samperi, OG, In. Fr.	'94 prep All-American

The backup tackles figure to be redshirt freshman Ken Bowen on the right side and junior Heith Baughman, who redshirted last year after transferring from a junior college, on the left. Junior Richard Beatie, like Baughman a 1994 redshirt after coming in from a J.C., and redshirt frosh David Pratchard will serve as the backups at left guard. The backups at right guard include senior guard Hattabaugh, who has started 4 times in his career but is coming off 1994 mid-season knee surgery, junior guard Dong Koo, and Matt McShane, a 1995 spring arrival who enters as a freshman (he prepped at St. Mary's HS in Berkeley, Calif., in 1993, but didn't play football in 1994 while attending a junior college). Behind Hogue at center are senior Loya, who has 7 career starts, and soph Jonathan Himebauch.

"Bowen has the size, committment and intelligence to develop into an outstanding player," said Robinson. "Beatie is a tough guy who is working his way into a playing role. Pratchard is one of our tougher players and should contend for a starting job next year. Hattabaugh is one of the toughest players I've coach and is a key leader on our team. If he can make it all the way back physically, he'll play an important role for us. Koo has improved steadily and is much more physical now. Loya is competitive and experienced, and offers us good flexibility. Himebauch has shown steady improvement and is the future center here."

Arriving this fall are a pair of prep All-American tackles Mark Manskar (Canyon HS in Canyon Country, Calif.) and Brett Samperi (San Clemente HS in San Clemente, Calif.), plus center Jason Grain (Sonora HS in La Habra, Calif.).

DEFENSE

Starters return from 6 defensive positions: safety Knight, defensive tackle Keneley, cornerback Kelly, tackle Russell, end Lowery, safety Phillips, and cornerback Bradley (Phillips and Bradley were co-starters at safety in 1994). Also, linebacker Herrin and end Ifeanyi were part-time starters in 1994 at inside and outside linebacker, respectively. Troy's defense yielded 384.8 total yards (222.4 passing) and 20.3 points in 1994, but notched 29 turnovers (including 18 interceptions) and blocked 5 kicks.

"We'll be a more physical defense in 1995, but more simple in our approach," said Robinson. "We must improve on defense. We were a very average defensive team last year and we want to be a great defensive team. We have the capability to do that. I'm convinced we'll be better than last year. We have excellent young talent and I believe we can develop into a very good defensive team.

"We intend to pressure the line of scrimmage with our defensive front. We're making some major changes in our approach in going to a 5-man line and it may take us some time to get comfortable defensively. We'll be pressuring the offense, but we won't be a gambling defense. Our goal is to stop the run. We want to be conservative in our pass defense and make teams work in the intermediate areas."

DEFENSIVE LINE--USC's new-look defense will feature 3 interior defensive tackles surrounded by 2 defensive ends. There are experienced players available for all of these spots.

Sure-and-steady junior Keneley (48 tackles, 4 for losses in 1994), who'll be starting for his third year, and up-and-coming soph Russell (26 tackles, 3 for losses in 1994), a 6-game starter in 1994, return to the lineup at the 2 outside tackle positions.

"Keneley has a lot of experience as just a junior," said Robinson. "He's been to battle and has performed well. Russell will be the most improved player on our team. He's headed for greatness."

The middle (or nose) tackle spot--which the coaches have nicknamed the "Trojan" position--will be manned by huge (6-4, 320) senior Stuart Gage (6 tackles in 1994), who played primarily in short yardage situations last fall. He'll be backed by another big player in 6-5, 285-pound junior Anthony Sanford, who redshirted last year after transferring from a junior college.

"Gage and Sanford are 2 big, physical players," said Robinson. "They have the ability to clog up the middle. Gage has really improved and established himself as an anchor on the inside. He forces the offense to double team him."

Several other youngsters with promise will also contend for playing time at tackle: sophs George Perry (8 tackles, 4 for losses in 1994), Cedric Jefferson (12 tackles in 1994) and Germaine Gray, and redshirt freshman Marc Matock.

"Perry is a lot stronger now and can become a dominant player if he continues improving," said Robinson. "Jefferson already established himself as an excellent run defender and now must improve on his pass defense. He has a very bright future. Matock will be a very solid player for us in the future as his technique and strength improve."

Three Trojans with starting experience will vie for the 2 end spots. On 1 side (the spot last year was manned by outside linebacker Williams, Troy's No. 2 tackler the past 2 seasons), look for senior Ifeanyi (32 tackles, 4 for losses, 2 blocked kicks, 1 interception in 1994), an athletic, big-play pass rusher who shared an outside linebacker starting job with Small in 1994 (Ifeanyi had 5 starts). On the other side, there's junior Lowery (31 tackles, 4 for losses in 1994), who started all of 1994 on the line and did an admirable job, and senior Bonds (16 tackles in 1994), who started 4 times on the line in 1994.

"I consider them to be 3 starters at 2 positions," said Robinson. "I'm very excited about this trio as outside pass rushers and I think they'll play well on the perimeter. They can be devastating. These 3 players could be a key to our season defensively."

Other ends available are soph Rickman (2 tackles in 1994), who started once in 1994 at outside linebacker but then tore knee ligaments in midseason and was sidelined, and junior Greg Tellam (1 tackle in 1994). Also, Brad Cervantes enrolled at USC this past spring as a freshman (he prepped at Trabuco Hills HS in Mission Viejo, Calif., in 1993, but didn't play football in 1994 while attending a junior college).

"If Rickman comes back physically and mentally ready, he'll play a lot this year," said Robinson. "And Tellam is ready to establish himself."

Additional defensive end help arrives this fall in the form of prep All-American Lawrence Larry (Littlerock HS in Littlerock, Calif.).

"I like the makeup of our defensive line," said Robinson. "It's a good mix of veterans and youth, many who are experienced. I think we'll play well up front and be better here than in recent years."

LINEBACKER--Robinson is hoping the linebacker spots--the least experienced positions on the team--solidify.

"The play of our linebackers will be a key for us in 1995," said Robinson. "We've lost some good players, so this group will need to be up to the task. These are positions where speed and aggressiveness are important."

With the loss of both Kopp, USC's top tackler the past 2 years, and 1994 part-time starter Cunnigan, only senior Herrin (64 tackles, 7 for losses, 3 forced fumbles in 1994) returns with any starting experience (he posted 7 starts in 1994 and was USC's No. 4 tackler while splitting time with Cunnigan). Herrin--a former Marine--is a good one, though: aggressive, hard-hitting, with a nose for big plays and always around the ball.

"Herrin must step in for Kopp in 1995," said Robinson. "He's a dynamic player and I think he'll have an outstanding season."

Backing him up will be senior Brian Haas (17 tackles in 1994) and soph Taso Papadakis (4 tackles in 1994).

"Haas will play a major role," said Robinson. "He's a leader and we're counting on him in a lot of areas. Papadakis has improved and established himself as a solid player."

Versatile senior Fields (23 tackles, 1 interception in 1994), playing his third position in 3 years (he was a safety in 1994 after playing tailback in 1993), will step into the other starting linebacker role. He loves to play an aggressive game.

"Fields has played a lot of positions at USC, but we've finally found the perfect spot for him at linebacker," said Robinson. "He's a good athlete and an instinctive player. He'll do well here."

Also available are sophomore Ryan Tyiska (2 tackles in 1994), a converted safety, senior Tarriel Hopper (3 tackles in 1994), and redshirt freshman Bob Aubrey.

"Tyiska is a fast, explosive, instinctive player with a really good future," said Robinson. "Hopper is a playmaker and must provide leadership."

This fall, prep All-Americans Mark Cusano (The Colony HS in The Colony, Tex.) and Aaron Williams (Leuzinger HS in Lawndale, Calif.) come aboard.

S SAMMY KNIGHT

SECONDARY--With the return of so many experienced players, look for intense competition for playing time at all of the secondary positions.

"The secondary epitomizes our team in 1995: good depth, good players, and lots of competition for jobs," said Robinson. "That only makes everybody better."

Super soph Kelly (34 tackles, 5 deflections, 1 interception in 1994), who started most of 1994, appears headed for stardom at 1 cornerback spot. As a true freshman last fall, he played like a veteran.

"Kelly really had an outstanding freshman season," said Robinson. "He has star potential. He has all the skills of a great cornerback."

The likely fill-in for Herpin, the Pac-10's interception leader in 1994, at the other corner will be senior Bradley (30 tackles in 1994), who started 6 games in 1994 at free safety.

"Moving Bradley to cornerback will pay off because he's much more at home there," said Robinson.

The backup corners include junior Harrison (16 tackles, 1 interception in 1994), who started once in 1994, and redshirt freshman Prentice Hill. Prep All-American Daylon McCutcheon (Bishop Amat HS in La Puente, Calif.), the son of ex-NFL All-Pro running back Lawrence McCutcheon, enrolls this fall and could have an immediate impact at cornerback.

Grant Pearsall, S,So.
MICAH PHILLIPS, S, Sr.	'94 co-starter
Marvin Powell III, S, In. Fr.	'94 prep All-American

"Harrison showed his great potential in 1994, but injuries nagged him," said Robinson. "Hill has great quickness and potential. And, with the addition of McCutcheon this fall, cornerback will be one of our strongest positions."

Knight (65 tackles in 1994), a hard-hitting junior who was Troy's No. 3 tackler in 1994 when he won All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice, is the leader of the secondary from his strong safety spot where he started all of last fall. Watch for big things from him.

"Knight has a tremendous amount of experience," said Robinson. "He's one of our defensive leaders, especially by his competitiveness and aggressiveness. He's a deserving all-star candidate."

Sophomore Grant Pearsall (2 tackles in 1994), who was a reserve free safety in 1994, will back up Knight and also should see action in extra defensive back situations.

"Pearsall is getting bigger and stronger, and he has a bright future," said Robinson. "As he becomes more comfortable at strong safety, he'll see more action."

A pair of seniors will fight it out for the free safety job: Phillips (38 tackles, 1 interception in 1994), who split time there with Bradley in 1994 (Phillips started 6 games), and Jesse Davis (17 tackles in 1994), who was a backup cornerback and key special teamer in 1994.

"There'll be a real battle between Phillips and Davis to start," said Robinson. "They're equal at this point. I like them both, especially the way they both compete. Phillips has the experience and has played well in the past. Davis seems at home at safety and appears over all his nagging injuries."

Prep All-Americans Rashard Cook (Morse HS in San Diego, Calif.) and Marvin Powell III (Birmingham HS in Van Nuys, Calif.), the son of former USC All-American and NFL All-Pro offensive tackle Marvin Powell, join the safety corps this fall.

P JOHN STONEHOUSE

SPECIAL TEAMS

The punter (Stonehouse), snapper (Jesse Gomez) and 1 of the kickoff returners (Parker) are back, but USC will rely on a new placekicker, holder, punt returner and 1 kickoff returner.

"You can't overstate the importance of good special teams play," said Robinson. "We made great strides in this area last year and, although we've now lost some of our key components, we need to continue that high-level of performance."

PUNTER--Stonehouse (44.1 avg. in 1994), the strong-legged senior who won All-Pac-10 second team honors in 1994, has a chance to become the first Trojan All-American punter. His 44.1 average last year, eighth best in the country (and just .1 behind the Pac-10 leader), was the highest at USC in 41 years. He had 16 of his 65 punts travel at least 50 yards last year, including a 76-yarder (Troy's longest since 1956), and 18 pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line. His 213 career punts for 8,571 yards are USC records. In his career, he averages 40.2 yards per boot.

SPECIALISTS

Adam Abrams, PK, Rs. Fr.
Jesse Gomez, SNP, Sr.
JOHN STONEHOUSE, P, Sr. '95 All-American candidate

"Stonehouse simply is one of the best punters in America," said Robinson. "He's got a great leg. And his best punts come in the clutch. He's a big-time punter."

PLACEKICKER--Welcome redshirt freshman Adam Abrams, USC's new placekicker. The brother of Stanford kicker Eric Abrams, he was a prep All-American in 1993 known for his accuracy and strong leg. He'll replace Ford, who accounted for 34 career field goals and kept opponents in bad field position as 94 of his 192 career kickoffs were not returned out of the endzone.

"Abrams has the potential to have a great career," said Robinson. "He's young, but I think you'll hear a lot about him the next 4 years."

SNAPPER--Senior Jesse Gomez was the long snapper until tearing knee ligaments early in the season. He appears ready to resume that role. Also available is center Hogue, who handled the snaps on placekicks in Gomez' absence (the graduated Ryan Lenderman filled in last year as the punt snapper).

HOLDER--Lenderman, last year's holder on placekicks, is gone. Last year's backup, quarterback Otton, will assume that role now, with punter Stonehouse behind him.

RETURNERS--Grace, USC's top punt and kickoff returner in 1994 (he's fourth on Troy's career kickoff return list), is gone. But Parker (20.8 avg. on kickoff returns in 1994) on kickoffs and Volsan (8.0 avg. on punt returns, 16.0 avg. on kickoff returns in 1994) on punts have some experience. Several others will be looked at: on kickoffs, these include wide receiver Chris Miller, running backs Washington and Sermons, and incoming freshman McCutcheon, while on punts, McCutcheon and running back Green are available.

Now in the third year of his second stint at USC, head football coach John Robinson--known not only for his success and coaching ability, but for the passion he exudes for the game and the way he is able to motivate his players--has brought back a renewed optimism and enthusiasm among Trojan fans and players. And, by the way, he's turned out some pretty good teams.

His 1994 Trojans, who played what USA Today called the nation's fifth toughest schedule (with 6 1993 bowl teams and 7 which appeared in the 1994 post-season), were 8-3-1 overall. USC was ranked in the Top 15 (13th by AP and UPI, and 15th by USA Today/CNN), finished tied for second in the Pacific-10 at 6-2 (for the second year in a row, Troy went into the league finale against UCLA with a shot at the Rose Bowl), and posted a convincing Cotton Bowl victory. Offensive tackle Tony Boselli was a consensus All-American and quarterback Rob Johnson became USC's career passing leader.

After a 10-year absence, Robinson returned to USC on Jan. 3, 1993 (he replaced Larry Smith, who resigned Jan. 1 after 6 seasons at Troy). And what a homecoming it was for Robinson. Despite a schedule ranked by USA Today as the fourth toughest in the nation--featuring 9 bowl teams from 1992, 7 teams which played in 1993 bowls, 6 opponents which were ranked in the final Top 25, and only 5 home games--Robinson guided USC to a share of the 1993 Pac-10 championship and, save for 2 more yards at the end of the UCLA game, a near trip to the Rose Bowl. His Trojans were 8-5 overall (all the losses were to Top 20 teams) and 6-2 in the Pac-10 to rank 25th in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. His team won the Freedom Bowl. The 1993 Trojans set 5 USC season passing records, including most yards (3,829), most TDs (31) and lowest interception rate (1.26%). Wide receiver Johnnie Morton, a consensus All-American, and Johnson set 22 Pac-10 and USC records between them.

Robinson, 59, has an overall 9-year USC record of 83-22-3 (78.2%, making him the fourth winningest active Division I-A coach with a minimum of 5 years experience) and his 78.5% winning mark versus Pac-10 teams is the third best percentage in league history (he's 50-13-2, 10th on the Pac-10 win ladder). All 9 of his Trojan teams have won at least 8 games. He owns a 6-1 post-season record. Only John McKay (175 games in 16 years) and Howard Jones (170 games in 16 years) have coached more contests at USC than Robinson (108).

Robinson won 81.9% of his games (67-14-2) in his original 7 seasons (1976-82) at USC, averaging nearly 10 wins a year. He won the national championship in 1978 with a 12-1 mark (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles (along with 2 second-place and 2 third-place finishes), and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (going 4-1, with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. From 1978 through 1980, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans. He was National Coach of the Year in 1979 with his 11-0-1 team and Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1976 and 1978. His first team in 1976 went 11-1, winning its final 11 contests, and Robinson became the league's first rookie head coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl. That tied an NCAA record for most victories by a first-year head coach.

His Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses with dominant defenses. USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. The 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

This is actually Robinson's third go-around at Troy. He was USC's offensive coordinator for 3 years (1972-74) under John McKay when the Trojans captured the national title twice (1972 and 1974) and won 3 bowls (including a pair of Rose Bowls).

Robinson coached the NFL's Los Angeles Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game (1985 and 1989). He coached more games (153) for more years (9) than any other Rams coach.

Considered an expert on the running game, Robinson has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

He spent 1992 as a television analyst with CBS-TV (handling NFL games), USA Network (doing World League games) and Prime Ticket (handling 3 USC football telecasts).

Now with more than 30 years of coaching experience, Robinson began his coaching career as an assistant at Oregon for 12 seasons (1960-71). He also was the backfield coach with the Oakland Raiders in 1975, working under childhood friend John Madden. He spent 4 months (November of 1982 to February of 1983) as USC's senior vice president for university relations before taking the Rams job.

Born on July 25, 1935, Robinson grew up in Daly City, Calif. He starred in football (earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end) and baseball at Serra High in San Mateo. He then lettered at end at Oregon when the Ducks won the 1957 Pacific Coast Conference title and played in the Rose Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Oregon in 1958.

Robinson has 4 grown children, daughters Teresa and Lynn and sons David (an assistant coach at USC) and Christopher, and 2 step-daughters, Karilyn and Elizabeth. His wife, Linda, who owned her own modeling agency for 10 years, now spends her time watercoloring and designing greeting cards, besides being at her husband's side at every USC event possible.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE RILEY

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Innovative, enthusiastic and successful, Mike Riley is in his third year as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 1993. He was given the additional duty of assistant head coach prior to the 1995 season.

In 1994, Riley tutored quarterback Rob Johnson--owner of 20 NCAA, Pac-10 and USC records--as he became Troy's career passing leader.

Riley was named the Pac-10's top assistant in 1993 by the Mesa Tribune for taking "the Trojan passing game to a level never before reached at USC. He made the Johnson-to-(Johnnie) Morton combination week in and week out the most effective offensive weapon in the Pac-10." Indeed, Johnson and Morton were All-Pac-10 first teamers. Johnson set 10 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993, while Morton--a first round NFL draft pick--earned All-American first team acclaim and became USC's career receiving leader.

Riley has been part of national championship squads as a college player and as a coach in the collegiate and pro ranks.

Riley, 42, came to USC after serving as head coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders for 2 years (1991-92), posting an 11-9 record (including 7-3 in 1992).

Before that, he was head coach of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers for 4 seasons (1987-90), going 40-32 (plus 4-2 in the playoffs) and winning the Grey Cup in 1988 and 1990 (his quarterback in 1988 was ex-Trojan Sean Salisbury). He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990. His 12-6 mark in 1987 was the best by a CFL rookie coach since Bud Grant went 13-3 with Winnipeg in 1957 (Grant later coached the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame).

Riley was Winnipeg's secondary coach for 3 years (1983-85) and then spent 1986 as defensive coordinator at Northern Colorado.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at California in 1975 and at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., in 1976, then was the secondary coach at Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore., for 6 years (1977-82). Linfield was 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship in 1982.

He played defensive back at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 4 years (1971-74), as the Crimson Tide won the 1973 national crown and 4 SEC titles. He earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Alabama in 1974.

Born July 6, 1953, Riley quarterbacked Corvallis (Ore.) High to the state title in 1970.

His father, Bud, was a head coach in the CFL (at Winnipeg, Hamilton and Calgary) and an assistant at Oregon State.

Riley and his wife, Dee, have a son, Matthew, 11, and a daughter, Kate, 7.

KEITH BURNS

Defensive Coordinator
Secondary

Keith Burns, a bright and energetic young coach, is in his third season on the Trojan staff after coming aboard in February of 1993. Prior to the 1995 Cotton Bowl, he was appointed as the defensive coordinator. He also continues to coach the secondary, primarily the safeties.

Burns, 34, was an assistant at Rice for 4 years (1989-92), in charge of the defensive backs in 1992 and before that handling the special teams, strong safeties and outside linebackers.

He was an assistant at Pacific for 4 seasons (1985-88), working with the defensive backs, running backs and special teams during his tenure (he was also the offensive coordinator in 1988). He worked there under coach Bob Cope, a former USC assistant.

Burns began his coaching career at his collegiate alma mater, Arkansas, as a graduate assistant for 2 years (1983-84). Former Trojan defensive coordinator Don Lindsey, who Burns succeeded at USC, was the defensive coordinator at Arkansas during Burns' first season there as a coach.

He was a 4-year (1979-82) letterman defensive back at Arkansas, starting for 3 seasons. Lindsey was the defensive coordinator there for Burns' last 2 seasons. Burns earned a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1983.

Born Sept. 26, 1960, he was an all-state footballer at L.D. Bell High in Hurst, Tex.

He and his wife, Yvonne, have 2 sons, K.C., 8, and Tanner, 6.

MIKE BARRY

Offensive Line

Known as an outstanding offensive line coach, Mike Barry is in his third season at USC. He came to Troy in January of 1993.

He is in charge of one of the traditionally preeminent units in college football (there have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen at USC since 1964 and 18 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968).

In 1994, Trojan offensive tackle was a consensus All-American and a first round NFL draft choice (the No. 2 pick).

In 1993, Barry had the unique opportunity of being a coach on a team that included his son, Joe, who was an inside linebacker. This year, Joe is serving alongside Mike on USC's coaching staff as a defensive assistant (he was Troy's video coordinator in 1994).

Barry, 48, has 23 years of coaching experience. He came to USC after serving as the interior offensive line coach at Colorado for 6 seasons (1987-92). He tutored the entire line in 1991. Colorado won the national championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career as an assistant for 5 years (1972-76) at his prep alma mater, Fenwick High in Oak Park, Ill.

His first collegiate coaching experience was at his college alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the offensive line coach for 3 seasons (1977-79). He then was the offensive line coach at Arizona for 4 years (1980-83) under former USC coach Larry Smith.

Barry then worked in pro football for 2 years, first as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers (1984), then as the line coach with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1985).

He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the offensive line coach at Iowa State.

Barry was a 2-year starting center at Southern Illinois (he spent his first 2 years of college at Nebraska). He earned 2 degrees from SIU: a bachelor's in physical education in 1969 and a master's in recreation and special education in 1972.

Born Oct. 18, 1946, he starred in 3 sports at Fenwick High.

Besides son Joe, 25, Mike has a daughter, Courtney, 19.

ROD MARINELLI

Defensive Line

Rod Marinelli, who has spent all but 1 year of his 19-year collegiate coaching career handling the defensive line, was been named the defensive line coach at USC prior to the 1995 Cotton Bowl.

Marinelli, 46, came to USC from Arizona State, where he was the assistant head coach and defensive line coach during his 3-year stay (1992-94). Among his Sun Devil pupils was 2-time All-American first team defensive end Shante Carver, a 1993 Lombardi Award semifinalist.

Before that, Marinelli was the defensive line coach at California for 9 years (1983-91). He also was the assistant head coach there in 1990 and 1991.

He came to California from Utah State, where he served for 7 years (1976-82). He was the defensive line coach the first 6 years, then handled the Aggies' offensive line and special teams in 1982. He coached 3 Pacific Coast Athletic Association Defensive Players of the Year (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko, and Shawn Miller).

For 15 of his collegiate coaching years (all but 1983-86), Marinelli worked under head coach Bruce Snyder.

Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead (Calif.) High, where he was an assistant coach for 3 seasons (1973-75).

Marinelli played at Cal Lutheran, where he earned NAIA All-American honors in 1972. After serving 2 years in the Army in Vietnam, he received his bachelor's degree from Cal Lutheran in history in 1974. He starred in football, wrestling and track at Rosemead.

Born July 13, 1949, he and his wife, Barbara, have 2 daughters: Christine, 25, and Gina, 14.

DAVID ROBINSON

Tight Ends

John Robinson knows a lot about his tight ends coach. That's because it's his oldest son, David, now in his third year at USC and a fine coach in his own right.

David, 32, who joined the Trojan staff in January of 1993, has coached with 6 other teams in his career: as the offensive line coach at College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., in 1992, a volunteer assistant at California in 1991 (working with the defensive line), a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1990, the outside linebackers coach at UC Davis for 2 seasons (1988-89), a general assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1987 (when his father was the coach there), and an assistant coach at St. Anthony's High in Long Beach, Calif., in 1986.

Robinson was a 2-year starting tight end for Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, which won the 1983 national JC title, and then played at Long Beach State (1984-85). He earned a bachelor's degree from Long Beach State in 1986.

He prepped at Sonora High in La Habra, Calif.

Born July 19, 1963, he is single.

MIKE SANFORD

Wide Receivers

Mike Sanford, USC's wide receivers coach, is no stranger to John Robinson.

Sanford, a player and graduate assistant coach at USC during Robinson's earlier stint at USC, was the only fulltime assistant retained from Larry Smith's staff when Robinson was hired in January of 1993.

Sanford, 40, has been in charge of USC's wide receivers the past 6 years (since 1989). He has coached 2 Trojan All-American first teamers (flanker Curtis Conway in 1992, who was a first round draft pick in the 1993 NFL draft, and wide receiver Johnnie Morton, Troy's all-time receiving leader who set 12 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993 and then was a first round NFL draft choice) and 5 USC All-Pac-10 first team receivers (split end John Jackson in 1989, flanker Gary Wellman in 1990, Conway in 1991 and 1992, Morton in 1993, and Keyshawn Johnson in 1994). Jackson was USC's career receiving leader before Morton surpassed him. Wellman was USC's first 1,000-yard season receiver (he is fifth on USC's all-time pass catching list), Morton was the second to do so and Johnson became the third.

Sanford made 5 coaching stops prior to returning to Troy in the summer of 1989 after a 12-year absence.

He was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and game coordinator at Purdue for 2 years (1987-88).

Before that, he spent 4 seasons (1983-86) handling the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Long Beach State. He was also Long Beach State's offensive coordinator his final 2 years there (Long Beach State was in the Top 10 nationally in pass offense both years). His 49er quarterback, Doug Gaynor, set 4 NCAA career records, while Mark Templeton set the NCAA career pass catching mark.

Sanford was also at Virginia Military Institute for 2 years (1981-82), working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, as well as serving as the pass offense coordinator.

And he spent 2 years (1979-80) at Army under Lou Saban, handling the wide receivers and tight ends.

In 1978, he was the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

Sanford began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Robinson at USC in 1977.

He had spent the previous 4 years (1973-76) at USC as a reserve quarterback and safety. In 1975, John McKay's final year, Sanford began the season as the Trojans' No. 4 quarterback, but he was suddenly named the starter (for Vince Evans) for the Washington game late in the year. Sanford was such an unknown that when McKay announced this to the media prior to the game, the coach called him "Stafford." Sanford gave a valiant effort, but USC lost, 8-7, on a safety following a bad snap to the punter.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from USC in 1978.

Sanford was an All-Northern California quarterback at Los Altos (Calif.) High in the Bay Area. His brother, Bill, played football and baseball at Washington State, while another brother, Steve, played football at Washington.

Sanford was born on April 20, 1955. He and his wife, Melinda (a USC graduate), have 2 children: a daughter, Lindsay, 16, and a son, Michael, 13.

DOUG SMITH

Offensive Line

Doug Smith knows a thing or two about the offensive line, as he spent his entire playing career as a talented offensive lineman.

He's now in his third year at USC, but his first working with the offensive line. He spent his first 2 years on the other side of the ball, serving as Troy's defensive line coach. He coached Willie McGinest at USC in 1993 and McGinest was the fourth pick in the 1994 NFL draft.

Smith, 38, was reunited with his pro coach when John Robinson hired him at USC in January of 1993.

He was a volunteer coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1992, working with the offensive line.

He spent his entire 14-year (1978-1991), 188-game NFL playing career with the Rams as a center (he also played some at guard and tackle early in his career). He was named to the Pro Bowl 6 times (1984-89). He played in Super Bowl XIV. He was named All-NFL in 1986 and All-NFC in 1989, both by Football News. From 1986 to 1991, he started 76 consecutive games. Signed as a free agent, he was active throughout his NFL career in charity and community functions as well as speaking for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He was a 4-year letterman at Bowling Green (1974-77), winning All-Mid-American Conference honors at guard as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green in 1978 and a master's degree in exercise physiology from Cal State Fullerton in 1987.

Born Nov. 25, 1956, Smith was a 3-sport star at Northland High in Columbus, Ohio.

He and his wife, Debbie, have 2 daughters, Jessica, 10, and Jenna, 7.

DENNIS THURMAN

Secondary

Dennis Thurman, one of USC's and the NFL's great defensive backs, returned to his alma mater in January of 1993 to share his playing and coaching knowledge. He's in his third season handling the Trojan secondary, primarily the cornerbacks.

Thurman, 39, was a 2-time All-American (1976-77) safety and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, playing for John McKay and then John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 Trojan national champions and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 interceptions (tied for sixth on Troy's all-time list) and returned 2 for TDs. He added 169 career tackles, 11 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries, plus 28 punt returns and 2 kickoff returns. He led the conference in interceptions in 1976 with 8. During his first 2 years at USC, he played both safety and flanker (overall, he started 5 games at flanker, catching 3 passes and running 7 reverses).

Thurman then spent 9 years as a cornerback and safety in the NFL, his first 8 seasons (1978-85) with the Dallas Cowboys (he was an 11th round draft pick) and then 1986 with the St. Louis Cardinals. He had 36 career NFL interceptions and played in the 1981 Pro Bowl. He never missed a game during his 137-game career.

After his playing career, Thurman became an assistant coach. He was the secondary coach for the Phoenix Cardinals under Gene Stallings for 2 years (1988-89), then was the defensive coordinator of the World League's Ohio Glory in 1992 (he was out of coaching in 1990 and 1991).

His brother, Junior, was a Trojan defensive back in 1985-86. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from USC in 1978.

Born April 13, 1956, Thurman was a 3-sport star at Santa Monica (Calif.) High.

Thurman is the father of 2 daughters: Chelsea, 11, and Jade, 6.

CHARLES WHITE

Running Backs

"Somehow, I always feel better with Charlie White standing next to me," said USC coach John Robinson when he named White as USC's running backs coach in January of 1993. "He was the toughest, most intense running back I've ever coached."

The pair have a long association. White, 37 and in the third year of his first-ever coaching job, was USC's 1979 Heisman Trophy winner at tailback and a 2-time unanimous All-American (1978-79). He finished his 4-year USC career (1976-79, all under Robinson) as the school's all-time rushing leader with 6,245 yards (second best in NCAA history) and 49 TDs. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing with 2,050 yards and set or equalled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He was the nation's leading all-purpose runner in 1978 and 1979. USC captured the national championship in 1978 (it finished second in 1976 and 1979) and won 4 bowl games during his career. The 1979 and 1980 Rose Bowl Player of the Game, White was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1990. In 1995, he was inducted into USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

A first round 1980 draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, he played in the NFL for 9 years. He was with the Browns from 1980 through 1984, then was with Robinson's Los Angeles Rams from 1985 until retiring after the 1988 season. He led the NFL in rushing in 1987 with 1,374 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

He spent 3 years (1990-92) as a special assistant to former USC athletic director Mike McGee, involved in the Former Athlete Degree Achievement Program (for ex-Trojans who return to USC to finish their degree requirements), as well as in the athletic department's summer sports camp for local youths, community relations and facilities management. White himself was a participant in the FADAP program and received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1993.

White has 3 times been a winner on a special football players segment of the "American Gladiators" television show.

Born Jan. 22, 1958, he was a football and track star at San Fernando (Calif.) High.

He and his wife, Judi, have 5 children: daughters Nicole, 14, Tara, 9, and Sophia, 8, and sons Julian, 13, and Ashton, 10.

JOE BARRY

Defensive Line

After being a member of the USC football team for 3 years, Joe Barry is in his second year with the Trojan football staff. He was Troy's video coordinator in 1994 and now in 1995 is an assistant defensive coach (he works with the defensive line).

Joe also has the unique opportunity to work with his father, Mike, who is USC's offensive line coach.

Barry, 25, started 7 games at inside linebacker for the Trojans in 1993. He recorded 33 tackles overall (1 for a loss), 3 deflections and 1 interception (late in the Washington game to preserve Troy's victory). He had a team-best 7 tackles at Oregon before suffering a sprained left knee in the game, which sidelined him for the Oregon State contest and limited him to special teams duty against Notre Dame and California.

As a 1992 junior, Barry served as the often-employed No. 2 weakside inside linebacker, as well as playing on special teams. Three of his 4 tackles in 1992 were for losses (of 10 yards), including 1 sack. Barry sat out 1991 after transferring to USC from Michigan.

Barry did not play as a 1990 redshirt freshman at Michigan while recovering from a 1989 late-season knee injury. He redshirted in 1989 as a first-year freshman inside linebacker for the Wolverines.

He received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1994. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Barry was a 2-time (1987-88) All-Colorado pick at Fairview High in Boulder. Barry was an All-Iowa second team selection as a 1986 sophomore at Ames (Ia.) High. He also starred in basketball and track as a prepster.

Born July 5, 1970, Barry is single.

TIM PRUKOP

Linebackers

Tim Prukop, who served as USC's video coordinator in 1993, is in his second year as a defensive football coach. He works with the linebackers.

Prukop, 30, was Arizona State's video coordinator in 1988 and graduate assistant football coach in 1989, working with the inside linebackers.

He also served as assistant football coach with 9 other teams: Baltimore Colts of the Canadian Football League (1994), Dallas Texans (1993) and Sacramento Attack (1992) of the Arena Football League, Rio Hondo Junior College (1992), Oregon Lightning Bolts of the Professional Spring Football League (1991), Santa Margarita High (1990-91), Cal Lutheran (1988), and pro teams in Bari, Italy (1988) and Helsinki, Finland (1987).

He played linebacker at UC Davis (1984-87), earning All-League honors in 1987.

He has a bachelor's degree in international affairs from UC Davis in 1987 and a master's degree in international relations from Arizona State in 1992.

He also played 9 years of national-level rugby.

His father, Al, was a 3-year quarterback/defensive back at USC (1958-60). Prukop also has 6 brothers and cousins who played college football.

He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Born Jan. 22, 1965, he and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Dakota, 2.

JAMES STROM

Strength and Conditioning Coach

James Strom is in his third season as USC's strength and conditioning coach after being named to the position in February of 1993.

Strom, 32, served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Los Angeles Rams for 3 seasons (1987-89) while John Robinson was the coach.

He then worked in the Santa Ana (Calif.) and Whittier (Calif.) school districts as an adapted physical education specialist.

He also has operated F.I.T. Beach Athletics since 1990, an outdoor weight facility in Long Beach, Calif., and for 6 seasons (1985-90) served as a personal trainer for major league pitcher Jeff Dedmon.

Strom received bachelor's degrees in physical education from Long Beach State in 1987 (fitness) and 1991 (adapted physical education) and an associate arts degree in athletic training from Santa Ana College in 1984.

While in college, he served as a physical therapy aide at the Physical Therapy Institute in Huntington Beach, Calif., and as a student trainer with the Rams.

Born Aug. 30, 1963, he is an avid runner and has completed 7 marathons.

He and his wife, Jogie, have a daughter, Sydney, 1.

Strom is assisted by Jamie Yanchar and Brad Simpkins.

MARK PRETO

Video Coordinator

Mark Preto came to USC in June of 1995 as the video coordinator after handling similar duties at Oregon for 4 years (1991-94).

He was the Ducks' head video coordinator for 2 seasons (1993-94) after serving as a graduate assistant in 1991 and an assistant in 1992. In the summer of 1992, he also worked in the video department of the Cleveland Browns.

Preto, 28, was an assistant video and recruiting coordinator for 2 years (1989-90) at his alma mater, Akron.

He played outside linebacker for 3 seasons (1986-88) at Akron. In 1986, he was named the team's top scholar-athlete. He received his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Akron in 1990.

He starred in football and wrestling at Benedictine High in Cleveland (Ohio).

Born Feb. 26, 1967, Preto is single.

ADAM ABRAMS

Placekicker
Fr.*/So.

1995: Abrams, a redshirt freshman known for his strong leg and accuracy, inherits in 1995 the placekicking job vacated by Cole Ford. He appears to have a bright future.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Abrams has the potential to have a great career. He's young, but I think you'll hear a lot about him the next 4 years. He gets the ball up very fast and has good leg strength."

1994: Abrams redshirted as a placekicker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was on the 1993 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American and Football News All-American first teams, plus USA Today All-USA second team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team (the first placekicker selected in the 18 years of the poll), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, National Football Foundation/San Diego Chapter Offensive Player of the Year and All-CIF San Diego Section first team at The Bishop's School in La Jolla (Calif.). He hit 9-of-13 field goals (including 52- and 50-yarders) and 30-of-30 PATs as a 1993 senior.

He made the San Diego Union-Tribune All-San Diego County second team in 1992 as a junior while hitting 8-of-11 field goals and 30-of-30 PATs. He was 13-of-17 on PATs in 1991 as a sophomore. In his career, 116 of his 126 kickoffs went for touchbacks, including one that he kicked from the 20-yard line following a safety. He raised more than $7,000 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation by raising pledges for each point he scored as a junior and senior, an effort that was acknowledged by California governor Pete Wilson, who nominated Adam for a Young American Medal for Service.

He also was All-League in soccer and baseball as a prep. He won an Advanced Placement Scholar Award at Bishop's.

PERSONAL: Adam has a B+ average (3.32 GPA) at USC. His brother, Eric, is a senior placekicker at Stanford (the brothers talk on the phone twice a week). They kicked against each other in high school, as Eric went to Country Day School in La Jolla. Adam played keyboards in a band when he was younger. He says the funniest thing that happened to him in a game was when "I once downed my own punt when I was kicking into an extremely strong wind which took the ball backwards behind the line of scrimmage." His sports hero is ex-USC All-American linebacker Junior Seau.

ADAM ABRAMS ON: Redshirting as a freshman: "That was fine with me, because I was able to get settled in with the whole program. I started to get the routine down with football and managing my time. And I learned a lot from Cole Ford, watching him in the game and in practice...I think I'm going to be a lot more prepared for 1995."

Adjustments from high school to college kicking: "I'm working on my elevation, because when I watched Cole kick, compared to me, he got so much elevation. I've got to work on my hip strength...(Kicking without a tee,) I've lost a little bit of distance and elevation, but I've gotten a lot better at it than when I started. The redshirt year helped with that...The Coliseum is sort of a tough place to kick, because the grass is real soft and the ball sinks in. You've got to really work on getting the ball up."

JOHN ALLRED

Tight End
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Allred, a junior who has everything you look for in an outstanding tight end, should regain in 1995 the starting job he gave up when he broke his leg early in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Allred was on his way to a great season in 1994 until the injury. He's a dominant blocker, a fierce competitor, a team leader and one of the better all-around players in the Pac-10."

1994: As a 1994 sophomore, Allred started USC's first 3 games at tight end, but then broke his left leg in practice prior to the Oregon game and was sidelined until the Notre Dame contest. He played briefly in goal line situations against the Irish and then caught a 12-yard pass against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Overall, he had 11 catches for 143 yards (13.0 avg.). He had a career-high 3 catches (for 26 yards) in the Washington season opener, then upped his personal best with 4 grabs (for 61 yards) at Penn State. He also had 3 catches (for 44 yards) versus Baylor.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Allred saw action in USC's first 11 games of 1993 as the backup tight end behind Banta and on special teams. He sat out the UCLA and Utah games with a broken bone in his left lower leg. He caught 10 passes for 93 yards (9.3 avg.) in 1993, including 2 each at Penn State, Notre Dame and California. He also recorded 5 tackles on special teams.

1992: Allred redshirted as a tight end in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way star and 3-year starter at Torrey Pines High in Encinitas (Calif.), Allred made Super Prep All-Far West, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Diego County first team, Oceanside Blade-Tribune All-Area first team (offense and defense), and All-Palomar League first team (tight end and linebacker) as a senior in 1991. He was named Palomar League Defensive Player of the Year as well after recording 93 tackles and a pair of interceptions. He had 23 catches for 347 yards (15.1 avg.) as a tight end for the Falcons, who finished 8-3 in 1991 and in second place in the Palomar League. He was named a scholar-athlete by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and won San Diego Union Academic Athlete Award. He was a 3-year varsity letterman in basketball.

PERSONAL: John's sister, Linda, was a key member of the USC women's tennis team from 1989 to 1992. He bench presses 305 pounds. He's an economics major at USC.

BOB AUBREY

Linebacker
6-3, 215
Fr.*/So.

1995: Aubrey, a redshirt freshman, will provide depth at linebacker in 1995.

1994: Aubrey redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Aubrey was named 1993 Blue Chip All-Western Region, Pasadena Star-News All-Area first team, Glendale News Press All-Area second team, All-Mission League first team, and team MVP as a senior at St. Francis High in La Canada (Calif.). He led his team in tackles in 1993 with 118 (7 for losses), plus 5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 2 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks. He played outside linebacker, safety, tight end and halfback in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-Area second team and All-Mission League first team while posting 78 tackles, 7 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions. He made the 1991 All-San Fernando League second team as a sophomore and scored a 65-yard TD the first time he ever touched the ball. He also was on the track team at St. Francis.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He bench presses 350 pounds. His parents (his father, Truman, lettered on the 1961 Trojan national championship baseball team) and older brother also attended USC. Fellow Trojan Rome Douglas attended St. Francis before moving to another high school.

TERRY BARNUM

Running Back
Sr./Sr.

1995: As valuable as Barnum was to USC in 1994, look for the senior running back who has a line on starting for his second season to be used even more in 1995, both receiving and running. He missed most of 1995 spring practice after breaking his left shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "What a great lift Barnum gave us last year. He was as efficient and effective as any player we had in 1994. He made spectacular catches in key moments. He's one of the smartest players I've known and one of the most competitive. He's very quick, like a lead blocker has to be, and he's a good receiver."

1994: Barnum, who spent his first 2 seasons at USC in the secondary and then was moved to tailback in 1994 spring drills, was switched to fullback at the start of fall drills and the change proved to be a good one. As a junior, he started the last 10 games of 1994 and turned out to be an effective blocker and dangerous receiver. Although he carried the ball only 4 times in 1994 (for 5 yards, 1.3 avg.), he was second on the team in receptions with 34 for 302 yards (8.9 avg.) and 3 TDs. He caught a pass in all 10 games he started, including 6 against Baylor for 77 yards and Arizona (a team best) for 72 yards and 5 against Oregon and Stanford. He caught 2 TD passes (7 and 2 yards) versus California and had a 19-yard scoring reception against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. He also made 2 tackles on special teams.

1993: As a sophomore, Barnum spent 1993 as the No. 2 cornerback behind Jason Sehorn and as a key special teams player. He appeared in 11 games and made 6 tackles.

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Barnum was a reserve cornerback who played often on special teams. He made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a tailback at Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.), Barnum was named 1991 Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-Mission League second team. Despite being slowed the last half of his senior season with an ankle sprain, he ran for 1,150 yards and 16 TDs and caught 23 passes for 300-plus yards and 2 TDs.

A 3-year starter, he had 1,185 yards and 18 TDs as a junior (he rushed for 349 yards and 6 TDs in a game). He was a 1990 Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team pick. He rushed for over 2,800 yards in his career at Alemany.

Terry lettered 4 years in track as well, clocking a best of 10.6 in the 100 meters and 21.8 in the 200 meters. He was a 2-time Mission League champ in both the 100 meters and 200 meters. He won the CIF 2-A 100 meters title as a sophomore in 1988. He served as his school's senior class vice president. He made the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

PERSONAL: He was born in Tampa, Fla. He is a communications major at USC with a B average (3.21 GPA). He made the 1994 Pac-10 All-Academic first team. He has worked in the sports department at the Los Angeles Daily News, covering high school and community league teams.

TERRY BARNUM ON: Why he asked to move to running back: "It was more to settle something in my own mind. I wanted to see if I can cut it at the Division I level...I'll admit that in my first 2 years here, I was starting to think, 'Maybe I've reached my peak. Maybe I was a great high school player and that's it.' I think any time a person goes from the spotlight to the shadows, it kind of works on your ego. But my family was very supportive. My mom kept telling me, 'Your day is coming.' Really, that's the only thing I had to hold onto those couple of years...I asked Coach Robinson what would have to happen for me to play, and he said, 'Keep fullback in the back of your mind.' I took that to mean I could play fullback or I could stand on the sideline and watch...My focus was to leave no doubt in the coaches' minds which side of the ball I belonged on. I tried to get better on every play, make no mistakes and show them I could block...I'm more of an offensive player by nature. I like to know what is going on before the play, what my responsibilities are going to be. Offense allows me to know that...Now I'm playing--and starting--and that is most rewarding."

Playing fullback: "It's a combination of being able to block, being able to run the ball and catch the ball...I think I can do that. My advantage is technique. If I have bad technique, it's not going to look good and you'll be able to tell I'm 5-10 and 200 pounds...In our offense, the fullback is used in so many ways. Other teams never know how I'll be used."

His family: "There is one thing that's even greater than being a Trojan, and that is being a Barnum. I'm really grateful to my family. I have partents who are both at home, they don't fight with each other...Their children are more important to them than anything. Every day, that helps me...In my home, it was understood that sports was just part of the package of life. If we got poor grades, Mom and Dad yanked us off the team, not the coach."

Working as a sportswriter: "All my life, I had wanted to play in the high school Shrine All-Star game and the players are selected by the media. During my senior year in high school, I wrote a letter to all the Los Angeles media outlets expressing my desire to play in that game. I told them that, for me, the Shrine game meant more than a football game because I knew they used it as a way to help children in the hosptial. One of the writers at the Daily News (Tim Trepany) called the athletic director at my high school and told him how impressed he was with my letter. He said, 'Not only will I vote for him, but I'd also like to offer him a job.' When I heard that, I called him and he hired me to work a couple days a week in the office...I've always enjoyed communication. I like to talk. I like sports. And I like to write about sports...It's something I really enjoy. After all, I get to sit at a desk and read or talk about sports all day long!...The most difficult part of being a reporter is that sometimes you have to almost pull information out of someone. You have to follow your instincts sometimes and go with a key word or phrase to find out what really happened. You have to learn the right questions to ask."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "He can do a lot of things well. He's a versatile guy. And he always wants badly to contribute...He's a very fundamentally sound blocker. He's small, but he's compact and powerful. And he knows how to get low and use leverage on bigger guys. What he is, really, is courageous. And he's so smart."

HEITH BAUGHMAN

Offensive Tackle
6-6, 290
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Baughman, a junior offensive tackle, is a reserve left offensive tackle in 1995. He missed part of 1995 spring practice with a sprained lower back.

1994: Baughman redshirted as a junior offensive tackle in 1994, his first year at USC after transferring from Bakersfield Community College.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Baughman was named to the 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American second team, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III first team and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at Bakersfield (Calif.) Community College. Bakersfield was 10-1 in 1993, ranked No. 8 in the nation and played in the Shrine Potato Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Arvin (Calif.) High, but a knee injury hampered him in his 1990 senior year. He also played basketball at Arvin.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

RICHARD BEATIE

Offensive Guard
6-6, 285
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Beatie, a junior offensive guard who can also play tackle, is a backup at left guard (with David Pratchard) behind Chris Brymer, but a strong showing in 1995 spring drills has him competing to play in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Beatie made real strides in 1995 spring practice, to the point where he is working his way into a playing role. He's a tough guy."

1994: Beatie redshirted as a junior offensive guard in 1994, his first year at USC after transferring from Glendale Community College.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Beatie made the 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American and J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first teams, plus J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III first team and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at Glendale (Calif.) Community College. He had an 80% blocking grade in every game in 1993 and never allowed a sack. Glendale won the Valley of the Sun Bowl in 1993 and went 8-2 while playing in the K-Swiss Bowl in 1992.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at San Gabriel (Calif.) High, where he won All-League honors for 3 years. He also played basketball and track at San Gabriel.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His grandfather, Gene, played football at USC in 1926-27. He likes to fish in his spare time. His sports hero is Larry Bird because "he was never the strongest or fastest or blessed with great abilities, but he worked hard, and had great technique and focus; that's how I plan to be."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Glendale College coach John Cicuto: "In my 18 years at Glendale, Richard could be the top offensive lineman to come out of this school. He's in the mold of former Glendale star Bill Schultz (a former USC starter who played in the NFL)."

MARCUS BONDS

Defensive End
6-6, 250
Sr./Sr.

1995: Bonds, a senior who specializes in pass rushing, will compete with Willie Lowery and Israel Ifeanyi for playing time at either of the defensive end spots in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Whether he starts or not, I consider Bonds a starter. He's an effective pass rusher and can really disrupt a play. We need for him to perform well in 1995."

1994: As a junior who transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 from West Los Angeles Community College, Bonds started 4 games at defensive end in 1994 and spent the rest of the season as an often-used backup to Willie Lowery. Overall, he made 16 tackles, including 2 sacks for minus 9 yards, and had a deflection. A sprained left ankle kept him out of the Washington State and Arizona games.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Bonds made the 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III honorable mention, and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. He had a game with 12 tackles and 5 sacks.

In 1992 as a freshman, he won All-Western State Conference second team honors. Current Trojans Keyshawn Johnson and Chris Miller also went to West Los Angeles.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Monroe High in Sepulveda (Calif.), but he didn't play football there (he was on the basketball team as a 1986 senior).

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He bench presses 335 pounds.

KEN BOWEN

Offensive Tackle
6-8, 320
Fr.*/So.

1995: A redshirt freshman, Bowen will serve as the backup right offensive tackle behind Norberto Garrido in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bowen has a good future awaiting him. He has the size, commitment and intelligence needed and, as he matures, he could develop into an outstanding player."

1994: Bowen redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bowen earned 1993 Super Prep All-Florida, All-Central Florida and All-Metro notice as a senior at Dr. Phillips High in Orlando (Fla.). He made All-Metro third team as a 1992 junior. He also was on the track team, throwing the javelin, discus (166-7 best) and shot put (50-3 best).

PERSONAL: He was born in San Antonio, Tex. He bench presses 400 pounds.

MARIO BRADLEY

Cornerback
Sr./Sr.

1995: Bradley, a senior who started half of 1994 at free safety, has been moved to cornerback in 1995 spring drills and will replace John Herpin as the starter at that spot.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Moving Bradley to cornerback will pay off because he's much more at home there. He got some good experience last year at safety and performed well. He has big-play capability and is excellent in man-to-man coverage."

1994: Bradley transferred to USC from Cerritos Community College in the fall of 1994 and earned the starting free safety job by midseason as a junior. He started the last 6 regular-season games there. Prior to the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech, he was moved to cornerback (he didn't start, but did play, notching 2 tackles). Overall while appearing in 12 games in 1994, he had 30 tackles (1 for a loss) and 3 deflections. He had a team-high 7 tackles versus Arizona and had 5 stops at Oregon State.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Bradley made the 1993 Super Prep Juco 100 and All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team as a sophomore at Cerritos Community College in Norwalk (Calif.). He made 37 tackles, 5 deflections, 1 interception, 1 forced fumble, and 1 blocked kick. The receivers he covered had only 21 catches (for just 236 yards) all season. Cerritos played in the 1993 Orange County Bowl. He had 29 tackles, 1 interception and 1 deflection in 1992. He also was on the track team at Cerritos.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Long Beach (Calif.) Jordan High, where he played football and track (he won the Moore League 400 meters in 1988).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His uncle, Lorenzo Gray, played for the Chicago White Sox.

CHRIS BRYMER

Offensive Guard
6-3, 285
So.*/Jr.

1995: Brymer, a precocious, tough sophomore, returns as the starting left offensive guard in 1995, but he'll compete for the job with Kyle Ramsay.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Brymer is a tough player with good potential. He's young, but he's already been tested. He'll be pushed for playing time by Ramsay."

1993: Brymer redshirted as an offensive guard in 1993, his first year at USC. A right ankle sprain sidelined him during the final 3 weeks of the regular season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-San Bernardino County, All-Citrus Belt League first team and team MVP at Apple Valley (Calif.) High.

In 1991, he was All-San Bernardino County and All-San Andreas League first team (both offense and defense). He made All-San Andreas League in 1990.

Chris was also was a shot putter (57-9 best) who placed fourth in the 1991 CIF meet and discus thrower (161-1 best).

PERSONAL: He bench presses 400 pounds. He likes to play pool.

CHRIS BRYMER ON: Playing offensive line: "I don't take anything from other people on the field. I beat up people as much as I can. I'm a mean guy on the field. When I get a chance to do something, no mercy. You get hit, you want to go get them back. I flip the switch and I'm ready to go get people. You've got to be mean to play. You can't be going out here hugging people. It's like a fight. A legal fight."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC 2-time All-American offensive tackle and 1995 NFL first round pick Tony Boselli: "Chris is so strong, he gets away with a lot of things other guys wouldn't. He goes after guys and he's tough. I like playing with guys like that."

TYLER CASHMAN

Tight End
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Cashman, a senior with a strong Trojan background who is known for his strong blocking and good hands, should again see plenty of action while alternating with Johnny McWilliams as a tight end and H-back (tight-end-in-motion) in 1995. He missed part of 1995 spring practice with a sprained lower back.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cashman is more of an H-back. We need to find specific ways to use his ability. He's extremely competitive and has triple value as a tight end, H-back and wide receiver."

1994: Cashman was on the field often as a junior in 1994. He started once (at Washington State) at tight end and 6 times (Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Arizona and UCLA) at H-back, a position he shared with McWilliams. Overall in 1994, Cashman had 17 catches for 176 yards (10.4 avg.) with 1 TD (a 1-yarder at Oregon State). He had 4 catches for 49 yards at Penn State.

1993: Cashman alternated at H-back with McWilliams as a 1993 sophomore. Overall in 1993, he caught 21 passes for 181 yards (8.6 avg.) with 2 TDs (a 5-yarder against North Carolina and a 7-yarder versus Houston). He had a game-high 6 grabs against North Carolina and added 4 grabs at Notre Dame and 3 at Washington. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips in his right knee.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Cashman was moved to tight end from split end in 1992 spring drills. He saw limited action as a 1992 reserve.

1991: Cashman redshirted as a split end in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick while at Los Alamitos (Calif.) High, Cashman made 80 catches (tops in Orange County in 1990 and third best ever in county history) for 1,019 yards (12.7 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. He was also named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Empire League Offensive Player of the Year. He had a single-game best of 14 catches (12 in the first half) for 145 yards.

Cashman collected 45 receptions for a 19.3 average with 8 TDs as a 1989 junior. In his career, he made 126 catches (seventh on the Orange County all-time chart) and averaged more than 20 yards per grab. He played wide receiver, tight end, defensive back and punter. He also starred in baseball.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. He bench presses 300 pounds. His father, Pat, was a defensive back at USC in 1966 and 1967 (he won honorable mention All-American laurels in 1967) who returned an interception of a Gary Beban pass 55 yards for a touchdown in Troy's famous 21-20 win over UCLA in 1967 which clinched a Rose Bowl berth and national championship for the Trojans. The Cashman family is indeed a Trojan family: Tyler's sister is named Summer, so her initials are S.C.; the family dog is named Troy and the family cat is Traveler.

TYLER CASHMAN ON: Playing H-back: "The position is great from the standpoint that I was a receiver and a tight end in high school, and this is right in between. It's like both positions in one, which is perfect. It's my ideal position...It's fun because you have an advantage because you're a lot bigger than the guys you block. But it's tough because they're not going to come and take you on. They'll try to juke you and dive you, so you have to be quick, too. I've had quite a few good hits. The best ones are the ones when someone else is catching the ball and you run to help him and you get the nice blindside shots...Of course, we always want to catch the ball. We joke that we get mad when they put us in a run play."

His father: "When I was young, it was SC this and SC that. But he backed off when I got to high school...He said he didn't want me to go to USC just because he went there...I don't think I could have played anywhere else. I've always wanted to go here. There was no question in my mind...It's very weird now. It's hard to picture he once wore a cardinal and gold uniform, playing football in the same stadium. It brings us closer together. He helps me a lot. Basically, he taught me to play the game when I started."

His calm demeanor: "I don't get nervous. I've always been that way. I guess I go the other way with it. I wouldn't say I get goofy, but I've always been relaxed and casual about that stuff."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Matt White, USC Report: "Some guys are born to be cool and Tyler Cashman is cooler than the other side of the pillow."

BRAD CERVANTES

Defensive End
6-4, 225
Fr./Fr.

1995: Cervantes enrolled at USC in the spring of 1995 as a freshman reserve defensive end after sitting out the sport in 1994 following a fine prep career.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Cervantes attended Saddleback Community College in Mission Viejo (Calif.) as a part-time student in the fall of 1994, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cervantes made the 1993 Blue Chip All-Western Region, All-CIF Division VIII and All-Pacific Coast League first teams as a senior at Trabuco Hills High in Mission Viejo (Calif.). He caught 12 passes for 280 yards (23.3 avg.) and 6 TDs in 1993, and added 67 tackles and 9 sacks. He missed 4 early-season games in 1993 with an injury. Trabuco Hills won the CIF Division III title in 1993.

He was an All-League first team choice as a 1992 junior, posting 80 tackles and 16 sacks on defense and catching 6 passes for a 14.7 average on offense. He also was an All-League first teamer in baseball and played basketball at Trabuco Hills.

JESSE DAVIS

Cornerback
6-0, 200
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Davis, a senior, has been moved from cornerback to free safety in the spring of 1995 and will compete with Micah Phillips to start.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Davis will battle with Phillips for the starting job. He seems at home at safety and appears over all his nagging injuries."

1994: As a junior, Davis was a reserve cornerback and key special teams player in 1994. He made 17 tackles and 1 deflection while appearing in all 12 games. He had 5 tackles versus California and while playing as a safety against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

1993: Davis was a highly-regarded defensive back who transferred to USC in the fall of 1993 from Mt. San Antonio Community College, but redshirted that junior season while recovering from pre-season arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in his right knee.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Davis was on the 1992 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American second team (as an all-purpose player), Blue Chip J.C. Top 75, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State first team, and All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team (as defensive back and return specialist) at Mt. San Antonio Community College in Walnut (Calif.). He had 74 tackles, 7 interceptions for 56 yards (8.0 avg.), 8 deflections and 3 fumble recoveries as a cornerback in 1992. He also returned 22 kickoffs for a 28.0 average and 1 TD in 1992. He twice was named State J.C. Player of the Week in 1992, once versus El Camino J.C. (he had a 90-yard scoring kickoff return, fumble caused and recovered to set up a TD, and an interception near the goal line as Mt. SAC won the league title) and Grossmont J.C. (he had 2 picks, 9 tackles, and 88 yards on 2 kickoff returns). His team was 8-3 and played in the Orange County Classic. He was named Mt. SAC's Male Athlete of the Year in 1992-93 and he won 1 of 8 Achievement Awards in 1992 presented by the California Community College Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes.

In 1991, he made All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team (as defensive back and return specialist) while posting 56 tackles (with 2 sacks), 1 interception, 7 deflections, 1 fumble recovery, and 16 kickoff returns for a 28.6 average with 1 TD (a 96-yarder). His coach at Mt. SAC was Bill Fisk, who lettered as a lineman for 3 years (1962-64) at USC, winning All-American honors in 1964 (Fisk's older brother, Bob, played at USC, and his father, Bill Sr., was a Trojan player and assistant coach). Current Trojans Leonard Green and Roddy Layton also went to Mt. SAC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He did not play football at Jefferson High in Los Angeles.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. Davis is the father of a 4-year-old daughter, Jessica.

BENJI DeBORD

Wide Receiver
5-10, 165
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: A walk-on junior wide receiver, DeBord was so impressive in 1995 spring practice with his quickness, pass catching ability and hustle that he is listed as a backup behind Keyshawn Johnson in 1995. He also is a standout in the classroom.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "DeBord has shown dramatic improvement and now has proven he can play for us. He made all kinds of plays during the spring. He is competing for playing time."

1994: He played briefly in 4 games (Penn State, Baylor, California and Texas Tech) as a sophomore walk-on reserve wide receiver in 1994, but did not catch a pass.

1993: DeBord was a redshirt freshman walk-on reserve wide receiver in 1993, but did not see any action.

1992: He was not on the Trojan team in 1992, but participated in 1993 spring practice as a reserve walk-on wide receiver.

HIGH SCHOOL: DeBord was a 3-sport star at Columbia-Burbank High in Burbank (Wash.). He played quarterback, defensive back, tailback and punter in football, earning All-State (as a defensive back) and All-Yakima Valley East League honors as a 1991 senior. He was All-League as a 1990 junior. He missed his 1989 sophomore season with a broken arm. His father, Jim, was his prep football coach.

DeBord also was a 2-time (1991 and 1992) state Class A champion in the 100-meter dash, with a personal best of 10.7. He played third and sixth in the 200 meters, with a best clocking of 22.0. In basketball, he played 4 years on the varsity as a guard.

He was his school's valedictorian and student body president. He was a National Merit Scholar, earning a 3.99 GPA as a prepster (he got an A- in freshman art!).

PERSONAL: His brother, Tim, was a defensive back at Central Washington from 1990-93. In May of 1995, Benji married his hometown sweetheart, Darcy. DeBord is an electrical engineering major at USC with an A- average (3.68 GPA). He entered USC as a Trustee Scholar (full tuition/room and board academic scholarship). He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, the national engineering honor society. In previous summers, he has worked at the Siemens Nuclear Fuel Corporation in Richland (Wash.).

JEFF DILTZ

Tight End
6-5, 250
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Diltz, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship, again will provide solid backup help as a junior tight end in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Diltz did some good things for us in 1994. He's a solid player."

1994: As a sophomore, Diltz appeared in 10 games in 1994 as a reserve tight end and on special teams. He caught just 3 passes in 1994, but he made 2 of them count: 11-yard TD grabs against California and in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech. He missed the Washington and Penn State games while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his right knee, which occurred in pre-season practice.

1993: Diltz played in 12 games as a redshirt freshman tight end, mainly on special teams. He did not catch a pass or make a tackle. He earned a scholarship prior to the start of the 1993 season.

1992: Diltz redshirted as a tight end in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Diltz prepped at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). He and current Trojan Jonathan Himebauch were teammates at Damien.

PERSONAL: He's a business accounting major at USC with a B- average (2.81). He bench presses 340 pounds.

DAVID DOTSON

Running Back
5-11, 185
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Dotson, an experienced junior running back, will miss the 1995 season while academically ineligible and while recovering from injuries. He missed 1995 spring practice because of a chronic pinched nerve and while recovering from post-season arthroscopic surgery on his right knee.

1994: Dotson, a one-time tailback who was moved to fullback as a 1994 sophomore, appeared in 5 games (Washington, Stanford, California, Washington State and Arizona), starting the Washington opener and serving as a backup to Terry Barnum the rest of the time. He pulled a groin muscle against Washington and missed the Penn State game and then suffered slight nerve damage in his right knee prior to the UCLA game and missed USC's last 3 contests (UCLA, Notre Dame and Texas Tech). Overall in 1994, he had 2 carries for 2 yards (1.0 avg.) and 3 catches for 45 yards (15.0 avg). He also played on special teams, returning 3 short kickoffs for 27 yards (9.0 avg.) and recording 1 tackle. Dotson missed the last half of 1994 spring practice after having arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee.

1993: As a redshirt frosh, Dotson started 4 early-season games (Houston, Penn State, Washington State and Arizona) in 1993 and served as a backup the rest of the season. Overall, he rushed for 204 yards on 69 carries (3.0 avg.) with 1 TD (a 2-yard plunge against Utah) and caught 7 passes for 44 yards (6.3 avg.) with 1 TD (a 7-yarder against Washington State). He was USC's leading rusher against North Carolina (48 yards on 9 carries) and Penn State (26 yards on 16 tries) and he added 66 yards on 15 rushes versus Houston. In USC's last 7 games, he played tailback in only 2 games (Stanford and Utah). He also returned 14 kickoffs for 251 yards (17.9 avg.) in 1993. He suffered a knee strain at Oregon and missed the Oregon State game.

1992: Dotson redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a member of the first senior class at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Dotson set 5 California state records in 1991 as a tailback: most yards in a game (507, on 27 carries against Rim of the World High), season (3,544 on 354 carries for a 10.0 avg.), and career (7,265), plus most TDs in a season (46) and most points in a season (282). Among his 1991 honors were Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West Player of the Year, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team (and Medium Schools Player of the Year), Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County Co-Player of the Year, and Sunkist League Player of the Year. He did all this despite being hampered by a late season ankle injury. He also had single-game rushing totals of 445 yards and 5 TDs on 40 carries versus Notre Vista and 431 yards and 5 TDs on 31 carries versus Montgomery High in San Diego (Calif.). A 3-year starter, he had 85 career TDs. He broke CIF rushing records of 3 past or current Pac-10 standouts--ex-Trojan Ryan Knight's single game mark (formerly 501), ex-Stanford Cardinal Glyn Milburn's season standard (formerly 2,713) and ex-California Bear Russell White's career record (formerly 5,998). David led the Eagles to a 10-2 record in 1991 and an appearance in the CIF Division VIII semifinals.

As a 1990 junior, he rushed for 2,498 yards and 30 TDs on a state record 366 carries (6.8 avg.) while earning Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division VIII first team honors, and All-Sunkist League. He was coached at Valley View by Leo Brouhard, who also coached Knight at Rubidoux (Calif.) High (Knight's brother, Sammy, is currently on the USC team). Dotson was a 3-year honor roll member at Valley View and was named the school's outstanding scholar-athlete in 1992. He was a prep teammate of fellow Trojan Willie Lowery.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He bench presses 300 pounds. He was born in Passaic, N.J. Wanting to get her son out of a rough neighborhood, his mother sent him to California in 1989 to live with his father. His father was killed in a 1990 car accident, but Dotson remained in California with his stepmother.

DAVID DOTSON ON: Moving to California: "A lot of my friends in New Jersey didn't finish high school. It's kind of sad. My mom saw what was happening and sent me out to California and my dad stood behind me all the way...My dad was great. He got me to be serious about a lot of things...After my dad died, it was tough. Being 17, I just wanted to go fly back to my grandmother and brother and just give up...It would've been a cowardly move to run awy from everything...I wasn't thinking about the reason why I was here. I came out to California to straighten up. To get out of the environment that I was in...For some reason, I knew that I had to stay here. I knew if I went back, I probably wouldn't amount to too much...I just had to stay here and stick it out. I had to be, not a dad, but a big brother, to my three little half-brothers. I had to take care of them and help my stepmom out."

His father: "I took his death hard. I was going to quit football. The main reason I didn't was because my father always told me not to quit in anything I tried...My dad would take me to practice on days I didn't want to go to practice. Now I finish practice and there's nobody to meet me or talk to. I don't have a pick-me-up...He said a lot of things to me that I didn't really pay attention to until he passed. He wanted me to expect the most out of myself. I think about what he told me every day. That's something I'll never forget. I want to live by his words."

His prep career: "A lot of people thought I didn't play against anybody in high school, that it was a weak league. That's why I want to do well here, to make those people look bad...A lot of people are afraid of USC's tradition. I want to test myself. I thought it was the best test for me."

Playing fullback: "I see myself as a running back. The coaches are trying to make me a better player. I'm a good blocker now and if I can develop into an excellent blocker, it will only help me...I'm still a tailback. That's the way I think of myself. But I'm also one of the better blocking backs we have; that's why I'm at fullback now...Blocking is heart. You either dominate or get dominated. I'm not as big as other guys, so if I don't hit them first, I'm going to get it later. I'd rather hit you than wait on you to hit me."

ROME DOUGLAS

Tight End
6-7, 245
Fr.*/So.

1995: A redshirt freshman with a promising future and good athletic skills (he also plays basketball at USC), Douglas will add quality depth to the tight end corps in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Douglas has a very bright future. He can become a dominant blocker and he's getting better as a receiver."

1994: Douglas redshirted as a tight end in 1994, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: Douglas did double duty as a freshman, as he was a reserve forward on the USC men's basketball team in 1995. He appeared briefly in 5 games, scoring 1 point (0.2 avg.). On days when the basketball and football teams practiced, he attended both workouts.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western Region and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 honors as a senior at Claremont (Calif.) High. He had 7 catches for 188 yards (16.9 avg.) in 1993, along with 69 tackles and 11 deflections.

He was an All-League pick as a 1992 junior at St. Francis High in La Canada, where he caught 18 passes for 313 yards (17.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. That was his first year of playing football. Fellow Trojan Bob Aubrey also prepped at St. Francis.

He also played basketball (averaging 20.0 points, once getting 36 points and 22 rebounds in a game, and making the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoop second team), baseball and track.

PERSONAL: His father, James Douglas, played basketball at Memphis State in 1968-71 and professionally. He was named Rome because his parents were married in the Italian capital.

ROME DOUGLAS ON: Deciding to play football in high school: "Tight end. I liked the way that sounded when I first heard it. I didn't know anything about football and I still don't know much about it. I'm still trying to learn the game. I didn't even know all the positions. All I knew was quarterback and defensive end. But when our high school coach came to me and asked me to play tight end, I kind of liked that."

His style of play: "I love contact. I just want to take it to you. You may be faster than me or whatever, but when it comes down to it, defensive wins games. You've got to be a fighter."

Basketball: "Basketball was my first love and it still is. I was always a basketball player. I've always wanted to be like my dad. He's my idol. I watch clips of him and read about him all the time."

MARK FARLIN

Running Back
6-0, 235
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Primarily a blocker, Farlin will add solid depth at running back as a 1995 junior. He's also a top special teams player.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Farlin is a physical player who can be effective in short yardage situations. He's also a solid performer on special teams and can be a leader in that area."

1994: Farlin, who was switched to fullback in 1994 spring practice after previously playing inside linebacker, was a reserve blocking fullback who saw action in all 12 games on special teams as a 1994 sophomore. He fielded a short kickoff and returned it 15 yards and he also made 1 tackle.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Farlin appeared in 5 games (Washington State, Oregon State, Notre Dame, UCLA, Utah) as a reserve inside linebacker and on special teams. He made 3 tackles overall.

1992: Farlin redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Topeka Capital-Journal All-State and All-I-70 pick at Manhattan (Kan.) High, Farlin led the Indians to a 22-7 record and a trio of league championships during his last 3 years there. He made 130 tackles in 1991, including season highs of 20 against Shawnee Mission and 19 against Washburn Rural. He was selected to the Kansas All-Star game after leading Manhattan to a 6-2 record and the district co-championship.

He earned Topeka Capital-Journal All-State Class 6A honorable mention and All-Central Kansas notice in 1990. As a 1989 sophomore, he started at fullback in the state championship game for the 9-3 Indians. Mark also played baseball (2-year starter) and basketball at Manhattan.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He was married in January of 1995 and his wife's name is Stephanie.

SCOTT FIELDS

Linebacker
6-3, 200
Sr./Sr.

1995: Position switches are nothing new to Fields. He was moved from safety to linebacker in the spring of 1995--his third position in 3 years--and it appears to be beneficial as he's listed as a starter as a 1995 senior. He was limited in 1995 spring practice while recovering from post-season surgery on a dislocated left shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Fields has played a lot of positions at USC, but we've finally found the perfect spot for him at linebacker. He's a good athlete and an instinctive player. He'll do well here."

1994: After experimenting in 1993 as a tailback, Fields was moved back to safety (his 1992 position) prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl and spent his 1994 junior campaign as the backup to Sammy Knight at strong safety. Prior to the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech, he was switched to outside linebacker. Also a key special teams player, he made 23 tackles (1 for a sack), 2 deflections, 1 fumble recovery (against Texas Tech, to set up a TD) and 1 interception (against Oregon) while appearing in all 12 games in 1994. Following 1994 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee.

1993: Fields was switched in the spring of 1993 from the secondary to the offensive backfield. As a sophomore, he served as the backup tailback and appeared in 12 games in 1993 there and on special teams. He even started once (at Oregon). Overall, he ran for 231 yards on 61 carries (3.8 avg.) with 2 TDs (1-yarders versus Houston and Washington State) and caught 3 passes for 17 yards (5.7 avg.). He ran for 46 yards on 9 carries against Oregon State, 43 yards on 8 tries versus Washington State, 37 yards on 9 carries at California and 33 yards on 13 rushes against Houston. Then, prior to the Freedom Bowl against Utah, Fields was moved back to the secondary, where he served as Micah Phillips' backup at strong safety (he played in the game, but didn't make a tackle). He had post-season arthroscopic surgery to repair a slightly torn ligament in his left knee.

1992: One of 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Fields was a reserve safety and key special teams player.

HIGH SCHOOL: Fields was named Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-CIF Division I first team after leading Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif) to a 9-2 record in 1991 and its second consecutive Angelus League championship. He rushed for 1,589 yards on 242 carries (6.5 avg.) and 16 TDs, plus had 6 catches for 65 yards (10.8 avg.), despite being hobbled by an ankle sprain the last part of 1991.

In 1990, he ran for 1,416 yards on 176 carries (8.0 avg.) and 17 TDs while making All-CIF Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team. He posted 50 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and an interception in 2 years of play on defense. He lettered 2 years in basketball and track and field as well. Scott prepped at the same high school as current Trojans Daylon McCutcheon and Rodney Sermons.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His cousin is Darryl Lewis, who won the 1990 Thorpe Award as a defensive back at Arizona and now is in the NFL.

SCOTT FIELDS ON: Moving to defense: "I wasn't starting at tailback and I wasn't happy at that. I wanted to play in any position where I'd be more involved with the football team, to be a contributor to our winning championships...It was hard at first. All my life I'd been a running back and I'd always wanted to win the Heisman Trophy at USC and be a running back in the NFL. And to see that dream fade, well, I decided I needed new goals...I'm finally beginning to feel comfortable."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Scott is a football player. We moved him to linebacker, where he can run at angles and go get the ball. He is very aggressive."

STUART GAGE

Defensive Tackle
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Gage, a beefy senior, will start at the middle defensive tackle job (nose tackle) in 1995. After 1995 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery on both knees to remove loose cartilage.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Gage is a big, physical player who can clog up the middle. He's shown great improvement and has been a focal point on our defensive front."

1994: Gage's move from the offensive to defensive line prior to the 1993 Freedom Bowl paid off nicely, as the he saw action (particularly on short-yardage situations) in 10 games (all but the Baylor and Washington State contest) as a junior backup nose tackle behind Matt Keneley in 1994. He made 6 tackles overall.

1993: As a sophomore, Gage spent the 1993 regular season as the No. 2 right offensive tackle behind Norberto Garrido. He appeared briefly there and on special teams in 9 games. Then, prior to the Freedom Bowl against Utah, he was moved to defensive tackle and played some in the game as a reserve (but he didn't make a tackle).

1992: Gage did not see action in 1992 as a redshirt freshman reserve offensive lineman.

1991: Gage redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Honored as a 1990 Super Prep All-Midlands, Gage was a 3-year letterman as a 2-way lineman at Charles Page High in Sand Springs (Okla.). He led the Sandites to the state semifinals and a 9-4 record in 1990. He was named to the All-State first teams of the Tulsa World, the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma Coaches Association. He was also named All-Frontier Conference and All-District 5A-3.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. He bench presses 405 pounds.

STUART GAGE ON: Playing nose tackle: "There's a lot of responsiblity to my position because more times than not I'm getting double- and triple-teamed. I've just got to fight my rear off...When I'm looking over that center and the quarterback sees me, I want him to be fearful of me. I want him to be shaking and scared to death that I'm coming to rip his face off."

His life as a recovering alcoholic: "I came to USC invincible...People wondered why 'The Gentle Giant' (his high school nickname) beat the crap out of somebody the night before...Every once in a while something would click and tick me off. When I was drunk, I didn't even think about the consequences of my actions. The times I mostly got in trouble I didn't even remember doing it...(After participating in a recovery program and attending Alcoholics Anonymous meetings), I was coming to terms with why I got angry when I would drink. I thought I could handle it...(After having a relapse in the summer of 1994 at a friend's house), Her mom kicked me out and called my parents. I decided, this is it. I prayed about it. I started going to church. I started changing my lifestyle. I decided I was done drinking...Before, I quit because I got in trouble. This time I quit because I knew it wasn't right anymore. If I could take one thing back, it's all the hurt I caused my parents...If not for the good Lord, I'd be dead. Or someone else would be dead and I'd be in jail paying for it. I'm just thankful that nothing I did couldn't be fixed. I've always liked who I am, if not what I was doing. My first 2 years at USC, I feel like I wasted them, drinking every weekend and not studying. But I'm a lot different person now than when I walked in here...Now I'm starting to develop into the son my parents always wanted me to be. I couldn't have done it without them."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Stuart has really established himself as an anchor on the inside and he's forcing the offense to double team him."

NORBERTO GARRIDO

Offensive Tackle
6-7, 325
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: One of USC's biggest and most imposing players, Garrido will start for a third season at right offensive tackle as a 1995 senior. He's in line for post-season honors.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Garrido made considerable progress last year. He is becoming an outstanding all-around tackle and a physically dominant presence."

1994: As a junior, Garrido started for the second year at right offensive tackle and earned 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice. He didn't play on the offensive line at Stanford because of the flu, but appeared on special teams.

1993: Although Garrido was inexperienced, he was impressive while starting all of his 1993 sophomore season at right offensive tackle. He made the 1993 Football News Sophomore All-American second team.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Garrido was switched from nose guard to offensive tackle in 1992 spring practice. His only action was on special teams against Fresno State in 1992.

1991: Garrido redshirted as a nose guard in 1991, his first year at USC, while sidelined following surgery for a broken left foot suffered in pre-season drills. He also had a stress fracture in his right foot which did not require surgery.

1990: Garrido originally signed with USC in the spring of 1990 but did not qualify academically, so he attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut (Calif.) in 1990 as a part-time student. He improved his national board scores and entered USC in the fall of 1991 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1989 Los Angeles Times San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year, Garrido posted 41 tackles (20 solo), 12 1/2 sacks and 3 pass deflections as a senior at Workman High in La Puente (Calif.). Offensively, he blocked at an outstanding 91% grade. The numbers resulted in further honors such as Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Valley and All-Valle Vista League first team (both ways). He enjoyed a lineman's dream when he recovered a fumble for a touchdown.

During his 1988 junior season, Garrido was named first team All-League and second team All-Valley. He did not play football until his 1987 sophomore year. An honored performer in track, Garrido was the 1990 Valle Vista League champion in the shot put (54-7) and the CIF 2-A runner-up (54-2 1/4).

PERSONAL: He's a geography major at USC. He bench presses 455 pounds, making him the strongest Trojan. He is nicknamed "Betto" and "El Giante." He likes spending time in the outdoors, hiking, riding mountain bikes, rock climbing, and white water rafting, and one day would like to work for the U.S. Forest Service. At the conclusion of the 1994 USC-Oregon game in the Coliseum, he proposed marriage on the field (and with a message on the scoreboard) to Yasmin Davidds (she accepted!).

NORBERTO GARRIDO ON: Being compared to ex-USC and NFL star Anthony Munoz: "I've heard a lot of people compare me to Anthony Munoz. I guess they think that because we're both Hispanic, both big and both from the same area. But he has curly hair and mine's not even close to curly. I met him in the spring of 1993 when he came by USC to visit our coaches. I was excited because he was always one of my heroes. My first thought was, 'He's a really big guy.' When I shook his hand, he seemed to know about me. He told me to keep working hard and that he was sure my time to play would come...I know I'm not going to be the next Anthony Munoz, but I want to be the first Norberto Garrido. He made his name and I want to make my own."

His love of the outdoors: "I enjoy doing things out in nature...I've always been concerned about environmental causes. I care about our rain forests and our eco-system. I worry about our natural resources being damaged or destroyed. Those are things that I want to take care of in my future...Don't get the wrong idea. I'm not one of those crazy activists, but I like nature and the outdoors. My goal is to get a geography degree and get a job as a forest ranger."

His mild temperament: "I can't get mad at all. (Former 2-time All-American and 1995 NFL first rounder) Tony Boselli would yell at me in the huddle, 'Get mad! Come on. You've got to get up more!' And I'm like, 'I can't.' I just look at him with a regular face. But I can get mad or pumped up. I just don't show it...I have to develop that more...Sometimes people think I'm mad, but I'm not. It's because of my facial expression. Because I never smile either. They're like, 'Smile, man, do something.'"

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "Norberto is one of the hardest workers in the weight room, he stays late after practice to work on technique, and he comes in every day to watch film. He also tries to model himself after Tony Boselli. He has all the attributes that a coach wants a player to have. He is really a self-made player. We call him the 'Gentle Giant.'"

Houston defensive line coach Tony Fitzpatrick: "Garrido is a bulldozer. He manhandled one of the strongest guys on our team all day."

JESSE GOMEZ

Center-Snapper
6-2, 265
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Gomez, a senior, should regain in 1995 the starting long snapper job he gave up when he injured his knee early in 1994. He missed 1995 spring practice while recovering from that injury.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Gomez appears to have recovered well from his knee injury. He can develop into one of the better snappers around."

1994: Gomez, who transferred to USC in the fall of 1994 from Rancho Santiago Community College, was the starting long snapper as a junior until tearing ligaments in his right knee at Penn State and having season-ending surgery.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Gomez's honors in 1993 included J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV first team and All-Mission Conference first team as a sophomore at Rancho Santiago Community College in Santa Ana (Calif.). He had a 90% blocking grade in 1993. He was an All-Mission Conference pick as a 1992 freshman. He also was a shot putter on Rancho Santiago's track team.

OREGON: He was a walk-on at Oregon in 1991, but redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Santa Ana (Calif.) High, where he played football (he made the 1990 All-Orange County second team and All-Sunset League first team) and basketball.

PERSONAL: He's a biology major at USC. He was born in East Chicago, Ind. He also likes to play roller hockey and tennis. His sports hero is ex-USC All-American offensive tackle Keith Van Horne.

GERMAINE GRAY

Defensive Tackle
6-4, 255
So.*/Jr.

1995: Gray will supply depth at the defensive tackle spots in 1995 as a sophomore.

1994: As a redshirt freshman defensive end who still was slawed somewhat from a 1993 knee injury, Gray played briefly in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech in his only action in 1994. He did not make a tackle.

1993: Gray redshirted as a defensive end as a freshman in 1993, his first year at USC, while coming off of high school knee surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: Gray was a 1992 Parade All-American first team, Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American Dream Team, Max Emfinger All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 at Eisenhower High in Rialto (Calif.). Despite playing with a sprained knee in 1992, he had 80 tackles (65 solo), 20 tackles for losses, and 10 sacks. He made the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-County and All-Citrus Belt League first team.

He missed 5 games in 1991 with a knee injury, but still had 91 tackles, 14 tackles for losses, 12 sacks, 1 interception, and 15 deflections on the defensive line and earned an 85% blocking grade as an offensive tackle.

As a 1990 sophomore, he recorded 95 tackles (55 solo), 15 tackles for losses, 11 sacks, 13 deflections, and 1 interception for a TD. He was named to the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and All-Citrus Belt League first team. Eisenhower went 34-4-1 in his 3 years there, including 13-1 in 1991 (it was ranked No. 1 in the nation by USA Today before losing in the CIF Division I championship game).

PERSONAL: His brother, Lamarr, played outside linebacker at Colorado.

LEONARD GREEN

Running Back
6-0, 180
Sr./Sr.

1995: USC's most versatile running back, the speedy, wily Green should see lots of action as a senior in 1995, possibly as a starter and particularly on third down situations. He might also return punts.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Green is Mr. Versatility. He can do everything. He's an excellent receiver out of the backfield and we'll use him much more that way in 1995. When he was healthy, he played very well, particularly in big games."

1994: Injuries kept Green, who came to USC in the fall of 1994 as a highly-acclaimed tailback after an All-American career at Mt. San Antonio College, from fulfilling his potential as a junior, but he was healthy the second half of the season and was impressive. He opened the coaches' eyes in pre-season drills, but partially tore his left hamstring prior to the Washington opener and missed that game, then played briefly at Penn State before reinjuring the hamstring prior to the Baylor game and missing 3 contests (Baylor, Oregon, Oregon State). However, he still was USC's second-leading rusher with 343 yards and 2 TDs on 68 carries (5.0 avg.), plus he added 10 receptions for 84 yards (8.4 avg.) with 1 TD. Green started 3 games (at fullback at Penn State and at tailback versus Arizona and Notre Dame). He led USC in rushing 3 times: 92 yards on 16 carries (with an 11-yard TD) against Arizona (that was the most yards by a runner against the Wildcats in 1994), 86 yards (with a 4-yard TD) at UCLA and 63 yards on 14 carries versus Notre Dame. He also had 46 yards on 10 tries against California. He caught 4 passes for 48 yards at UCLA and grabbed a 4-yard scoring pass against California.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Green made 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV Co-Offensive MVP, Cal-Hi Sports Offensive Player of the Year, Mission Conference Northern Division Offensive MVP, and team MVP as a sophomore at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut (Calif.). In 10 games in 1993, he ran for 1,310 yards on 194 carries (6.8 avg.) with 25 TDs, plus he had 56 receptions for 1,013 yards (18.1 avg.) with 6 TDs. He also completed 2 passes, 1 for a TD. He led the nation in scoring with 186 points (17.0 avg.) and all-purpose yards with 2,348 (213.5 avg.). He set 14 school records in 1993. He scored 4-plus TDs 3 times in 1993. His rushing 6 TDs in a game (while rushing for 237 yards) set a state J.C. record and tied another state mark (originally set by O.J. Simpson) for most TDs of any kind in a game. Mt. SAC went 9-2 in 1993, was ranked No. 5 in the U.S. and won the Southern California Bowl.

His 1992 stats (while playing in just 7 games) were 612 yards on 105 carries (5.8 avg.) with 10 TDs rushing, plus 18 catches for 238 yards (13.2 avg.) with 2 TDs. He was All-Mission Conference Northern Division second team in 1992. Mt. SAC went 8-3 in 1992 and was ranked No. 12 nationally.

In his career at Mt. SAC, he rushed for 1,922 yards on 299 carries (6.4 avg.), had 3,276 all-purpose yards (1,922 rushing, 1,251 receiving, 103 on returns) for a 148.9 average and 43 scores, and scored 258 points (11.7 avg.). He only fumbled once in 22 games at Mt. SAC. He also sprinted for Mt. SAC's track team (with a best of 10.9 in the 100 meters). His football coach at Mt. SAC was Bill Fisk, who lettered as a lineman for 3 years (1962-64) at USC, winning All-American honors in 1964 (Fisk's older brother, Bob, played at USC, and his father, Bill Sr., was a Trojan player and assistant coach). Current Trojans Jesse Davis and Roddy Layton also attended Mt. SAC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Green prepped at Springbrook High in Silver Spring, Md., where he was the Washington Touchdown Club Maryland Player of the Year, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-Montgomery County first team, and Washington Post All-Metro as a 1990 senior while running for 1,725 yards and 30 TDs and catching 12 passes for 174 yards (14.5 avg.) and 2 TDs. He had 2,400 all-purpose yards in 1990 and also made 32 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 interceptions and 2 fumble recoveries as a linebacker. He made the All-State, All-Montgomery County, and Washington Post All-Metro teams as a 1989 junior, too. Springbrook won 2 state titles in his 3 years there. He also played basketball at Springbrook, averaging 16 points.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC.

LEONARD GREEN ON: His ability: "I think I'm very quick, I have good balance and I see the field well, but I don't have what you'd call blazing speed, and that's the thing that catches someone's eye. I get my yards by cutting back and making people miss me."

Why he chose USC: "It's something I wanted to do because of all the great tailbacks who have come through here. I wanted to be one of the better tailbacks in the country and I felt like this was the place to do it."

The hamstring injuries which hampered him in 1994: "To tell you the honest truth, my leg hurt so bad I didn't think I'd ever be able to play again...I took a lot of criticism. I was one of the top recruits and I had shown flashes of what I could do in the summer and people got excited. Then I got hurt so I coldn't run, but I could walk fine and I guess people wanted to see me with my leg hanging off before they would believe I was really injured...I think I can play football with anybody. I've never been intimidated in my life. It's just a shame I got hurt because I haven't been able to do everything I wanted to do."

BRIAN HAAS

Linebacker
6-3, 225
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Haas figures to be a key backup linebacker (with Taso Papadakis) behind Errick Herrin as a senior in 1995 and he'll continue to star on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Haas had a very good spring. He's a leader. We're counting on him in a lot of areas in 1995. He's going to play a major role for us at linebacker and he'll also be a key special teams performer."

1994: Haas, who returned to inside linebacker in 1994 from the outside, served as a backup there and was a key special teams player as a junior. He made 17 tackles (2 for losses, both in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech) in 1994, recovered a fumble (against California, which set up a USC TD) and forced a fumble (against Texas Tech, which set up a TD) while appearing in every game.

1993: After playing inside linebacker his first 2 years at USC, Haas was moved to outside linebacker in 1993 spring drills. As a sophomore, he appeared in all 13 games in 1993, primarily on special teams, but also briefly at both outside and inside linebacker. Overall in 1993, he made 13 tackles, including 5 against Oregon State. He sprained his left knee midway through the Utah game and was sidelined.

1992: As a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker in 1992, Haas saw limited action on special teams.

1991: Haas redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Haas was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention selection at El Toro (Calif.) High. A 3-year letterman at both linebacker and tight end, he posted 110 tackles, 15 quarterback sacks, 6 forced fumbles, 3 pass deflections and 2 interceptions on defense and caught 4 passes for touchdowns on offense as a senior. He was selected the team's Defensive Player of the Year and was the winner of the team's "Bull Hit Award" for having the most big hits during the season. He also was named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, All-CIF Division II first team, Long Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team and All-South Coast League first team.

As a junior in 1989, Haas was an All-South Coast League first team selection. He was an Orange County Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete honoree as well. He was a member of an El Toro program that went 30-8 during his 3 years. He also played baseball at El Toro, earning a varsity letter his senior year. Current Trojan Jeremy Hogue also went to El Toro.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.45 GPA). He made the 1994 Pac-10 All-Academic first team. He bench presses 320 pounds.

TRAVIS HALL

Tight End
Sr./Sr.

1995: Hall, a senior tight end and H-back (tight end-in-motion), will redshirt the 1995 season after transferring to USC from Cal State Northridge.

CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE: Hall played 3 seasons (1992-94) at Cal State Northridge, starting at tight end the last 2 seasons. He had 47 catches for 536 yards (11.4 avg.) and 3 TDs as a 1994 junior and he also made 4 tackles and recovered a fumble on special teams. As a 1993 sophomore, he had 5 receptions for 104 yards (20.8 avg.) with 1 TD, plus 12 tackles and 1 blocked punt on special teams. He played on offense (fullback), defense (defensive back) and on special teams as a 1992 freshman, as he rushed for 12 yards on 4 carries (3.0 avg.), caught 1 pass for 18 yards, and made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hall played quarterback, running back, linebacker and safety during his 2-year career (1990-91) at Chaminade Prep in Chatsworth (Calif.). He earned All-Mission League and team MVP honors as a 1991 senior. He also played volleyball (he was an All-League selection), basketball and track at Chaminade.

PERSONAL: He likes to hunt, fish and play golf. His sports hero is Bo Jackson. He earned state honors as a lifeguard during high school. His father, Fredrick, played football at New Mexico.

QUINCY HARRISON

Cornerback
5-11, 185
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: If he's healthy, Harrison could be a key backup cornerback as a 1995 senior. He missed 1995 spring practice while recovering from post-season surgery to repair scar tissue in his lower back.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Harrison showed his great potential in 1994, but injuries nagged him. If he's healthy, he can be a big contributor. He's one of those guys who can really cover you."

1994: To bolster the speed of the secondary, Harrison was moved from wide receiver to cornerback in 1994 spring practice. He spent most of his 1994 sophomore season as the backup to Brian Kelly, but he started the Baylor game. He also was a key special teams player. Overall, he made 16 tackles (1 for a loss), deflected 2 passes and recovered a fumble (at Oregon State, late in the game at the USC 7-yard line). But his biggest moment came at Penn State, when he returned his only interception of 1994 for a 68-yard TD (the longest interception return by a Trojan since Cleveland Colter went 94 yards for a TD at California in 1987). He had 5 tackles at Oregon State. He played in 8 games in 1994 (he pulled his hamstring at Stanford and missed the California contest, and then re-aggravated it and didn't play against UCLA, Notre Dame and Texas Tech).

1992: Harrison redshirted as a flanker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Super Prep All-American, Harrison led Eldorado High in Las Vegas (Nev.) to an 11-1 record and the class AAA state championship as a senior. In 12 games, he caught 51 passes for 1,162 yards (22.8 avg.) and 16 TDs. He had 5 receptions that covered more than 60 yards, including an 82-yarder. He was also named Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, USA Today Nevada Player of the Year, Gatorade Circle of Champions Nevada Player of the Year, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Sunrise Conference Player of the Year, and team MVP in 1991.

As a junior in 1990, he caught 28 passes for 599 yards (21.4 avg.) and 5 TDs for the 8-3 Sundevils and won All-Nevada and All-Sunrise League recognition. During his 25-game career at Eldorado, Quincy caught 81 passes for 1,793 yards (22.1 avg.) and 21 TDs.

He lettered in track and was a member of Eldorado's track program that won 3 consecutive state titles. He won the individual state title in the long jump as a sophomore and finished as the state runner-up his senior year with a school record jump 23-5. He also went 6-0 in the high jump and 21.7 in the 200 meters. He ran legs on Eldorado's 400-meter and 800-meter relays that both won the state crown 3 years in a row.

PERSONAL: He was born in Phoenix, Ariz. He's a public policy and management major at USC.

QUINCY HARRISON ON: Switching to defense: "I felt I had a chance to get a lot more playing time if I switched...It's funny. Jerry Rice was my idol growing up, but the way I feel now, I wouldn't go back to wide receiver. It didn't take me long to figure out it's more fun to hit than to get hit."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "For a defensive player, Quincy does some things very naturally. For one thing, he's a natural tackler. He wraps a guy up immediately. He has improved his backpedal and shuffle. He's a quick learner."

CLAY HATTABAUGH

Offensive Guard
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Hattabaugh, a versatile senior offensive guard, has had an injury-plagued USC career. He's experienced and, if he's healthy, he could see some action in 1995 as a backup (with Dong Koo) behind Phalen Pounds at right guard. He missed 1995 spring practice while recovering from a 1994 knee injury.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hattabaugh is one of the toughest players I've ever coached. He has fought back from overwhelming odds with those knee injuries. If he can make it all the way back physically, he'll play an important role on our offensive line. He's one of our team's key leaders."

1994: As a junior offensive guard and center, Hattabaugh started 2 games in 1994 at left guard (Washington and Oregon State) and appeared as a backup to guard Kris Pollack against Penn State and Baylor. But he tore ligaments in his left knee at Oregon State and had season-ending surgery.

1993: Hattabaugh redshirted as a junior center in 1993. He missed 1993 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

1992: As a sophomore, Hattabaugh was competing for the starting left offensive guard spot until he dislocated his left kneecap during 1992 pre-season drills. He was sidelined for USC's first 6 games, then started at Arizona State. He re-dislocated that kneecap in practice prior to the following game (Stanford) and had surgery, forcing him out of USC's last 5 games. He missed most of 1992 spring practice while recovering from 1991 post-season shoulder surgery.

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1991, Hattabaugh was the No. 2 quick offensive guard (first behind Pollack and then Joel Crisman) and he was quite impressive while seeing plenty of action. Clay appeared in 7 games (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon, California, Washington, Arizona). He even started the Arizona game, becoming the first true freshman to start on the Trojan offensive line since Bruce Matthews (an eventual All-American and All-Pro) did so in 1979 against UCLA. After the season, Hattabaugh had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: A product of state prep power Fontana (Calif.) High, Hattabaugh teamed with current Trojan Robert Loya to give Fontana one of the finest rushing games in the nation in 1989 and 1990. During Hattabaugh's 1990 senior season, the Steelers rushed for 3,432 yards (and over his last 2 years there, they rushed for 7,676 yards, a 294-yard per game average). He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-Valley and All-Citrus Belt League.

As a junior in 1989, Clay was named Cal-Hi All-State Underclassman and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana went 34-4 during Hattabaugh's 3 seasons, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC. He bench presses 370 pounds.

ERRICK HERRIN

Linebacker
6-2, 235
Sr./Sr.

1995: An aggressive, hard-hitting ex-Marine with a nose for big plays, Herrin returns as USC's top linebacker as a 1995 senior after being a part-time starter there in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Herrin must step in for Jeff Kopp in 1995. He's a dynamic player and I think he'll have an outstanding season. He is a leader because he's a mean S.O.B. He tries to hurt guys when he hits them. He's intense and serious. He's established himself as a man. I compare him to (3-time USC All-American linebacker) Richard Wood. He's that kind of player. He is a real attacker. He is extremely aggressive and explosive. There's a suddenness to his game that really catches your eye. And does he ever want to play!"

1994: In his first year at USC after a highly-decorated junior college career, Herrin was impressive immediately as a 1994 junior. He was the No. 4 tackler on the Trojans in 1994 with 64, including 7 for losses of 22 yards (tied for second on the team), with 2 sacks. He also forced 3 fumbles (2 at Oregon State, including 1 near the end of the game at the USC 5-yard line which USC recovered to preserve the win, and 1 versus California, which USC recovered to set up a TD) and deflected 2 passes. He started 7 games (Penn State, Baylor, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, California and Texas Tech). A left thigh bruise prior to the Washington State game kept him out of that contest and he was Donn Cunnigan's backup in USC's last 3 regular-season games. He had 13 tackles against Oregon (a team high) and Stanford, 8 versus Notre Dame, a team-best 7 versus Baylor and 6 against California.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Herrin was a 2-time J.C. All-American first teamer at Mt. San Jacinto Community College in San Jacinto (Calif.). As a 1993 sophomore, he was named J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American second team, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III Defensive MVP, Cal-Hi Sports J.C. All-State Defensive MVP, and All-Foothill Conference Defensive MVP. He made 191 tackles (124 solo), 8 sacks, 12 deflections, 10 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries, 1 interception and 5 blocked field goals in 1993. Also a fine student, he was a J.C. Academic All-American honorable mention choice.

As a 1992 freshman, he made the J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III and All-Foothill Conference first teams. He recorded 151 tackles (91 solo), 7 sacks, 8 deflections, 6 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries, 1 blocked field goal and 2 interceptions (both for TDs) in 1992. He had 17 tackles in a game.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Central-Hower High in Akron (Ohio), where he played football (cornerback) as a 1986 senior and was an All-State wrestler.

PERSONAL: Herrin spent 4 years in the Marines (1987-91) as a lance corporal, including stints in Saudi Arabia during the Gulf War (6 months), Japan (1 year) and El Toro (Calif.). He has 2 daughters, Latasha, 6, and Bijanee, 2. He bench presses 400 pounds. He says his sports hero is ex-NFL star Jack Tatum, because "he hits very hard." He's the oldest Trojan on the roster. He's a public policy and management major at USC.

ERRICK HERRIN ON: Being in the Marines: "I was kind of a party guy in high school and I knew I had to try to get out of that. Going to college would have just been going to a bigger party...My uncle was in the Army and my brother was in the Air Force. Both of them came home just to talk me out of enlisting with the Marines. The Marines were too tough, they told me. They said they'd talk bad to me, that the food was bad. But the more they talked like that, the more I wanted to join. So I did...The Marines taught me a lot of responsibility. I changed a lot of things in my life after that, like respecting people, not talking bad to people, listening...After my time in the Marines, I'll never complain about football anymore...There's nothing the coaching staff at USC can do to me on that practice field that would even compare to what I went through in basic training (at Parris Island, S.C.). I had a drill instructor who was 5-4 tall and 5-4 wide. He could really get in your face. He'd scream awful things at me about my mother, my father, my family, everything...They try to brainwash you. It didn't work with me. I kept my sanity...Sure, I got mad, like the other guys. But I realized early the whole thing was a test, to see if they could break you. So you kept your mouth shut, that's all. There were days I figured I'd made a mistake. There were days I figured it couldn't get any worse than this, and then it did, the next day. I did a lot of talking to myself, when I was sure no one else was around. That's how I blew off steam."

His experience in the Gulf War: "I never expected to be involved in Desert Storm...I wasn't on the front lines (in the Gulf War). I worked mostly in an office, but there were bombs blowing up all around us. One blew up right over us one time. Another hit a barracks and killed lots of guys. Yeah, I was nervous. Very, very nervous. Especially at night. It was tough to deal with, because you'd hear alarms and then you'd see people running around crying...We lived in tents for much of the time in Saudi Arabia and when we got there it was so hot. Then later on in the year it started to get cold, real cold...What will I remember most about my time there! That's easy. It was the night we left. We flew out of there on my birthday, April 3. I was smiling all the way back...I was lucky. I went through hell and made it out alive."

His aggressive style of play: "I like hitting people hard. I like to be controlled. It's fun...I'm not really a vocal person. For me, it's action. I'm serious when I play football. I go all out. I never give up. I try to lead by example...My motivation is the same as it was in boot camp. Be out there and be aggressive. Everything I do, I attack it...When I came back from the Marines, I was a terror. I'd try to hit people so hard that I could see their insides come out. I want to hear helmets break...But football really is a game and guys shouldn't forget that. They're not training you to kill people, like the Marines do."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Errick has the ability to make the big hit, the kind everybody gasps at. He has really improved his pass defense to become a complete linebacker."

Former USC inside linebacker Jeff Kopp: "He's a laid-back guy who becomes an animal on the field. He'll hit some guy, get up, and just give him this stare. I love it. He's showing these guys he's got no fear, he coming after them."

PRENTICE HILL

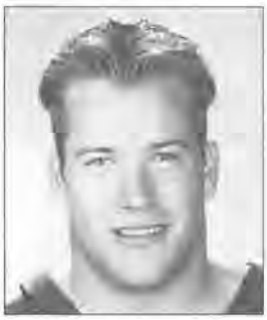
Cornerback
5-8, 170
Fr.*/So.

1995: As a redshirt freshman, Hill is listed as the backup to Brian Kelly at cornerback in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hill has great quickness. I like his potential. He just needs to get experience."

1994: Hill redshirted at cornerback in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hill made 1993 Blue Chip All-American first team and Super Prep All-Texas as a senior at Carter High in Dallas (Tex.) and had 3 interceptions. As a junior in 1992, he was All-District second team while making 61 tackles and 3 interceptions. He also ran track at Carter, clocking 10.7 for 100 meters, 14.06 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 39.41 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles.



(70)

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH

Center
6-3, 285
So.*/Jr.

1995: Himebauch will serve as a reserve center as a sophomore in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Himebauch is the future center at USC. He's shown steady improvement since moving to the position. If he continues that improvement, he will develop into a fine center."

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve who was available to play any offensive line position, Himebauch saw action in 8 games in 1994. He appeared briefly at left offensive guard against California and Texas Tech and at right offensive tackle versus Arizona, and played on special teams in the Oregon, Stanford, Washington State, UCLA and Notre Dame contests. He was moved to center from nose tackle midway through 1994 spring drills.

1993: Himebauch redshirted as a nose tackle in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team (as an offensive lineman), All-Inland Valley, All-Baseline League first team (offense and defense) and team MVP at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). In 1992, he played inside linebacker (posting 63 unassisted tackles and 3 sacks), offensive guard and long snapper.

In 1991, he made All-Inland Valley (as an offensive guard) and All-Baseline League. He also played basketball and track. He prepped at the same high school as current Trojan Jeff Diltz.

PERSONAL: He's an English and creative writing major at USC. He was born in Greenwich, Conn. He bench presses 405 pounds. His father, Jack, was USC's recruiting coordinator from 1987 to 1994. Jonathan's brother, Curt, was a walk-on defensive back at USC, while brother, Chris, captained North Carolina's swim team for 2 years (1988-89) and received a master's degree in business administration at USC.

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH ON: His father's influence on selecting USC: "I did kind of have an inside look at USC, but in the beginning I just saw it as college football. When I got to that age, dad left me alone about it. One thing he did was help me make connections with other schools. If I decided USC wasn't the best thing for me, he said he would be fine with it. He always treated me like any recruit. He tried not to give me any special treatment."

JEREMY HOGUE

Center
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Hogue is the epitome of the outstanding student-athlete. As a 1995 senior, he returns as the starting center and is a good one. He also serves as the backup long snapper behind Jesse Gomez. And he shines in the classroom (he is enrolled in graduate school), as he is a candidate for Academic All-American honors and has his eyes on being a Rhodes Scholar. He was named to the 1995 pre-season Playboy All-American team as its Anson Mount Scholar/Athlete.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hogue had a good season in 1994 and could improve into an outstanding player this season. Plus, he stars in the classroom like few I've ever been around."

1994: Hogue started all of his 1994 junior season at center (a new position for him) and performed quite well. He also was the snapper on all placekicks. He recovered from surgery on a herniated disk in his lower back that sidelined him all of 1994 spring practice.

1993: An untested sophomore coming into the season, Hogue spent most of 1993 as the No. 2 left offensive guard behind Joel Crisman, but when Crisman went down with an injury, Hogue started there in 4 mid-season games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State) and performed admirably. He also appeared briefly on the line against Houston and Stanford, and on special teams at Washington.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, Hogue was switched from nose guard to offensive guard at the start of 1992 fall practice. His only action of 1992 was a brief appearance at Arizona State. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in an ankle after 1992 spring drills.

1991: Hogue redshirted as a defensive guard in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hogue was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team as a senior at El Toro (Calif.) High. He was the highest grading offensive lineman in 5 El Toro games in 1990. Defensively, in a 1990 CIF playoff game, he posted 4 sacks, 5 pressures and 3 forced fumbles. For the 1990 season, he registered 8 sacks, 6 forced fumbles and an interception. He was a 2-year starter for a pair of El Toro teams that went 23-4 and advanced to the CIF Finals in 1989 and the semifinals in 1990.

As a junior in 1989, Hogue was Super Prep All-West. An outstanding student, Hogue maintained a 4.1 GPA (4.0 scale) and was named a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete. He lettered 2 years in basketball and a year in track at El Toro. Current Trojan Brian Haas also prepped at El Toro.

PERSONAL: He was born in Houston, Tex. His family now lives in Oklahoma City, Okla. He received his bachelor's degree in political science in December of 1994 (he was the department's top graduate)--it took him just 3-and-a-half years--and he is currently enrolled in USC's M.B.A. program. He has an A-average (3.83 GPA), tops on the team (he has received all As, except for just 2 Bs). He was named to the 1994 GTE Academic All-American second team and the 1993 and 1994 Pac-10 All-Academic first teams. He also won USC's John Wayne Memorial Scholarship in 1994. He has been on USC's Dean's List every semester and received a Merit Award and Recognition Award from USC's political science department. He is a member of numerous academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, Golden Key, Blue Key and Blackstonians. Among his community service activities have been feeding the homeless in Oklahoma City, volunteer teaching at a Los Angeles elementary school, and speaking to local schoolchildren about the dangers of drug abuse. He also has been involved in a political campaign for an Oklahoma gubernatorial candidate. He hopes to attend law school and have a career in politics.

JEREMY HOGUE ON: His study habits: "I study about 2 hours a night, if I have a test the next day. If I have a paper due, I'll start it 2 nights before. I really don't study that much. I socialize and I have a girlfriend, just like other guys on the team. People assume because of my grades that I'm a student who happens to play football. I'm not. I love football. I'm not a speed reader, but the Lord has blessed me with very good reading retention. I can read 200 pages of something and pretty much remember all of it. I'm in bed by midnight every night and I sleep in to around 9 a.m."

Stereotypes of student-athletes: "When you're an athlete, you're expected to be one way, but if you're smart, people expect something else. But I'm serious about both football and academics, and for that matter, so are a lot of the guys on our team...Some of the views I have surprise people. That's unfair, because if you think the way people expect you to, they assume you're not taking the time to figure things out for yourself."

The possibility of being a Rhodes Scholar: "It would be great to travel around England and attend Oxford in the company of some of the greatest academic minds. Not only would I get a great education, but I'd be involved in the cutting edge of intellectual pursuits. That would be a great privilege. I will do all I can to achieve that goal, but I've learned that whatever happens is out of my hands."

Politics: "I've always had a real interest in our country's politics and trying to make things work better for people. Everyone has a gripe and I guess I do, too. I don't think things are very good for people to make money and for people to really be secure and live out their American dream...I'm very conservative politically and I've become even more so at USC, after debating with professors!"

His perspective on life: "I used to believe I could do anything I wanted in life, all I had to do was set my mind to it. There are a lot of areas in life where that's not true. I had no control over that car accident (in the summer of 1994, he was driving from Oklahoma City to Los Angeles when at midnight he hit a dead elk in the road near Flagstaff, Ariz., and his car flipped over twice, but he received only minor cuts). I know now that all I can do is worry about the things I can control and let go of the rest. I keep thinking about that accident and how fortunate I am to be alive. I play football and, like most athletes, I think I take my health for granted. But I've seen now how quickly that all could have been taken away. I'm very grateful for every moment I have now...I've learned to be thankful to God that I'm alive, walking and able to play football. I believe God has a plan for people and we can either miss it or be a part of it. He's kept His eye on me through the back surgery and the car accident. I believe He's blessing me to help fulfill my dreams."

His community service: "This interest in helping the community has a lot to do with my upbringing. My father is a nondenominational Christian minister who has always been involved in politics. So many people's lives seem hopeless and they're involved in situations they can't do anything about. I've always been interested in making things better for others."

Why he chose USC: "I chose USC because of the great academic program, the strength of the alumni and how well that would figure for me with all the people I would meet while I was here. And it's been like that. I've met a ton of people, which puts me in a great position when I'm done."

His football ability: "I play low and I never quit."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Bob Johnson, Hogue's high school coach and father of ex-USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "Jeremy's a quick learner, an extremely bright kid who asks a lot of good questions. If anyone forgets his assignment, they can ask Jeremy. He knows what everyone's supposed to do. He may find himself up against someone who's bigger and stronger, but he'll find a way to beat him. My wife thinks Jeremy's great. She thinks he's going to be President of the United States."

TARRIEL HOPPER

Linebacker
6-2, 220
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Hopper, a senior whose brother played at USC during John Robinson's first tenure at Troy, is a reserve linebacker in 1995 and key special teamer.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hopper is a senior who must provide leadership for us. He's a playmaker as a linebacker and, if he can become more consistent, he'll play successfully there. He also gives us a major boost on special teams."

1994: As a 1994 junior, Hopper was a reserve inside linebacker who played mainly on special teams. He appeared in 9 games in 1994 (all but the Stanford, Washington State and Arizona contests) and recorded 3 tackles and a deflection. He was moved to inside linebacker in 1994 spring practice.

1993: Hopper was a sophomore reserve safety who appeared in 11 games in 1993, primarily on special teams. He made 3 tackles and recovered a fumble (on an onside kick at Notre Dame). He was moved from outside linebacker to safety in 1993 spring practice.

1991: Hopper redshirted as an outside linebacker and safety in 1991, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: While at Carson (Calif.) High, Hopper was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City 4-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Pacific League first team. As a 1990 senior, he had 104 tackles, 5 interceptions (2 were returned for touchdowns) and 4 fumble recoveries. Carson went 12-1, was ranked No. 5 in California, and won the L.A. City 4-A championship.

As a 1989 junior, Hopper made the Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team as a punter (35.7 avg.). In his career, he made 225 tackles (fourth most in school history). He also was the team's backup quarterback as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: His brother, Darrel, was a part-time starting defensive back at USC in 1982 (under Robinson), 1983 and 1984 who then played in the NFL (San Diego Chargers, Los Angeles Raiders) and CFL (Ottawa Roughriders). Tarriel is a public administration major at USC.

TARRIEL HOPPER ON: Why he chose USC: "I fell in love with the tradition. I saw all the games when my brother was here. It's somewhere I always wanted to be."

Helping out at a local church after the 1992 Los Angeles riots: "I had to help out whatever way I could. We're a part of this community. My father has a business here, my family's here and I'm a USC student. I'm a part of this city in a lot of ways."

ISRAEL IFEANYI

Defensive End
Sr./Sr.

1995: Expect an eye-opening showing in 1995 from Ifeanyi, an athletic senior known for his pass rushing skills. He will compete with Willie Lowery and Marcus Bonds for playing time at either of the defensive end spots in 1995 after starting part-time in 1994. He missed the end of 1995 spring practice after breaking his right hand.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ifeanyi can be a devastating player on the perimeter. He'll make an impact and, whether he starts or not, he'll play a lot. His play could be a key for our season defensively."

1994: As a native of Nigeria, football was a relatively new sport for Ifeanyi, but he played like a veteran in 1994 as a junior. He transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 after starring at Orange Coast Community College and started 5 games at outside linebacker (he was Errol Small's often-used backup the rest of the season). Overall in 1994, he made 32 tackles (4 for losses, including 3 sacks), deflected 4 passes, intercepted another (against Baylor, which set up a USC TD) and recovered a fumble (against Washington, which set up a USC field goal). He also made 2 decisive plays on special teams, blocking a PAT kick at Oregon State which Micah Phillips returned for a 2-point defensive extra point and blocking a Notre Dame field goal late in the fourth quarter which Sammy Knight returned 56 yards to set up USC's game-tying TD. He had 5 tackles against UCLA.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Ifeanyi was named a 1993 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV honorable mention and All-Mission Conference as a sophomore at Orange Coast Community College in Costa Mesa (Calif.). He had 49 tackles, 5 sacks, 15 quarterback pressures, 6 deflections and 2 forced fumbles in 1993. Orange Coast was 8-3 in 1993, ranked 25th in the U.S. and won the Orange County Bowl. Ifeanyi was Defensive Player of the Game in the Orange County Bowl, making 10 stops, 2 deflections, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

As a 1992 freshman, he started OCC's last 5 games. He posted 30 tackles, 2 sacks, 24 quarterback pressures, 3 deflections and 3 forced fumbles. OCC went 8-3 and played in the K-Swiss Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL: He attended Government Secondary School in Lagos, Nigeria.

PERSONAL: He is a native of Lagos, Nigeria and came to America 4 years ago. He speaks Igbo, the language of his tribe of the same name. He played cricket (he was a bowler on Nigeria's high school champion cricket team) and soccer. His mother, Helen, once won a bronze medal in the high hurdles in the West African Games. He is nicknamed "Izzy" and "The Nigerian Nightmare." He's a communications major at USC.

ISRAEL IFEANYI ON: How he became interested in football: "I was about 13, living with my grandmother in Owerri, Nigeria, and all I remember is being at a friend's house, looking at this magazine. There was this picture of an American football player and I was very impressed with it...The picture looked very exciting, like someone marching off to war...The player seemed like a warrior to me. I decided then that's what I wanted to be, a football player, an American football warrior...A little later, my father got me a videotape of a Miami-Cincinnati NFL game. I watched it over and over. I didn't even know the names of the positions, but I couldn't wait then to learn how to play...I saw people hitting other people and someone said those were linebackers. In soccer, if you knocked somebody down, they could thrown you out of the game. If you hit someone in football, people cheer you. I liked that...Soccer was fun, but it was too calm for me...Football was the first thing that really captivated me. It's a hunger I have to satisfy...I just knew that if I didn't play football I'd be telling a sad story all my life. I wanted to be a part of it. Everything I've done in my life, I'm proud to say I've always left a footprint. With people. Sports. My family. Because I really want it."

Viewing his first college game in person (USC's 1993 home win over Penn State): "I remember that day almost brought tears to my eyes. I thought, 'I'd like to have a chance at this.' Then, everything was out of innocence. Now, I'm a part of it."

His early days in America: "The general picture of America to the outside world is heaven. America has a very positive image to the outside world and I wanted to go there and be a part of it...(After staying with friends in Connecticut upon first arriving in the U.S.), I was bored. I wasn't doing anything. It wasn't exactly what I had imagined America to be like...So, one of my friends said the best place to start playing football was in a junior college. And California has by far the most junior colleges."

How he has played so far: "I'm still learning. Every week, there is something new, something else I find I have to adjust to. But it all comes with experience. I mean, sometimes it's just plain hard. But it's like anything else I set my mind on doing. I just do it. Every day, I approach with a positive attitude...I'm trying to understand all of the defense, instead of just my position. I'm becoming aware of the person across from me, when before I'd just line up and let it go...I have to learn more about the running game. I know that. Sometimes, I get caught up in the wrong thing and I know I have to improve at things like getting away from blockers. I know I'm not perfect."

Being a Nigerian football player: "One of the things I'd like to accomplish is to be recognized as a complete football player, and to be approached simply as that. But I know being from Nigeria is something I cannot escape. That's who I am and I'm proud of it. No matter what I do, I know someone will always want to know where I'm from, at least because of my accent. And that's not a bad thing. Whether I'm looked at as a Nigerian or as a Nigerian football player, that doesn't concern me. What concerns me is being consistent and doing my best every game."

Fellow Nigerians playing college football: "Most were raised in the United States, unlike me. For instance, I wasn't even aware of Christian Okoye until I came to America. But it's still something good to see, somebody from your country making it."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Israel took his game to another level during this past spring's practice. He made some phenomenal, big-time plays. Whether you know much about football or not, you have to admire his athleticism."

Former USC 2-time All-American offensive tackle and 1995 NFL first rounder Tony Boselli: "He's a great athlete. A lot of natural ability. He makes up for his lack of experience with a good attitude and that natural ability."

Orange Coast College defensive coordinator Mike Taylor: "Izzy walked in the door one day and just introduced himself, and said he wanted to play football. The first thing I noticed about him was that he filled up the doorway pretty good. He didn't know much about football, but he's a bright guy and he picked up the game really fast. He's got a great football body and he runs a 4.6 40. He'll be a pro someday."

CEDRIC JEFFERSON

Defensive Tackle
6-2, 265
So./So.

1995: Jefferson, a sophomore with experience, is listed as the backup to Darrell Russell at defensive tackle in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jefferson is one of our young defensive linemen who must come through for us this season. He has already established himself as an excellent run defender, but he must improve on his pass rushing. He'll play a lot in 1995 and has a very bright future here."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Jefferson saw frequent action in 10 contests in 1994 as the backup nose tackle behind Matt Keneley and recorded 12 tackles (including 1 sack). He made 5 tackles at Oregon State. He missed the Washington and Penn State games while recovering from a sprained right knee suffered in pre-season practice. Torn right knee cartilage against Notre Dame slowed him against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl (he had arthroscopic surgery to remove the cartilage after the season).

HIGH SCHOOL: Jefferson was a 1993 Blue Chip All-American first team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Texas, All-State honorable mention, All-Tarrant County and All-District pick as a 2-way senior lineman at Western Hills High in Fort Worth (Tex.). He had 31 tackles, 9 sacks, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection in 1993. In 1992 as a junior, he made All-State and All-District in his second year playing football. He also played basketball (earning All-District honors) and baseball at Western Hills.

PERSONAL: He was born in Atlanta, Ga. He likes to write poetry in his spare time. His sports hero is Michael Jordan.

KEYSHAWN JOHNSON

Wide Receiver
Sr./Sr.

1995: Perhaps the nation's premier wide receiver as a senior in 1995, Johnson is worthy of all the Heisman Trophy and All-American candidacy attention gathering around him. He's already been named to the prestigious 1995 pre-season Playboy All-American team and was ranked as the nation's No. 1 wide receiver by The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly going into 1995. He's the complete package of the outstanding, modern-day pass catcher who makes an impact on the field: big, fast, great hands, difficult to cover and hard to bring down. This one-time USC ballboy has the ability and charisma of a Michael Irvin.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Johnson is as good as any wide receiver I've ever been around. He's fun to watch and he's a dynamic player. We must get him the ball often and in a variety of ways this year. He seems to fit the new mold of wide receivers: big, physical, extremely athletic. He has all the gifts a wide receiver needs, plus he has an intangible quality that makes him as competitive and star-like as anyone I've known. He'll contend for the highest honors in 1995."

CAREER: With 66 grabs for 1,362 yards (20.6 avg.) with 9 TDs, Johnson is tied for 21st on USC's career receiving chart.

1994: Johnson proved to be a big-time wide receiver in 1994 following his transfer to USC in the spring of 1994 from West Los Angeles Community College. As a junior, he earned 1994 All-Pac-10 first team, UPI All-American second team, AP All-American third team, and Football News All-American honorable mention honors as he had 66 grabs for 1,362 yards (20.6 avg.) with 9 TDs, all team highs. He became just the third Trojan with 1,000 receiving yards in a season (joining Johnnie Morton's 1,520 yards in 1993 and Gary Wellman's 1,015 in 1990). His 66 grabs were tied with Wellman for third on the USC single season list.

He had 100-yard games 9 times (tying Morton's USC season record), including in the last 8 games (a USC record): 105 yards on 4 grabs versus Baylor, 139 yards on 6 catches at Oregon State, 146 yards (including a 46-yard TD) on 7 catches at Stanford, 110 yards on 4 catches versus California, 145 yards on 8 catches at Washington State (with 3 TDs, including a 64-yarder, to tie a USC single game TD reception record held by 5 others and earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors; another 50-yard score was called back because of a penalty), 109 yards on 5 catches against Arizona, 175 yards on 11 catches (both career bests and 1994 USC game highs)--with a 29-yard TD--at UCLA (he was named USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA), 114 yards on 6 grabs versus Notre Dame, and a personal-best and Cotton Bowl record 222 yards (7 yards shy of the USC record) on 8 catches with a Cotton Bowl record and USC record-tying 3 TDs (including an 86-yarder, 1 yard shy of the USC and Cotton Bowl records) against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl to win Outstanding Offensive Player honors. His other TD catch was a 7-yarder against Oregon.

Of his 66 catches, 56 were for first downs. He was first in the Pac-10 in receiving yards (123.8, second in U.S. and finishing just 5.3 yards from the national lead), third in receptions (6.0, 12th in U.S.) and fourth in all-purpose yards (125.8). He did all this despite being slowed in the Washington opener (he didn't start and had just 1 catch) with a bruised left thigh suffered in the pre-season and sitting out the Penn State game with a subsequently bruised right thigh. He also returned a kickoff 22 yards (against Washington). ABC-TV announcers Marc Jones and Tim Brant nicknamed him "7-Eleven" during the UCLA telecast because "he's always open."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Johnson's 1993 honors included J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Super Prep Juco 100, Cal-Hi Sports Top 50, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region III first team, and All-Western State Conference first team as a sophomore at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. In 9 games in 1993, he caught 55 passes for 1,245 yards (22.6 avg.) and 12 TDs. He ranked third in the state in 1993 in all-purpose yards with 1,706 (189.6 avg.).

As a freshman in 1991, he played the first 4 games as a safety, then sat out to concentrate on academics. He also was on the track team at West Los Angeles, with best marks of 21.9 in the 200 meters, 47.69 in the 400 meters and 24-6 1/4 in the long jump. Current Trojans Marcus Bonds and Chris Miller (his cousin) also went to West Los Angeles.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Dorsey High in Los Angeles, where he was Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City 4-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team, and All-Pacific League first team as a 1990 senior. He originally signed with Miami (Fla.) out of Dorsey, but didn't enroll there. Current Trojan Chris Miller (his teammate) also prepped at Dorsey.

PERSONAL: As a youngster, Johnson was a ballboy with the Trojan football program for 7 years, sold programs at Trojan basketball and baseball games, and also spent some of his free time doing chores in the USC sports information office. He says the funniest thing to ever happen to him on the field was when he accidentally lined up on the defensive side of the line of scrimmage when his team had the ball. He says his sports hero is NFL star receiver Michael Irvin. Johnson is a history major at USC. He enjoys talking to community and youth groups.

KEYSHAWN JOHNSON ON: His dreams: "I think big. I want to be known as the best in the game...I always dreamed about playing college football some day. I'd dream about playing on TV or being in New York on Heisman day. Am I after the glory? Yeah, a little bit."

His ability: "I'm very confident in myself and my abilities. I will do anything--anything--to get things done. I want people to remember me as someone who didn't waste his talent...I just feel like I can't be stopped. I don't see it happening, especially in a one-on-one situation. If I have to win, I'll win. You better believe I'll come off the ball hard and win every time...It's like giving away touchdowns when you only put one man on me...I love those little corners. I'm 6-4 and still growing. When a game starts and I see the other team is trying to cover me with little guys, I get a big smile on my face...I'm big and I run real well for my size. You put a guy 5-9 and 170 pounds on me, I don't care how fast he is, he'll have problems. I tell them right up front, 'Hey, you're 5-9, you better come with some extras.'...I was always the prima donna before. Now, there are 100 guys here, 100 of me. And every moment I've got to do my best. If not, some guy will be ahead of me and I'll look up and find myself on the third team."

His decision to return to USC for his senior year: "As a young man who grew up within miles of this university and whose family does not possess material wealth, it would have been very easy for me to choose the money and go to the NFL. However, upon much reflection, I believe that there was greater value in my decision. The chance to win the Heisman Trophy, the Rose Bowl and a national championship was not the reason. Being drafted higher next year and possibly making more money was not the reason. Plain and simple, it was the right thing for me to do...I stayed because it is important for me to fulfill my commitment to the university...I'm going to gain a lot from this decision and learn a lesson from fulfilling this commitment...I also want to be the first in my family to get a college degree. I'm this close to getting it. When I do, it's going to be the greatest day in my life...People outside the university say I'm foolish to come back. They say, 'How could you turn your back on a million bucks? You might tear up your knee and throw it all away.' But I knew if I came back to school, I could accomplish a lot of things, and the money will still be there. It's important to get that degree. When you come from a neighborhood like mine, people don't expect guys like myself to graduate. They look for you to take the money and run. I'm going to show them that what they think is not necessarily the case. Sure, I want to play in the NFL, and I will."

The Heisman Trophy: "I hope I'm a candidate. That would make me play even better. I play best when I'm under pressure. I love pressure. I love coming out of the hole, with all that focus on me...I know Johnny Rodgers, Tim Brown and Desmond Howard were the only receivers to have won a Heisman. But they all returned kicks and punts. I want to do it strictly as a receiver."

The Heisman pose he struck after catching a TD in last season's Cotton Bowl: "That's a little taste of what's coming in '95."

Winning: "If we run the ball 100 times, because that's what the coaches think we should do, that won't bother me. I can block. I don't have to have 100 catches. I just want to do my part and help us win."

His on-field talking to opponents: "I come in loud and talking my game, but that's just me...I like to put myself in a hole and then dig out of it. Then I know I've got to beat you."

His early memories of USC: "The first guy I ever met here was (ex-Trojan All-American safety) Ronnie Lott. It was the day he got drafted by the 49ers. He was at a local pizza place and he was signing autographs. We said, 'Can we get some pizza?' and he bought us this whole pizza. We were just kids so we were like, 'Wow!'...I would get out of elementary school at 2:15 p.m. I'd come home and get right on the Jefferson bus, or walk or ride my bike or whatever, to come to USC every day. I would get here by 2:30 p.m. and all the players would say, 'Don't you have school?'...The players loved it when I asked if I could carry their pads and helmet. It was after practice and they were tired...When I was a ballboy, I was never short of role models. Among some of the players who looked out for me were Ronnie Lott, Marcus Allen and Charles White...I'd even stay over at their apartments sometimes. Scott Tinsley, Tim McDonald, Junior Thurman, I stayed with all those guys...I've always had a good time around here. Me and Little Robinson (John's son, David, who is now a USC assistant coach), we used to hang around together when we were small. We'd take balls from practice, go across the street and play tackle football. Now he's one of my coaches here. I've got to listen to him now...The players used to always tell me to stay out of trouble, to go to class. Looking back, I guess they made a big difference for me. Without them, maybe I wouldn't be here now. Maybe I'd be where some of my buddies wound up. I've been lucky, I guess. Between my family and friends, I've always been able to separate good from evil."

Signing with USC: "I knew where I went to college would have to involve some tie to USC because of the way they treated me in the past and made me feel comfortable. I had to come home...I'm at USC because this is where I want to be. The coaching staff is great. And look at the receivers they've sent to the next level...The first time I went to a USC practice in 1993, after not being around for a while, Coach Sanford walked over and said, 'Who are you?' I said, 'Man, I'm Keyshawn Johnson. Who are you?'...When Coach Thurman came by to recruit me, he didn't really have to give me a sales pitch. He just told me, 'You know what's going on. You're part of the family.'...I grew up dreaming about being in a USC uniform. To me, it's a thrill when I put mine on for a game. It's like I can't believe it's mine."

Why he likes give talks to youngsters: "I want to do that. I think it's only right to treat people the way I was treated as a kid. Besides, I can't really help it. I look at them and they remind me of myself...I talk to children about the mistakes I made, that they shouldn't do those things. I just want people to know that there is always hope for those who have gone astray."

Making it in life: "People don't want to give you a chance. But do you know how close I am to making it in life? I'm this close. I know it's going to be all right...I'm not trying to prove anything to anybody. I want everyone to understand that there's opportunity for everybody. I'm proud of myself...I don't think I'm special at all. I'm not close to being special. You may not hear about them, but there are people like me who get out of the neighborhood...There are only 3 ways to leave the neighborhood: there is jail or there is death or there is achievement. If you don't want to do something with your life, the other two are your options...I guess I'm lucky I can do the things I do."

Sharing an apartment in 1992 and 1993 with UCLA running back Sharmon Shah, a former prep teammate: "I had fun dealing with the UCLA coaches when they called for Sharmon. They didn't try to recruit me, though. I think Sharmon told them not to bother. He knew I was a Trojan."

His junior college antics: "One time, we were getting beat and I thought the team needed a lift. So I told everyone that if they kicked the ball to me to start the second half, I would score. I did. That part was planned. But I kept on running, straight to the concession stand. That part was not planned. I grabbed a Coke and took a drink. Believe it or not, we started to make a comeback in the second half and almost won...At Santa Barbara, I caught a touchdown, ran right out of the end zone, up a hill and towards the beach. On film, I just disappear off the screen...I set off the cannon behind Bakersfield's end zone after a touchdown catch there...Another time, an opposing coach told me to stop hotdogging, so I shouted back, 'Watch this.' I caught a touchdown pass on the next play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "Keyshawn is the best receiver I've ever been around. He's the best I've ever seen, the best I've ever coached. He can be the No. 1 pick in the NFL draft, he has that kind of ability...He can do all the things (ex-USC All-American wide receiver and NFL first round draft pick) Johnnie Morton could do, and he's bigger and faster...There are certain things that certain people dream about doing their whole lives, and when they get there it just feels natural. Keyshawn has always pictured himself playing here."

West Los Angeles CC coach Rob Hager: "Keyshawn is a phenomenal talent. He's tall, strong and fast and he's got a great eye for the ball. And he likes to compete."

Former USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "He's just an awesome receiver. He can do it all--catch the short or deep pass, or go over the middle. But where he's especially dangerous is when he runs with the ball. He refuses to let one guy bring him down. He wants to get into the end zone every time...Even when I wasn't throwing to him, the defense had to put 2 men on him so that freed up someone else...I always told him, 'I want you to be cocky.' That's when he's at his best. It's like having another quarterback personality out there."

Washington State head coach Mike Price: "He's J.J. Stokes, for crying out loud. He's really a player, superb."

UCLA running back Sharmon Shah, Johnson's former prep teammate and roommate: "I knew Keyshawn would be this kind of player when he got to USC. I'm happy for him."

Dave Spadaro, Football News: "Johnson is right at the top of the list among the nation's wide receivers. He showed in last year's Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech just how unreal he can be...He'll catch anything thrown near him."

Lyle Spencer, College Sports magazine: "The magic is found in Keyshawn Johnson, in his legs, his moves, his hands, his electric presence on the field. Johnson is, to borrow from the source himself, a difference-maker, a prime-time pass receiver who routinely makes amazing things happen for USC."

Matt White, USC Report: "He is a triple threat--he has a hugely engaging grin and personality, marvelous football talent and a passion for the spotlight. The sum is swagger. This is the guy, according to him, who is going to push Michael Irvin down the Dallas Cowboy depth chart. For now, he is at USC."

Tim Brown, Los Angeles Daily News: "He is among the nation's most skilled, most charismatic wide receivers, fast becoming recognized outside the program (USC) he fell in love with as a youngster...As big as his talent is his personality. He plays the game with genuine passion."

Earl Gustkey, Los Angeles Times: "These are the best days of Johnson's life. After years of knocking about Los Angeles' inner-city streets, he's a star. He has become a media favorite. He signs autographs. He's a busy speaker at sports awards dinners. And no athlete has ever loved the attention more. His joy knows no bounds."

Brian Patterson, South Bay Daily Breeze: "With Johnson, it's hard to believe sometimes what you see--the catches are so routinely amazing--as well as what you hear. See him leap high between two defenders to bring down a pass that seems out of any mortal's reach. Then he'll do something just as spectacular a minute later...Listen to him and you may wonder, is this for real? It sure is. Don't adjust your set. It's all 100 percent Johnson, if just a little bigger, bolder and much more direct than what everyone's used to...(He's) a free spirit who has a 1,000-watt smile and a thirst for success."

Frank Luksa, Dallas Morning News: "To Keyshawn, every playing field is a stage. Every catch a curtain call...Johnson's persona could be taken as heavy on insolence. You might be mistaken. On surface impression, he comes across as a bubbly, cheerful collegian who's high on life even if higher on himself as a talent. To hear Keyshawn tell it, which he likes to do, he's only repeating what older, wiser football people say about him. His style has been compared to Michael Irvin of the Cowboys and Jerry Rice of the 49ers."

USC running backs coach Charles White: "The thing that's nice about Keyshawn is that he's been raised a Trojan. And now to see how excited he is to be a part of it is really fun."

Former USC quarterback Scott Tinsley, who befriended Johnson in the early 1980s: "It's great. He's come a long way...What a great kid he is. I learned more street smarts from him in 2 months than I did the whole time growing up in Oklahoma. We'd help Keyshawn with his homework and he'd come over to our place and we'd bake him a peach pie...We went on a road trip once and told Keyshawn we'd see him when we got back. We got home, the stove was on and there's Keyshawn watching TV on the couch. He'd gotten in through a sliding glass door."

Former USC defensive back Tim Shannon, who lived with Tinsley in those days: "I'm just so happy to see him at USC. I compliment him for getting through all that he's gone through. You could tell even back then that he wanted to be something different."

USC associate sports information director Nancy Mazmanian, another who befriended Johnson in the early 1980s: "I always felt like he was my kid. It's so funny to see him out there now. Seeing that same face in this huge body."

RESPONSIBILITY: SECOND CHANCES
By Keyshawn Johnson
(This story originally appeared in the January 1994 issue of Student Sports magazine)

Growing up in South Central Los Angeles can have a way of making people lose their sense of responsibility. I was one of those people.

As a youth, I had all the opportunity in the world. I used to hang out at the USC football practices all the time...

I was a ballboy for about seven years, so I was never short of role models...

Then I felt it was best for me to move on. That's when things started to go bad. I started hanging out with the wrong crowd and got myself into trouble. I did these things because I needed a change of pace.

For years, I was used to being the good kid. I had always had these future and former pro football players telling me that I was the best and that I needed to stay away from this and that. I was curious and it eventually got the best of me. I'm not writing this story to make people feel sorry for me. I am doing it because I want other kids to know that there is a better way...

My brothers and sisters sat me down and told me that it was time for me to take responsibility for myself. It was at this time that I decided to start playing football in high school...

It was at Dorsey that I finally found myself. Here I was, one of the best athletes in the state, and I wasn't preparing myself for college. Recruiters would come to recruit me and I would laugh them off because I didn't take them seriously. My family, coaches and some recruiters were still telling me that I had all the ability to go to the next level, but I never listened...until it was too late.

I still signed a letter of intent with Miami out of high school. The only thing that could prevent me from going there was the results of my SAT scores. I didn't pass.

Finally, after years and years of people not giving up on me, I started to see the big picture. It was time for me, Keyshawn, to live up to what I was supposed to be. For years, I had it all, a family that cared, coaches who looked out for me, and athletic ability that could possibly take me anywhere. And I had wasted it.

I don't blame anyone for the mistakes I made when I was younger. I just want people to know that there is always hope for those who have gone astray. I want to give back to the community that gave everything to me. Kids need to take life seriously because you only live it once. And parents should teach their kids right and wrong at an early age and should always stay in their corner.

There are long and short routes to being successful. I had to take the long route...

I am lucky that people taught me the responsibility that I need to make it in the real world. For me, football isn't my ticket away from the "ghetto." It's merely a way for me to get the best education possible free of charge.

Take responsibility for your own actions. Life is a learning experience and you will make mistakes. The true test of your character, however, is how you react to those mistakes. Not everyone gets a second, or in my case, a third chance. I was lucky.

BRIAN KELLY

Cornerback
6-1, 190
So./So.

1995: Kelly, a rising star as just a sophomore, returns as a starting cornerback in 1995. Big things are in store for him during his USC career.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Kelly really had an outstanding freshman season. He has star potential. He has all the skills of a great cornerback."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Kelly started--and played well in--USC's last 8 games of 1994 at cornerback after spending the first 4 contests as Jerald Henry's backup. Overall in 1994, Kelly made 34 tackles (3 for losses), deflected 5 passes, intercepted another (at Washington State, which he returned 22 yards), and forced 2 fumbles (both against Baylor). He had 6 tackles versus Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: Kelly earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Big 8 Region honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Denver Post Colorado Defensive MVP, Colorado 6A Player of the Year and All-Centennial League notice as a senior at Overland High in Aurora (Colo.). In 13 games in 1993, he made 78 tackles, 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (4 for TDs), 17 deflections, and 3 fumble recoveries (1 for a TD) and also scored 4 TDs on offense (he rushed for 44 yards) and kick returns. Overland went 10-3 and won the state Class 6A championship in 1993.

He was All-6A Conference and All-Centennial League as a 1992 junior, getting 96 tackles, 2 sacks, 2 interceptions (both were returned for 80-yard scores), and 6 fumble recoveries (3 for TDs). He had 3 picks in a game once and 22 tackles in another. He also ran track at Overland, finishing second in the state 800 meters and running on the state champion 800-meter relay team as a junior. He posted a best of 21.36 in the 200 meters and 48.25 in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL: He was born in Las Vegas, Nev. He likes to play the drums. His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

BRIAN KELLY ON: His philosophy of playing cornerback: "Corner is a very demanding position. You have to take the field in the mindset that you're physically and mentally stronger than any receiver."

His ability: "It doesn't matter how much physical talent you have, you have to be mentally smart to play at this level...I'm pretty hard on myself. I want to do better...At cornerback, you have to have a short memory, I guess you could say. You've got to come back on the next play, because they're going to come back at you."

High expectations placed on him: "It doesn't intimidate me, because I expect a lot of myslef. I say, 'Fine, that matches my own expectations.' It's nice to hear those things from people who know, because it reflects the level I want to be at."

Wearing No. 42, the jersey number of former USC All-American and NFL All-Pro safety Ronnie Lott: "I'm very much aware of what that number means. I started hearing comparisons as soon as I got here. I'm honored to wear that number. I know Lott's a guy who always got it on on the field...It's nice to be mentioned with someone like Lott. The game's changed a lot now, but he did a lot of great things and probably still is the greatest secondary man. But I don't compare my style to his. We're 2 different types of players, besides the fact he was a safety and I'm a corner. Lott's a hitter; I'm more finesse and emotion."

His idol, Deion Sanders: "He plays a mental game and uses his physical skills, which is the type of player I'd like to be. The game now is more of a speed thing. But Deion still carries an intimidating factor, and in that I like to compare myself to him. Maybe I wouldn't like to be as flashy as he is, but I like a lot of the things he does."

Why he chose USC: "Without question, the Pac-10's style is what attracted me to USC. I had a chance to go to schools in other conferences, but I didn't want to be in a situation where I'd be coming up to cover the run on every play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Brian has the potential to be the best ever at his position at USC. He has the ability to close on the ball and make the big hit. He can strike and make a lot of things happen. He's worked hard on his man-to-man technique and he's getting better every day."

USC wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson: "Brian covers me in practice like he's the best corner in the country. He's so hard to get open on."

MATT KENELEY

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 285
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Keneley, who'll be starting for his third year in 1995, anchors USC's defensive line as a junior defensive tackle. He's a very consistent and productive player.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Keneley has a lot of experience as just a junior. He's been to battle and has performed well."

1994: As just a sophomore, Keneley started for the second year on the defensive line, this time at nose tackle in 1994. Overall, he had 48 tackles, including 4 for losses (with 1 sack), and deflected a pass. He made 9 stops at Penn State, 7 at Oregon State and 6 against Notre Dame.

1993: Despite being only a redshirt freshman, Keneley started 9 games on the defensive line in 1993: USC's first 5 (North Carolina, Houston, Penn State, Washington State, Arizona) at defensive tackle and the last 4 of the regular season (California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA) at nose tackle. Overall in 1993, he made 41 tackles, including 7 for losses of 29 yards (2 were sacks for minus 10 yards) while appearing in all 13 contests. He also blocked a field goal at Washington. He had 6 stops against North Carolina and Notre Dame, and 5 at Penn State. For all this, he was named to the 1993 Football News Freshman All-American third team.

1992: Keneley redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: The Orange County Register's top-ranked recruit, Keneley was named Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division II first team, Register All-Orange County first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, and South Coast League Player of the Year in 1991 at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He switched from linebacker to defensive tackle prior to his senior season and recorded 92 tackles with 9 sacks, a forced fumble and a blocked field goal. He was a member of a 7-4 team in 1991.

He also played tight end during his 1990 junior season when the Diablos posted an 11-2 record and won the South Coast League championship. He lettered his junior year in basketball at Mission Viejo. A fine student, Keneley maintained a 3.5 GPA in high school and was named Rams/GTE Academic All-Orange County in 1991.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC with an A- average (3.68 GPA). He made the 1994 Pac-10 All-Academic first team and 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention squads. He bench presses 360 pounds.

MATT KENELEY ON: His improvement in 1994: "I took a real serious attitude about the season. I worked hard over the summer. I wanted to take my game to another level...I worked hard on my speed and in the weight room, increasing my upper body strength. I came into the season really confident about myself physically. I came in feeling that I was at the top of my game and that just carried out onto the field...I want to be the premier defensive lineman in the Pac-10."

His attitude: "I believe I've been given some physical talents and I want to make the most of them. I don't want to waste a thing. I aways try to be an overachiever. I work hard at anything I do and I refuse to quit. I want to accomplish my goals...I believe more or less in self-motivation. If you have a love for the game and care about football, you're going to perform your best. I really don't need to motivate people, and if I do, then they shouldn't be out there on the field...Whenever I go on the field before games and practice I always repeat a saying that my high school coach taught me: 'What you give today, you have forever. What you didn't give today is lost forever.' I've taken that to heart. It reminds me to give my best...I've always been a competitor and I always want to win at anything I do. When I was little, I would look around school and pick out a different kid each day and say, 'Hey, you want to race? I can beat you.' And then we'd line up and run to the end of the field."

His quickness: "That is probably one of the skills I think that has gotten me as far as I've gone. It's always a little decieving when they see a guy with my size who can move."

Academics: "I take special pride in my academic side as well as my athletic side. That's something I did all through high school and have continued in college. I just want to make the most of my opportunity to go to school here. I try to study hard and get the best grades that I can. Usually, I've been able to write good papers. I've always had a talent for writing and that helps a lot...Because they know I'm a football player, instructors or other students will sometimes downgrade my abilities as a student. I feel confident of my academic abilities and so I'm always trying to prove them wrong. I try to write better papers and do better on my tests than anyone else in the classroom. I want to show them that a football player can be a good student as well as a good athlete."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "I call him 'God,' because no one can block him."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "He's quick. I look at the films and wonder where he came from."

USC offensiv line coach Doug Smith, former the defensive line coach: "What helps Matt succeed is that he really studies the game of football and he hustles all the time. When he walks onto the field, he becomes a Pete Rose-type of player."

SAMMY KNIGHT

Safety
6-1, 195
Jr./Jr.

1995: A hard-hitting 1995 junior returning starter who has a nose for the ball, Knight--whose brother started at USC in the past--is the leader of USC's secondary from his strong safety spot.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Knight has a tremendous amount of experience. He's one of our defensive leaders, especially by his competitiveness and aggressiveness. He's a deserving all-star candidate. He is a football player. When you snap the ball, he starts running at the guy with the ball. He is one of those guys who wants to be first on that pile. Ronnie Lott was that way. So was Dennis Thurman."

1994: Knight started all of his 1994 sophomore season at strong safety. He had 65 tackles (third on the team), a team-high 2 fumble recoveries (against California, which set up at USC TD, and Washington), and 3 pass deflections. He also combined with Jerald Henry to block a field goal against California which Henry returned 60 yards for a TD. Knight had 11 tackles at Stanford, a game-best 9 at Washington State, 8 against UCLA and Notre Dame, 6 against Penn State and Texas Tech, and 5 versus Washington. He made the 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention team.

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to see action at USC in 1993, Knight played a key role for the Trojans as a reserve safety and key special teams player. He even started the Oregon State game at free safety (he made 5 tackles in the contest), becoming the first USC true freshman to start at safety in the post-World War II era. Overall in 1993, he had 15 tackles, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery (at Oregon) and 1 forced fumble (at Penn State) while appearing in all 13 games. He did all this despite playing part of the season with a broken rib.

HIGH SCHOOL: Knight's 1992 honors included Parade All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American Dream Team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, and Ivy League Defensive MVP at Rubidoux (Calif.) High. He played free safety, wide receiver and quarterback in 1992, posting 153 tackles, 11 interceptions (4 in one game), 5 blocked kicks, 4 fumble recoveries, 5 forced fumbles, 483 yards and 12 TDs on 53 rushes (9.1 avg.), 13 catches for 189 yards (14.5 avg.), and 3-of-7 passing for 59 yards. He had 30 tackles in a game once. His team was 11-1 in 1992.

In his career as a 3-year starter, he had 21 interceptions and 15 blocked kicks. He also played basketball (he averaged 14.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 7.0 assists in 1993 and made the 1992 All-Ivy League first team) and track.

In 1991, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, and All-League first team, while making 172 tackles (82 solo), 6 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks.

He had 150 tackles, a school-record 6 blocked kicks and 4 interceptions as a sophomore in 1990 while making Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County honorable mention and All-League first team.

PERSONAL: He's a communications major at USC. His sports hero is ex-USC and current NFL star Ronnie Lott. Sammy bench presses 315 pounds. His brother, Ryan, was a record-setting prep All-American running back at Rubidoux (2,620 yards as a 1983 senior, including 501 in one game) who then lettered 4 years (1984-87) at tailback at USC and led the Trojans in rushing in 1985 and 1986 (he's 13th on USC's career rushing list with 1,875 yards). Another brother, Greg, played defensive line at Colorado.

SAMMY KNIGHT ON: Why he watches videotapes of former USC safety greats: "I just sit back and watch them and how they played. That gives me a sense of how football should be played. In Ronnie Lott, you're talking about the greatest safety to ever play football."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "I've always been a Sammy Knight fan. He is one of the first players in the building; if he had a key, he would open and close this building every day. He's that kind of kid. He has improved every day. He can be an All-American if he continues to do what he has done already. His leadership ability, work ethic and enthusiasm are as good as I've ever been around."

Lyle Spencer, Riverside Press-Enterprise: "With a series of big hits, Knight has evoked memories of great USC safeties of the past--Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith, Tim McDonald, Dennis Thurman."

MATT KOFFLER

Quarterback
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Koffler, a junior, will serve as the No. 3 quarterback in 1995 behind Brad Otton and Kyle Wachholtz.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Although Koffler doesn't get many opportunities in practice, he's the kind of play who could go in a game and compete effectively. He's a great team member and a leader on our squad."

1994: As a sophomore reserve quarterback, Koffler played in only 2 games in 1994. He made the most of his first 1994 contest: after USC got a big lead early in the third quarter against California, he finished out the game and hit 7-of-13 passes (53.9%) for 61 yards and 2 TDs (11 yards to Jeff Diltz and 4 yards to Leonard Green). He also played briefly against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl, but did not throw a pass. After 1994 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Koffler served as the No. 3 quarterback in 1993 and saw brief action late in 2 games (Houston and Washington State). He completed his only pass attempt of 1993 in the Houston contest and, although it went for no yards, it was caught by wide receiver Johnnie Morton, giving Morton a USC record-setting 15 catches in the game. He had post-season arthrosopic surgery for torn cartilage in his left knee.

1992: Koffler redshirted as a quarterback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Max Emfinger All-American, Koffler passed for over 4,500 yards his final 2 seasons at Rosemead (Calif.) High, including 1,945 yards during his 1991 senior season. He completed 129-of-220 (58.6%) passes, including 15 that went for TDs (he also ran for 8 TDs). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, and All-CIF Division V first team. Against Duarte High, he threw for 289 yards (16-of-22) and 5 TDs and rushed 72 yards for another TD.

As a 1990 junior, Matt made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division V first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and Mission Valley League Back of the Year while throwing for 2,489 yards and 25 TDs. He led Rosemead to an 11-3 record and the Mission Valley championship. He enjoyed the best game of his career against Apple Valley High in the 1990 CIF playoffs, passing for 324 yards (17-of-25) and 3 TDs.

He won All-Mission Valley League first team recognition as a defensive end during his 1989 sophomore season.

He lettered 3 years in basketball at Rosemead, averaging 16.8 points and a league-best 13.2 rebounds during his senior season. He was a 2-time All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Mission Valley League pick in basketball.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 325 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

DONG KOO

Offensive Guard
6-4, 285
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Koo, a junior, is listed as a backup (with Clay Hattabaugh) behind Phalen Pounds at right offensive guard in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Koo has improved steadily and had a very good spring. He's much more physical now and is fighting for playing time."

1994: As a sophomore reserve offensive guard, Koo played briefly against California and Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl for his only action in 1994.

1993: As a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard, Koo had an appendectomy in the pre-season and that sidelined him for USC's first 5 games. His only action of 1993 was a brief appearance against Oregon State. He was moved in 1993 spring practice from offensive tackle to left offensive guard.

1992: Koo redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Koo was named 1991 Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team third team, and All-San Gabriel Valley League first team while at Warren High in Downey (Calif.). He had a 90% blocking grade in 1991.

PERSONAL: Dong came to the United States with his family from South Korea in 1985. He never saw a football game until viewing the 1989 USC-Michigan Rose Bowl on television (USC lost). He holds a second-degree black belt in taekwondo. He turned down an offer to become a sumo wrestler in South Korea. Koo wants to become a priest. After his Friday night prep games, he would head to church and pray from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. In the summer of 1995, Koo completed his undergraduate course work as a religious studies major at USC (in just 3 years) and he is now pursuing graduate level courses in educational counseling. He has a B average (3.24 GPA). He bench presses 360 pounds.

DONG KOO ON: Wanting to become a priest: "I prayed to God and told Him if He made me a USC football player, I'd become a priest. And if I ever become a pro football player, I'll serve Him forever."

How he learned English: "I basically watched TV and I had a lot of American friends. I didn't have any Korean friends. So I just hung around with American friends and learned it quick."

His taekwondo skills: "When I was little, I was really small and skinny, so I could do jump kicks and everything, but now as I get older and kind of heavier, it's getting harder...When I was young, kids would make fun of me, but I'd never get into fights. All I did was turn around and walk away. Yeah, if I wanted to, I could have handled them. But my mother would have killed me if I got suspended."

WILLIE LOWERY

Defensive End
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Lowery, a steady and experienced junior defensive end, returns as a starter in 1995, but he'll be pushed by Israel Ifeanyi and Marcus Bonds for playing time at either of the end spots.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Lowery proved to be a very effective outside pass rusher last year and should improve upon his play in 1995. We need for him and the other ends to make big plays this season."

1994: As a sophomore, Lowery started 11 games (all but the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech) in 1994 at defensive end. He made 31 tackles, including 4 for losses of 25 yards (with 2 sacks), 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery (on the same play against Baylor), and 1 deflection. He had 8 stops against Oregon.

1993: As just a redshirt freshman, Lowery played impressively in limited stints in 1993 as the No. 2 defensive end (first behind Willie McGinest and then Shannon Jones) and on special teams. While appearing in 12 games in 1993 (he missed the Notre Dame contest with a pulled left hamstring suffered against Oregon State), he notched 12 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard) and 3 deflections. He was moved in 1993 spring practice to defensive end from outside linebacker.

1992: Lowery redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Lowery made Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, All-CIF Division VIII first team, and Sunkist League Defensive Player of the Year in 1991. He notched 92 tackles with 12 sacks and 4 blocked punts in 1991 after averaging 10 tackles a game in 1990. He led the Eagles to a 10-2 record and the semifinals of the CIF Division VIII playoffs. He was a 3-time All-Sunkist League honoree. Willie was a prep teammate of current Trojan David Dotson.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 340 pounds. He's a public policy and management major at USC.

ROBERT LOYA

Center-Offensive Guard
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Loya, a reliable, veteran and versatile offensive lineman with 7 career starts, will serve as Jeremy Hogue's backup at center as a 1995 senior. He's also available to play offensive guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Loya is very competitive and offers us good flexibility at center and guard. Plus, he has lots of experience."

1994: As a junior, Loya was moved to center (from offensive guard) in 1994 spring practice and served as Hogue's backup there all season. Loya appeared briefly in 5 games (Penn State, Baylor, California, Arizona and Texas Tech). He also was available to slide back over to guard.

1993: Loya was a reserve offensive guard as a sophomore in 1993. He appeared in 4 games (Washington State, Arizona, Oregon, Oregon State). He missed 3 games (California, Stanford, Washington) with an inflamed bursa sac in his knee. He missed the first half of 1993 spring practice while recovering from 1992 post-season surgery to remove cartilage from his left knee.

1992: As just a redshirt freshman, Loya started 7 games (Washington and then the final 6 regular season contests) at right offensive guard in 1992 and did an admirable job. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove right knee cartilage following 1992 spring practice.

1991: Loya appeared briefly in the Memphis State opener as a backup strong offensive guard, but then suffered a pinched nerve in his neck prior to the next game (Penn State) and was sidelined the rest of his 1991 freshman season. Because of the early injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He was 1 of just 6 first-year freshman to see action in 1991.

HIGH SCHOOL: Loya teamed with current Trojan Clay Hattabaugh to give Fontana (Calif.) High one of the finest offensive lines in the state in 1989 and 1990. Fontana gained 7,676 yards rushing his last 2 seasons, including a school-record 4,244 in 1989. He was named to 6 1990 All-America first teams--USA Today All-USA, The National's Top 50, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. Robert also made Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana was 24-2 in Loya's final 2 years, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

As a 1989 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassman, All-CIF Division I first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Both years, he made the team's line calls and had blocking grades of more than 80%.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC. He made 1992 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention. He bench presses 315 pounds.

ROBERT LOYA ON: Run blocking: "In high school, we never passed the ball. It was just the running game. My real game is the run. I've always loved to run. I just love pounding."

MARC MATOCK

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 280
Fr.*/So.

1995: Matock, a redshirt freshman, will serve as a reserve defensive tackle in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Matock will be a backup this year, but he has a good future here. As his technique and strength improve, he'll become a very solid player for us."

1994: Matock redshirted as a defensive end in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Matock's honors in 1993 included Blue Chip All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-Valley and All-League as a senior 2-way lineman at Palma High in Salinas (Calif.). He had 3 interceptions (1 for a TD). Palma was 11-1 in 1993.

He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team, All-Valley and All-League as a 1992 junior. In 1991 as a sophomore, he was All-League second team. He was a 3-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at Palma.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 400 pounds. His sports hero is Howie Long.

MATT McSHANE

Offensive Guard
6-5, 285
Fr./Fr.

1995: McShane enrolled at USC in the spring of 1995 as a freshman reserve offensive guard after sitting out the sport in 1994 following a fine prep career.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McShane attended Merritt Community College in Oakland (Calif.) as a part-time student in the fall of 1994, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: McShane was named to the 1993 Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team as a senior at St. Mary's High in Berkeley (Calif.).

As a 1992 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-Metro and All-League. He also played basketball and track at St. Mary's. He was the school's student body president.

PERSONAL: He likes to play the saxophone.

JOHNNY McWILLIAMS

Tight End
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: McWilliams, a big, fast and strong senior who is a powerful blocker and has good hands, is one of the most versatile--and best--tight ends in college football. He's able to play both the traditional tight end spot or H-back (tight-end-in-motion). He figures to once again alternate with Tyler Cashman in 1995. McWilliams could contend for post-season honors.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McWilliams improved greatly last year. He's one of the better tight ends in America, both as a blocker and downfield receiver. I think you'll see his name on many honors lists at the end of the season."

1994: McWilliams was expected to share time with Cashman as USC's often-employed H-back (tight end-in-motion) as a junior in 1994. But when starting tight end John Allred went down with an injury early in the season, McWilliams took over that spot, starting 8 games at tight end while cutting back on his H-back duties. Overall in 1994, he caught 23 passes (fourth on the team) for 251 yards (10.9 avg.) with 4 TDs. He had a career-high 5 grabs against Washington (33 yards, including a 6-yard TD) and Arizona (63 yards, with TDs of 7 and 2 yards). His other TD catch was a 5-yarder versus Notre Dame. He played the last half of the season with cracked ribs.

1993: McWilliams alternated with Cashman as USC's H-back as a sophomore in 1993. Overall in 1993, he caught 17 passes for 147 yards (8.6 avg.) and 4 TDs. He caught USC's final TDs at Penn State (2 yards) and Notre Dame (8 yards) and also caught a TD (9 yards) versus UCLA and Utah (5 yards). He had 3 catches for 25 yards at Notre Dame.

1992: As a redshirt freshman, McWilliams was moved to tight end from flanker in 1992 spring drills. He did not see any action in 1992.

1991: McWilliams redshirted as a flanker in 1991, his first year at USC. He sprained his right knee in pre-season drills and was out of action during the early part of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: An outstanding athlete, McWilliams was a quarterback, wide receiver, running back and punter as a 1990 senior at Pomona (Calif.) High. As a quarterback, he threw for 1,200 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a receiver, he caught 8 passes for 260 yards (32.5 avg.). As a running back, he rushed for 2 touchdowns. And he averaged 41 yards per punt. He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-Far West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 pick.

He also starred in basketball (his team won the CIF 3-A title), averaging 27 points and 15 rebounds to make the 1991 All-CIF Division III first team. He was on the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoops first team. He lettered in baseball as well.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC.

JOHNNY McWILLIAMS ON: His goal: "My No. 1 priority right now is to be the best football player I can be and work on what it's going to take to make it to the next level."

His ability: "They know when they need me, I'll deliver."

Playing H-back: "H-back is basically more catching passes and not solely blocking as much as the tight end position. But it's physical. We have harder blocks at times. We often have to block smaller, speedier, quick guys, not the big guys who the tight ends block. This is the position that I am best suited for with the ability that I have, because I am fast enough to run with the little guys and I'm more aggressive blocking...I think my strongest point is catching the ball and running after I catch it. But I think I block equally as well, too...I've learned to love run blocking. When I first came to USC, I didn't like it. But I like the physical aspect of the game. I like to hit. I want to dominate on Saturday."

His early career at USC: "(Former USC outside linebacker and NFL first rounder) Willie McGinest told me to hit the weights and to keep my head up. I'd never had anybody tell me I had to get bigger. No one ever really gave me inspiration to lift."

Why he chose USC: "Playing basketball at Syracuse was my dream growing up. But when it came right down to it, I didn't want to go too far away from my family. We're real close. That's why I chose USC. It seemed perfect."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC tight ends coach David Robinson: "He's definitely an NFL prospect. He's an unusual athlete. He's quick, he's smooth and he's got great hands...Johnny is such a good athlete that we have to have him on the field. We designed the H-back position towards getting him involved with the offense."

JOHN MICHELS

Offensive Tackle
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Michels, a capable senior, is the leading candidate to replace 2-time All-American and 1995 NFL first rounder Tony Boselli at left offensive tackle in 1995, although he'll be pushed by Kyle Ramsay. As difficult as that task may be, Michels is prepared for it.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Michels has the lead in the competition for Tony Boselli's job. He has improved dramatically and I believe he'll do a good job. But Ramsay is right there with him."

1994: Michels, a junior, spent all of 1994 as Boselli's backup at left offensive tackle. Michels also played on special teams, where he appeared in 11 games (all but the Penn State game) in 1994. He appeared briefly at tackle against Baylor, California, Arizona and Texas Tech.

1993: Michels began his 1993 sophomore campaign as a backup defensive end and tackle behind Willie McGinest and Matt Keneley (he was moved to those positions in 1993 spring drills), but was switched to offensive tackle in midseason. He appeared in 4 games (Houston, Washington, UCLA, Utah) in 1993, mainly on special teams (getting 1 tackle on defense). He did not get into a game on offense.

1992: Michels was a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle-outside linebacker who did not see any action in 1992.

1991: Michels redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC. After the season, he had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder and was held out of 1992 spring practice.

PERSONAL: Michels was on the 1990 Super Prep All-American first team after collecting 90 tackles in 13 games at La Jolla (Calif.) High. He also posted 13 sacks, 8 pass deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries. As a result, he was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, All-Western League and Western League Defensive Player of the Year. He was a key figure in La Jolla's 10-2-1 season that resulted in the Western League co-championship and a CIF semifinal appearance.

John played 3 years of varsity basketball and track (hurdles, high jump, discus) at La Jolla as well. A fine student, he was named a National Football Foundation All-Academic.

PERSONAL: He's a religious studies major at USC with a B average (2.98 GPA). He bench presses 335 pounds.

JOHN MICHELS ON: Playing behind: "I could have gone somewhere else and played, but I learned so much playing behind Tony Boselli the last 2 years I feel I'm a better player than if I'd started at another school."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "We lost one of the best ever in Tony Boselli. Everyone talks about comparing his replacement to him, but that's not fair. We feel good about the work being done there now by John Michels."

CHRIS MILLER

Wide Receiver
Jr./Jr.

1995: Miller, the cousin of current Trojan standout wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, transferred to USC in the spring of 1995 from West Los Angeles Community College. Known for his speeds and moves, he was impressive in spring drills and is listed with Larry Parker as a starter at wide receiver as a junior in 1995. He might also return kickoffs.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Miller had a great spring. He adjusted very well to our offense, as well as any new player I've had here. He has outstanding speed, with a great burst at the end of his run to catch the ball. He'll see a lot of action in 1995."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Miller made the 1994 Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Western State Conference first team in his only season at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. He had 41 receptions for 762 yards (18.6 avg.) and 7 TDs in 1994, plus 11 carries for 86 yards and 3 scores, and 19 kickoff returns for 364 yards (19.2 avg.). Besides Johnson, current Trojan Marcus Bonds also attended West Los Angeles.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Dorsey High in Los Angeles (along with Johnson) and, as a 1991 senior, Dorsey went 12-1-1 and won the L.A. City 4-A title.

PERSONAL: After leaving Dorsey, he spent nearly 2 years traveling to San Francisco, Detroit and Portland on a religious mission spreading the word of his Muslim faith.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "We are really excited about the addition of Chris Miller to our team. He is a tough guy and he has the skills to be a good receiver. He'll really help us."

BRAD OTTON

Quarterback
6-6, 225
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Otton, a cool, tested and talented junior, will battle Kyle Wachholtz in 1995 to assume the starting quarterback job vacated by Rob Johnson. Otton--at 6-6, the tallest quarterback in USC history--was a nice surprise in 1994 in his numerous appearances, displaying intelligent and poised play, an accurate arm and good scrambling ability. He also might be the holder on all placekicks in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We have a lot of confidence in Brad. He did such a great job last year and has all the tools you look for in a quarterback. He's gained some weight and that will help him. He is very intuitive about the game and has great instincts on the field. He has a cool demeanor, too. He and Wachholtz are equally-talented and should wage a real battle for the job."

1994: Otton was a pleasant--and somewhat unexpected--addition to USC in 1994. He transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 after a record-setting season at Division I-AA Weber State and proved to be a super sub as a sophomore backup quarterback to Johnson. Because of ankle sprains to Johnson, Otton filled in admirably for him in 5 games in 1994 (he was 2-0 as a starter). He came on in the third quarter at Oregon (completing 7-of-15 passes for 79 yards with no interceptions and just 2 sacks). He played the entire game at Oregon State (going 13-of-21 for 208 yards and 2 TDs, without a pick and only 1 sack). He jumped in during the second quarter at Stanford (going 10-of-20 for 114 yards, no picks and 1 sack). He started again versus California (completing 75.0% of his passes, 15-of-20, for 196 yards, 2 TDs, no picks and 1 sack, including 14-of-19 for 188 yards in the first half; he left the game after USC's first series of the second half with Troy up, 42-0, as backups came in). He then played the last 7 minutes against Arizona (leading USC to a TD and field goal while hitting both of his passes for 44 yards, including a 43-yard bomb on his first snap). He also played most of the second half in USC's rout of Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl, going 8-of-14 for 146 yards and 2 TDs (including an 86-yarder to Keyshawn Johnson, 1 yard shy of the USC and Cotton Bowl record), with no interceptions or sacks. He also played briefly against Baylor, but didn't throw a pass. Overall in 7 games in 1994, he was 47-of-78 (60.3%) for 641 yards, 4 TDs and no interceptions. He was immediately eligible to play at USC because of a new NCAA rule on Division I-AA transfers (the rule has since been rescinded).

WEBER STATE: Otton was Weber State's starting quarterback in 1993. He set NCAA Division I-AA freshman single game records when he threw for 540 yards and had 536 yards of total offense against Northern Arizona. He earned 1993 All-Big Sky honorable mention notice while completing 183-of-314 passes (58.3%) for 2,307 yards and 15 TDs. He was 13th in Division I-AA in total offense (249.1 yards per game). He started 7 times for Weber State, which was 7-4 in 1993 and ranked 11th among Division I-AA teams in passing offense (279.5) and 12th in total offense (444.7). Otton also made the 1993 Big Sky All-Academic team.

He redshirted in 1990 in his first year at Weber State, then went on a Mormon mission for 2 years to Italy, followed by 2 months in Brooklyn, N.Y.

HIGH SCHOOL: Otton prepped at Tumwater (Wash.) High in 1989 and led his 13-0 team to the state championship. He completed 92-of-159 passes (57.9%) for 1,576 yards, 29 TDs (third most ever in the state) and just 4 interceptions as a senior while coached by his father, Sid. He also ran for 3 scores. He was All-State first team and Black Hills League MVP in 1989. He was the backup quarterback during his sophomore and junior seasons, hitting 10-of-14 passes (71.4%) for 128 yards and 2 TDs. Tumwater also won the state title in his 1987 sophomore season. He also played basketball (16.0 scoring average) and tennis at Tumwater.

PERSONAL: His father, Sid, was a 1965 All-American back at Weber State (as a prepster at Lewiston High in Idaho, he was coached by Bud Riley, father of USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley), while his older brother, Tim, was a defensive end at Weber State. His sister, Tana, is on the women's basketball team at Western Washington. Otton is a business major at USC.

BRAD OTTON ON: Entering the 1995 season as a co-starter with Kyle Wachholtz: "I wasn't expecting anything else. I don't want to be the starter here because I played more than Kyle, any more than Kyle wants to be the starter because he's been here longer. I think we both want to earn it on the practice field. I'm not upset at all about the situation. If Kyle proves he's better than me, so be it. I don't want to be the starter because of what I've done in the past. I want to be the starter because of what I can do in the future...When I came here, all I wanted was a chance, and I'm getting that. I really don't see anything wrong with the situation. The coaches are trying to get both of us to focus and work hard. If I was the coach, I'd do the same thing...What has to happen is someone has to emerge as the leader. I've been in some tough games. People see how I react. I think I'm a pretty good leader and the guys think I'm a pretty good leader. I get a sense that people have a lot of confidence in me and expect me to be the starter. I'm not that worried with how I'm going to perform...Coming in here, I thought it was going to be Kyle's job to lose. But last year kind of left the door open for me...But to say there won't be competition isn't being fair to anyone...If they decide they want to start Kyle, this team has a chance to win the national championship and I'm not going to be a cancer on this team. I have a little less to lose than Kyle because I have 2 years left. If something happens, I'm not going to destroy the team because of it."

His composure: "Did I look comfortable (against Stanford)? Guess I had you all fooled!...I don't really think about the pressure that's on me. I guess what pressure there is, I kind of enjoy it and roll with whatever happens...I'm not going to go out there nervous for the only time I'm really enjoying it. There's a personality behind every player, and I guess that's my personality."

His first year at USC: "I was prepared not to play. I just wanted to establish myself and perhaps get a leg up in the competition for the starting spot in 1995...Trying to stay involved in practice, when you've gone from being the guy to a spot where you've just got to kind of look on all the time, was a lot harder than I thought it would be. I tried to stay involved in practice and pay attention. But you start thinking of other places you could be, of other things you could be doing. I even told my mom I shouldn't have left Weber State. She told me to wait, that things would turn around...It's kind of weird how things worked out...I just kept going out there and doing my best."

The difference between USC and Weber State football: "I haven't really noticed a big difference. The players have more speed and mayber they're more intense than I thought. But if there's a big difference, I haven't noticed it yet."

Why he selected USC: "When I visited the other schools, I could feel the pressure the minute I got there. They were kind of looking for someone to save the team. Here, I got a chance to come in and adjust to things...I don't watch much football on T.V., so I didn't know a lot about USC. I remembered that they had a redheaded quarterback (Todd Marinovich) who couldn't eat Big Macs! Other than that, I didn't know much. I didn't even know USC and UCLA were rivals...I knew about the Apple Cup (the trophy for the winner of the annual Washington-Washington State game), but I didn't know if USC versus UCLA was as big as the Apple Cup...I knew USC was in Los Angeles, but I didn't know UCLA was in L.A.!...But I decided to come to USC because I want to win a national championship...I didn't want to not play for a year. Then I bought a magazine and read an article about how Coach (John) Robinson wanted to win a national championship in 3 years. Maybe I wouldn't mind waiting for a year if I was going to get a chance in the next 2 years to play for the national championship."

Leaving Weber State: "I know I hurt a lot of people there by leaving, but it was something I felt I had to do. I felt if I was going to transfer, that was the time to do it...They were in a tough situation (with the precarious financial status of the football program). If I had been a senior, I never would've left. When I thought about my friends there, I kind of felt like I dumped on them. But when I thought about myself, I got excited about my new situation...When they win a game, I feel like I'm off the hook for a week. It's on my conscience a little bit. That school meant a lot to me, it meant a lot to my family. The only reason I buy the Sunday morning newspaper is to check the Big Sky scores."

Originally committing to Washington State before USC: "The day after I told Coach (Mike) Price I'd come to Washington State, he called me. They already had 6 quarterbacks in school and when they heard I was coming, they were all in his office the next day, he said...I didn't want to go there with all those people hating me right away. So it became sort of a mutual decision...We agreed it wouldn't be a good situation, so I called Coach (Mike) Riley and told him I'd come to USC."

His Mormon mission to Italy: "There are only about 7,000 Mormons in the whole country (of Italy). I don't know if I converted anyone, but everyone I talked to was polite and seemed interested."

The toughest player he's faced: "My brother, Tim, is 4 years older than me and a lot bigger. He always made sure to give me an extra elbow or something. He didn't want me to turn out to be a wimpy quarterback."

Comparisons to Todd Marinovich: "My dad was a coach, too, but I grew up on Fruity Pebbles and Quarter Pounders with Cheese."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "Brad is very, very poised. He just kind of plays the game easily...He doesn't feel pressure. He's very mature. He may not be in awe of things in the Pac-10, but he's certainly no country bumpkin...Brad did a wonderful job last year. He was more than we ever could have hoped for...The first thing a backup quarterback has to do is make everybody feel like everything is okay. Take the snap, hand off the ball and don't look scared to death. Last year, Brad did a marvelous job coming in and creating a sense of ease. I've not seen that very often in a quarterback...He's even giggled at times out there."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "He's cool. He makes everyone at ease...That's the way Brad is. When he comes into the game, he tries to calm everyone down. He doesn't feel right unless he gets one smile in the huddle."

USC running back Terry Barnum: "He's just super smooth. When the pass blocking breaks down, he doesn't get that 'Oh-my-goodness' look, that 'Please-help-me' look...He'll stick his head in the huddle and say, 'Hey guys, long time no see.'...When a play is signalled in, sometimes he says, 'Hey, I think we're going to score on this one...The series is like a long dialogue, a story. The 'happily ever after' is the touchdown."

Sid Otton, his father and high school coach: "On the football field, Brad's always had a special charisma about him that's made him a good field general. He's always had poise and he's showed that in the games...Brad might come across as real cool and hardly ever stressed, but he's a tremendous competitor."

TASO PAPADAKIS

Linebacker
6-0, 240
So.*/Jr.

1995: Papadakis, a physical sophomore, will be a backup linebacker (with Brian Haas) behind Errick Herrin and a key special teams player in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Papadakis was much improved this past spring. He established himself as a solid linebacker and will compete for playing time. And he provides leadership and outstanding play on special teams."

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker, Papadakis appeared in all 12 USC games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He made 4 tackles. Early in the season, he also was available as a blocking fullback in short yardage situations, but never played there. He missed 1994 spring practice while recuperating from post-season surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right shoulder.

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1993, Papadakis played on special teams in the North Carolina and Houston games. But he dislocated his left wrist against Houston and missed the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, 1993 served as his redshirt year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1992 Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP (all as a linebacker) at Peninsula High in Rolling Hills (Calif.). He had 277 yards on 42 carries (6.6 avg.) with 2 TDs as a fullback, plus 3 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions as a linebacker. His team went 9-3 and was Bay League co-champions in 1992.

He was hampered by a pulled hamstring in 1991, but still posted 77 tackles and 2 interceptions while winning All-League second team honors. Peninsula was 8-3 in 1991. As a 1990 soph, he had 97 tackles and an interception as an All-League second teamer. He also was a shot putter on the track team.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Anastasios. He has played the piano most of his life. He has worked many years at his family's renowned Greek restaurant in San Pedro, Papadakis Taverna. His father, John, lettered 2 years (1970-71) as a linebacker at USC (he was Troy's most inspirational player in 1971). Taso is a third generation Trojan. He can bench press 390 pounds. He's a religious studies major at USC with a B- average (2.80 GPA).

TASO PAPADAKIS ON: Special teams: "You really have to focus your energy because it's all for 1 play. It's definitely the hardest thing I've done on the football field."

His father: "He coached me on weekends. We were always in the living room on weekends, going through the plays and knocking furniture out of the way. He taught me how to read plays...I'm just going to do my best at USC and, if it's better than my dad, then so be it."

Why he chose USC: "I grew up with USC. I was always on the sidelines and playing here was more or less my childhood dream. It's exciting to be here."

LARRY PARKER

Wide Receiver
So./So.

1995: Although he's just a sophomore, Parker has such potential and already has the experience that he is listed with Chris Miller as a starting wide receiver in 1995. He might also return kickoffs, a duty he performed at times in 1994.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Parker has outstanding promise. He got some good experience as a freshman in 1994 and now will be called upon to fill out our wide receiver corps. He'll be an important element."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Parker appeared in 11 games in 1994 (all but the Washington opener) as a backup wide receiver behind Keyshawn Johnson. He made 14 catches for 137 yards (9.8 avg.). He had 5 catches for 40 yards at Penn State. Parker also returned kickoffs, running back 4 for 83 yards (20.8 avg.), and punts, returning 1 for 6 yards, in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Parker was on the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-South Yosemite League as a senior at Bakersfield (Calif.) High. He had 12 receptions and 5 TDs on offense, made 75 tackles with 1 interception on defense, and returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD in 1993. Bakersfield was 13-1 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he made All-Area and All-League while catching 11 passes for 160 yards (14.5 avg.) and 4 TDs, getting 80 tackles and 7 interceptions, and averaging 30.0 yards on kickoff returns. He also was on the track team, competing in the high jump and high hurdles. He had among the state's best times in 1994 in both the 110-meter high hurdles (14.49; he also posted a 14.20 wind-aided mark) and 300-meter intermediate hurdles (38.26). He was the 1994 Central Section champion in both events and participated in the state meet. He was a national age group champion in the high hurdles.

PERSONAL: His sports hero is Jerry Rice.

LARRY PARKER ON: His ability: "I think it's instinct, getting the ball and wanting to run. I think that's one of my biggest assets, that I have good field vision so I can really run with the ball."

Sharing the same name with a noted local attorney whose advertisements are often on TV: "Everyday, somebody says it, 'Larry Parker got me $2.1 million.' I hate it. I've been hearing it since fourth grade. Every time I hear it now, I don't even listen."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "The thing he does well is get the ball and cut upfield real quick...He handled himself well for being a true freshman. I'm really excited about his future."

GRANT PEARSALL

Safety
So./So.

1995: Pearsall, just a sophomore, should serve as the backup strong safety behind Sammy Knight in 1995 and he'll be used often in extra defensive back situations. He'll also play often on special teams. He was moved to the strong side from free safety in 1995 spring practice.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pearsall had a very good spring. He's getting bigger and stronger. As he becomes more comfortable at his new position, strong safety, he'll see more and more action. He'll also be a key special teams performer for us. He has a bright future at USC."

1994: As just a first-year freshman reserve safety, Pearsall appeared in all 12 games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He appeared briefly at free safety against Washington, California, Arizona and Texas Tech. He made 2 tackles in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pearsall's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County Co-MVP, and All-Century League MVP as a senior at Villa Park (Calif.) High. He rushed for 1,606 yards (6.2 avg.) with 17 TDs (he had 9 100-yard games, including a 248-yarder), plus caught 19 passes for 206 yards (10.8 avg.) with 7 TDs in 1993. He made 85 tackles, 4 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 4 interceptions (including a 52-yarder for a TD) on defense in 1993 and returned 14 kickoffs for 599 yards (42.8 avg.) and scored 5 times on kickoff and punt returns. Villa Park was 8-4 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior nagged by an injured ankle, he made All-Century League first team and had 1,100 rushing yards with 16 TDs, 75 tackles, and scoring kickoff returns of 99 and 98 yards. He was All-Century League first team as a 1991 sophomore. A 3-year starter, Villa Park was 21-12-1 during that span. He also was on the track (best of 10.9 in the 100 meters and 22.0 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Villa Park.

PERSONAL: He was born in Seattle, Wash. His father, Jim Pearsall, played with the Minnesota Vikings. His brother, Brian, is an offensive lineman at Cal Poly Pomona. He enjoys camping and fly fishing. His sports hero is Chuck Cecil.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "I look for a lot of good things from Grant. He's young and doesn't have much experience, but he has the potential and is only going to get better with time."

GEORGE PERRY

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 260
So./So.

1995: Perry, a sophomore with some experience under his belt, is listed as the backup to Matt Keneley at a defensive tackle spot in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Perry showed big improvement this spring. He had much better focus and he's a lot stronger now. He'll become a dominant player if he continues on the path he established this spring."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Perry appeared in 9 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Oregon State and Notre Dame contests) as a backup defensive end (first behind Willie Lowery and then behind Darrell Russell). He made 8 tackles, including 4 for losses of 10 yards (with a sack), and had a deflection.

HIGH SCHOOL: Perry made the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and All-League Defensive MVP as a senior at San Bernardino (Calif.) High. He played 6 positions, including defensive line, wide receiver, tailback and placekicker. As a 1992 junior, he had 20 sacks, 15 tackles for losses, 20 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries. He was a 4-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at San Bernardino.

MICAH PHILLIPS

Safety
Sr./Sr.

1995: Phillips, a heady senior who was a co-starter in 1994, will battle Jesse Davis to start at free safety in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "There'll be a real battle between Phillips and Davis to start. Phillips has the experience and has played well in the past."

1994: Phillips started USC's 6 games at free safety as a junior in 1994: the first 5 games (before giving way to Mario Bradley and serving as Bradley's often-used backup the rest of the regular season) and the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech. Overall, Phillips had 38 tackles (2 for losses), 3 deflections, 1 interception (at Penn State, which he returned 27 yards) and 1 forced fumble (versus Washington). He led USC in tackles against Washington (9) and California (7). At Oregon State, he picked up a PAT kick which was blocked by Israel Ifeanyi and raced the length of the field for a rare 2-point defensive extra point.

1993: Phillips spent most of his 1993 sophomore season as the backup strong safety behind Mike Salmon (he came in often in extra defensive back situations) and as a key special teams performer. But Phillips started at strong safety the last 3 games of the season--Washington (for an injured Salmon) and then UCLA and Utah (when Salmon replaced injured free safety Jason Oliver in those contests)--and Phillips showed outstanding potential. Overall in 1993, he made 42 tackles (including 1 for a 1-yard loss), 6 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. He had a big game in his first-ever start, getting 13 stops, 3 pass break-ups and recovering a fumble (which set up a USC field goal) at Washington. He notched 9 tackles the next week against UCLA. He also made 5 tackles against North Carolina and 4 versus Utah (with a deflection and forced fumble).

1992: One of only 4 first-year freshmen to see action in 1992, Phillips was a reserve cornerback who played on special teams. He made 2 tackles in 1992.

HIGH SCHOOL: Phillips was named a Super Prep All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, All-Dallas second team, All-District 10 5A first team, and team defensive MVP in 1991 at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). He had 103 tackles (68 unassisted), 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (including 4 in a game) and 5 fumble recoveries during his 1991 senior season. He led Kimball to a 10-1 record in 1991 and the District 10 5A championship. Kimball posted a 27-5 record during Phillips' final 3 years. A 4-year varsity letterman and 3-year starter, he played cornerback his first 3 seasons before moving to strong safety for his senior year. He picked off 11 interceptions during his 4-year career. Current Trojan Delon Washington also prepped at Kimball.

He collected 97 tackles, 3 sacks and 7 interceptions as a 1990 junior. He lettered 2 years in baseball (centerfield) as well, batting .374 his senior season. A fine student, Phillips was a 3-year All-City Academic selection.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 400 pounds. He's a sociology major at USC.

PHALEN POUNDS

Offensive Guard
6-7, 310
So.*/Jr.

1995: Pounds, a huge sophomore offensive guard who started twice in 1994 before getting hurt, is healthy now and is expected to start at right guard in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pounds is potentially outstanding and showed us last year that he's a solid young player."

1994: As just a redshirt freshman, Pounds--who was switched from offensive tackle to offensive guard in 1994 spring drills--started 2 early-season games (Penn State and Baylor) at right guard in 1994 (he played as Kris Pollack's backup in the Washington opener) before an injury sidelined him. He tore cartilage in his left knee prior to the Oregon game and had arthroscopic surgery which kept him out of the next 5 games (Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, California and Washington State). His only action after returning was as a backup in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech.

1993: Pounds redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1993, his first year at USC. He was sidelined with a left ankle sprain for the Oregon and Oregon State games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pounds made 1992 Super Prep All-Far West, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley second team, and All-Pacific League at Pasadena (Calif.) High. He graded out blocking at 80-90% in 1992 games. He had 61 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 caused fumbles on defense in 1992. He also played basketball and track.

PERSONAL: His uncle, Larry Pounds, lettered in basketball at Washington in 1974 and 1975. Phalen bench presses 385 pounds.

PHALEN POUNDS ON: His size advantage: "In high school, everybody was smaller than me. I just walked onto the field and the other guy would say, 'Wow, he's big,' and he wouldn't come after me...In college, the man you're facing is just as fast and just as strong as you are. You can't just rely on your size. A lot of it is mental. It might be easy to dominate a guy if you get your hands inside, but it's easy to think about other things. I'm practicing staying focused."

His early eating habits: "I would eat after practice and then I'd be sitting around home later in the day and I'd find something else to eat. I had to cut out the junk food and start eating 3 solid meals...I'd buy a 5-pound tub of ice cream to make root beer floats and the ice cream might last almost a week or it might last a couple of days. I just loved to eat. Root beer floats were my favorite...I'm in much better shape now (down from 365 pounds as a freshman) and I'm stronger. It's a combination of staying away from the refrigerator, eating a healthier diet, working out more and weight training."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "Phalen is an athlete. For a big guy, he has very easy body movement. And he is very prideful in his work...If he can't play, we can always use him for shade."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "I'll run behind him anytime. He's like a big ol' eclipse. I just have to stand there and he opens it up. All he has to do is make somebody think he's coming and there's going to be a hole."

USC offensive tackle Norberto Garrido: "He's got good feet and he's fast. The coaches didn't think he was fast enough to pull, but he's doing great."

DAVID PRATCHARD

Offensive Guard
6-5, 265
Fr.*/So.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pratchard had an excellent spring practice. He's one of our toughest players and is working to become stronger. He'll gain some experience this year and be a contender for a starting position next year."

1994: Pratchard redshirted as an offensive guard in 1994, his first year at USC. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee to remove torn cartilage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pratchard's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Foothill League first team as a senior at Canyon High in Canyon Country (Calif.). As a 1992 junior, he made Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-Santa Clarita first team and All-Golden League first team. He also played basketball and track (discus and shot put) at Canyon. Current Trojan Mark Manskar also prepped at Canyon.

KYLE RAMSAY

Offensive Tackle-
Offensive Guard
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: Ramsay, a senior with 4 career starts, will compete with 2 players for a starting job on the offensive line in 1995: with John Michels at left tackle to replace 2-time All-American and 1995 NFL first rounder Tony Boselli and with Chris Brymer at left guard.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ramsay is experienced and has done a good job for us. He'll compete for playing time with Michels and Brymer."

1994: As a junior, Ramsay spent most of the year as the backup to Pollack at right offensive guard, but he did start against Oregon (he played the entire contest). He also appeared in 9 other games (at guard against Baylor, Oregon State, California, Arizona and Texas Tech, and on special teams against Stanford, Washington State, UCLA and Notre Dame).

1993: Ramsay spent most of his 1993 sophomore year as the No. 2 right offensive guard behind Pollack, but he started 3 games when injuries hit the offensive line: at Penn State for Joel Crisman at left guard and then for Pollack at right guard for the Washington State and Arizona contests. Ramsay also appeared in 9 of USC's other 10 games (all but the North Carolina opener) briefly on the line and on special teams.

1992: As just a redshirt freshman in 1992, Ramsay was the No. 2 center behind Craig Gibson (he also was available to play offensive guard or tackle). He saw some playing time on the line and on special teams in 1992.

1991: Ramsay redshirted as a center in 1991, his first year at USC. By the end of the season, he had advanced to the No. 2 center behind Gibson (but Kyle never saw any action). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left ankle.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Max Emfinger All-American first team selection from McKay High in Salem (Ore.), Ramsay was a key figure in McKay's offensive scheme. In one game as a senior, the McKay offense ran 12 consecutive rushing plays behind Ramsay to score the game-winning touchdown. While at McKay, Ramsay was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and Northwest Nugget and All-State.

He also played basketball at McKay. An excellent student (he maintained a 4.0 GPA in high school), he received an Academic Letter Award, was a member of the National Honor Society and was named Who's Who for outstanding academic achievement.

PERSONAL: He's a planning and development major at USC. He bench presses 325 pounds. His older brother, Kian, played on the Trojan offensive line from 1988-91 (a pinched neck nerve ended his career).

JUNIOR RICKMAN

Defensive End
So.*/Jr.

1995: Rickman, a sophomore who started once in 1994 but then injured his knee and had surgery, likely will serve as a backup to Israel Ifeanyi at a defensive end spot in 1995. He'll also be a key special teamer. He was slowed for most of 1995 spring practice while recovering from that surgery (he also had his appendix removed).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rickman has rehabilitated well from his 1994 injury and is ready to establish himself now. If he comes back physically and mentally ready, he'll play a lot this year at end, as well as being a key factor on special teams."

1994: As a redshirt freshman outside linebacker, Rickman appeared in USC's first 6 games of 1994 before tearing ligaments in his left knee at Stanford and having season-ending surgery. He started at Penn State and spent the rest of the time backing up Brian Williams. Rickman played solely on special teams against Baylor, Oregon, Oregon State and Stanford. Overall, he had 2 tackles and 1 deflection in 1994. He was converted in 1994 spring practice from safety to outside linebacker, but missed most of those drills because of an ankle sprain.

1993: Rickman redshirted as a safety in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rickman made the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, All-Arizona first team, Arizona Daily Star Class 5A All-Southern Arizona first team, Tucson Citizen All-Tucson first team, and All-City first team at Canyon Del Oro High in Tucson (Ariz.). He caught a school-record 47 passes for 667 yards (14.2 avg.) and 3 TDs (including a 90-yarder) as a wide receiver, plus made 35 tackles and 4 interceptions as a defensive back in 1992. He also kicked a school-record 7-of-10 field goals (3 in one game for a school record) in 1992, with a school-record 48-yarder, and was 30-of-39 on PAT kicks. He set the school record for receptions in a career (78). In all, he set 8 school marks.

In 1991, he was All-City 5A second team. He had 25 catches for 378 yards (15.1 avg.) and 2 TDs in 1991, plus 33 tackles. His team was 8-3 in 1991.

He averaged 13.3 yards on 6 catches in 1990. He also played basketball (he was an All-League first team pick) and baseball.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Kim. He bench presses 350 pounds.

DARRELL RUSSELL

Defensive Tackle
6-4, 320
So./So.

1995: Here's a young Trojan with a tremendous future. Just a sophomore, Russell returns to the starting lineup for his second season in 1995 as a defensive tackle.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Russell will be the most improved player on our team. He's headed for greatness."

1994: As a first-year freshman, Russell started USC's last 6 games of 1994 at defensive end and served as the often-used backup to Marcus Bonds and Elic Mahone before that. Overall in 1994, Russell made 26 tackles, including 3 for losses of 12 yards (with 2 sacks). He had 5 stops against Washington State and Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: Russell made the 1993 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA, Super Prep All-American and Blue Chip All-American first teams, as well as Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade Circle of Champions California MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, and All-CIF San Diego Section Defensive MVP as a senior at St. Augustine High in San Diego (Calif.). He had 62 tackles, 15 sacks and 4 fumble recoveries in 1993. St. Augustine was 10-3 in 1994 and the San Diego Division III runnerup.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-CIF San Diego Section second team, San Diego Union-Tribune All-San Diego County second team, and All-Harbor League first team while posting 111 tackles (82 solo), including 18 for losses, plus 12 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 blocked PATs. He also made All-League in both basketball (averaging 19.4 points and 8.6 rebounds) and track.

PERSONAL: He can bench press 400 pounds. He was born in Pensacola, Fla. His sports hero is Reggie White.

DARRELL RUSSELL ON: His goal: "We are playing to win. We are not playing just to be here. We want to win a national championship. There's no coming on for the ride. Come on to contribute."

High school versus college football: "I can actually go full power now. Usually, with people being smaller in high school, I couldn't go my hardest. Now I can. It's good to be able to measure my skills, see what I can and can't do, and know what I have to work on."

His personality: "I do things with a smile on my face. I'm happy. I don't go on the field like I'm going to rip your face off, or remove your feet and put them on my key chain...I just get the job done. Same thing in school. I do my paper, I take care of business, but I have fun doing it."

Football versus basketball: "Basketball was my favorite sport. I played football just for recreation...I never thought I would play college football. I never thought I was good enough. I always figured that I would play basketball if anything...One reason I didn't think I'd play college football is because I thought those guys were so big. My friends would say, 'Darrell, look at you.' Sure enough, when I got on the field, those guys weren't so big."

Why he chose USC: "I came because I watched UCLA run up the middle of USC in 1993 and I said, 'Hey, this team needs somebody to stop that.'...USC's coaches had goals. They didn't just say that they wanted to win. They said they were going to win. They said that they were going to the Rose Bowl and that they were going to win a national championship."

His huge legs (his thighs are 30-plus inches): "Big legs run in the family...I need to buy a 48- or 50-inch waist (his waist is 38 to 42 inches) just to get pants with legs big enough. I look for pleated pants and shorts."

His childhood: "I was the chubby little kid that nobody wanted to play with. I had to amuse myself. I'd sit at home and build the biggest Lego project you can imagine."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Darrell is probably the most athletic big man I've ever worked with. Whenever he's on the field, he makes an obvious impact."

USC offfensive line coach Doug Smith (formerly the defensive line coach): "He's a competitor. He's big, he's strong, and he doesn't get knocked off of his feet."

USC defensive tackle Anthony Sanford: "He's big, but he's so swift. An offensive person will think that Darrell would just want to run into him, but he'll run right around him. He's got finesse in his game. It's great to be around a player like that."

Mark Whicker, Orange County Register: "He is USC's Magic Mountain, smiling as he mounts the Coliseum peristyle with a hamburger in one hand and a quarterback in the other...Athletically, Russell is a next-dimension talent who relentlessly ran high school ballcarriers down. What were they going to do, run at him?"

ANTHONY SANFORD

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 285
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Sanford, a junior who redshirted as a junior college transfer in 1994, is listed as the backup to Stuart Gage at the starting middle defensive tackle job (nose tackle) in 1995. But expect him to see the field a lot.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Sanford has the size and physicalness necessary to clog up the middle. He will battle for playing time in 1995."

1994: Sanford redshirted as a junior nose tackle in 1994, his first year at USC after transferring from Pasadena Community College.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Sanford was a 1993 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV honorable mention and All-Mission Conference Northern Division pick as a senior at Pasadena (Calif.) Community College. He made All-Mission Conference as a 1991 freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Compton (Calif.) High, earning 1991 All-State and All-Moore League honors. He once had 7 sacks in a game.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He can bench press 400 pounds. His sports hero is Reggie White.

ANTHONY SANFORD ON: Redshirting in 1994: "All I could do was practice as hard as I could practice so the coaches would notice me and see that I'll never be in that situation anymore for the rest of my career."

RODNEY SERMONS

Running Back
6-0, 175
So./So.

1995: Sermons, who saw lots of action in 1994, is an up-and-coming sophomore backup running back on the verge of making a big impact at USC in 1995. He figures to play a lot this season. He missed part of 1995 spring practice because of a strained right hamstring and because he had the chicken pox. He might also return kickoffs in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Sermons had a really solid freshman year and matured dramatically over the season. He's now bigger and more physical, and that goes well with his excellent speed and outstanding competitiveness. He's an acceleration runner. He can see a hole and, zoom, go through it."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Sermons served as a backup tailback behind Shawn Walters and was USC's third-leading rusher in 1994 with 259 yards and 3 TDs on 78 carries (3.2 avg.). He also caught 2 passes for 39 yards (19.5 avg.) with 1 TD. He appeared in 8 games (all but the Washington, Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame contests). Sermons led USC in rushing at Oregon State with 74 yards (and a 1-yard TD) on 23 carries, along with a 31-yard TD reception. He also had 39 yards on 12 tries at Washington State, 34 yards on 11 carries against Arizona, and 32 yards on 12 carries against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. His other rushing TDs came against California (2 yards) and Arizona (1 yard).

HIGH SCHOOL: Sermons' 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). In 9 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,050 yards and 19 TDs on 145 carries (7.2 avg.), caught 21 passes for 272 yards (13.0 avg.) and 2 TDs, returned 2 kickoffs for 55 yards (27.5 avg.). Besides playing running back, he started 5 games on defense and had 26 tackles, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery. He was slowed late in the year with a shoulder injury. Bishop Amat went 11-1 in 1993 and at one point was ranked No. 1 in California (and No. 6 in the nation).

As a junior in 1992, Sermons made USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports State Junior MVP, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Offensive MVP. His 1992 stats were 226 carries for 1,475 yards (6.5 avg.) and 24 TDs, plus 25 receptions for 400 yards (16.0 avg.) and 4 scores. Bishop Amat was 15-0 in 1992 and won the CIF Division I title. He was All-Angelus League second team as a 1991 sophomore and had 435 yards on 71 carries (6.4 avg.) along with 29 catches for 447 yards (15.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. Bishop Amat went 9-2 in 1991. He also was on the track (with bests of 10.61 in the 100 meters and 21.70 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Bishop Amat. Current Trojans Scott Fields and Daylon McCutcheon also prepped at Bishop Amat.

RODNEY SERMONS ON: The Bishop Amat connection to USC (14 players from his alma mater have played at USC): "We talked about it a lot in high school. There is a tradition to it. To athletes at Bishop Amat, USC seems like home."

JOHN STONEHOUSE

Punter
Sr./Sr.

1995: Stonehouse, a strong-legged, poised, record-holding senior All-American candidate, has a chance in 1995--his fourth year as a starter--to become the first Trojan punter to win All-American honors. He was ranked as the nation's No. 1 punter by The Sporting News going into 1995. He'll also be the backup holder behind Brad Otton on all placekicks in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Stonehouse simply is one of the best punters in America. He's got a great leg. And his best punts come in the clutch. Whenever we needed a big punt, we got one. He was phenomenal in those situations. He's a big-time punter."

CAREER: Stonehouse owns USC career marks for punts (213) and punt yardage (8,571) for a 40.2 average. In his career, 45 of his 213 punts pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line, only 103 of his boots were returned and 27 traveled 50-plus yards.

1994: As a junior in his third year as USC's punter, Stonehouse averaged 44.1 yards per punt in 1994 (second in Pac-10 and less than .1 behind the leader, eighth in U.S.)--5.5 yards better than his career average coming into the season--on 65 punts, with 16 traveling at least 50 yards and 18 pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line. He earned 1994 All-Pac-10 second team honors. His 44.1-yard mark was the highest at USC since Des Koch set a school-record 44.6 in 1953. At Washington State, Stonehouse averaged 48.3 yards on 8 boots, including a 76-yarder (the longest at USC since Ernie Zampese's school-record 85-yarder in 1956 against Wisconsin and the longest punt in the Pac-10 in 1994), to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He averaged 48.8 yards on 5 punts against Notre Dame, including a 65-yarder, earning USC Player of the Game versus Notre Dame honors, as well as that week's AT&T Long Distance Punt Award.

1993: As a sophomore punting for his second season at USC in 1993, Stonehouse averaged 38.3 yards on his 68 punts (2,607 yards). He had 6 punts of 50-plus yards, including a career-long 67 yarder at Washington (the longest by a Trojan since Ernie Jones' 73-yarder in 1962 and the second-longest in the Pac-10 in 1993). Only 32 of his punts were returned. Thirteen of his boots kept opponents inside their 20-yard line. He averaged 49.4 yards on 5 punts at Washington, including punts of 50, 44 and 67 yards to pin the Huskies deep in their territory in the fourth quarter. For that performance, he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. The following week, he averaged 43.3 against UCLA. He had a 56-yard boot at Arizona. He made 1 tackle in 1993.

1992: One of just 4 first-year freshmen to play in 1992, Stonehouse was USC's punter all season and was named to USA Today's national "Fabulous True Freshmen" first team and Football News' Freshman All-American second team. He averaged 38.7 yards while setting USC season records for most punts (80) and yards punted (3,099). Only 31 of his punts were returned and for just a 3.8 average. Fourteen of his boots pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line. Five of his punts went 50-plus yards, including a 59-yarder against Washington State and a 57-yarder against Fresno State to tie a Freedom Bowl distance record. John also was the backup placekicker behind Cole Ford, but was never called upon in that role.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Loyola High in Los Angeles, Stonehouse made 1991 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the West honorable mention, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, and Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team as a punter. He averaged 43.6 yards on 41 punts in 1991, including 9 of 52-plus yards. He posted a 40-yard career average.

John averaged 42.8 yards as a 1990 junior and once had 3 50-plus yard punts in a game. He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team, and All-Angelus League first team in 1990. He also hit 50-yard field goals in 1990 and 1989. His coach at Loyola was ex-Trojan tailback Steve Grady, while former USC graduate assistant coach Jeff Kearin also was an assistant at Loyola. Current Trojan Eric Rogers also prepped at Loyola.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He bench presses 400 pounds. His brother, Paul, was Stanford's punter from 1989 to 1992. His father attended UCLA and his mother went to USC.

JOHN STONEHOUSE ON: Pressure: "I like punting out of the end zone. It's exciting with all those people rushing in and you don't have much space. It's a lot of pressure, but I kind of like it."

His physical style of play: "I love to get hit. And I love to make tackles. It makes it twice as good when they know it's the punter that just hit them...It adds a little excitement to being a punter...I don't want to be some punter who just kicks and does nothing else. I'm in the weight room working out with the rest of the team. They have more confidence in me when they see me working out with them. That gives me more confidence in myself."

Bad snaps: "I don't mind. It makes it interesting. You have to jump and make a big play."

Coming onto the field: "It is understandable that fans aren't too happy when I come out there. It means the offense could not convert. But fans are learning to apprecite a good punter...(Former USC outside linebacker) Errol Small always told me, 'The defense loves when you punt high and far or hit a good spot. It pumps up the defense.' It's good to know that somebody likes you."

Trying to break Ernie Zampese's USC long punt record (85 yards): "I hadn't thought about it before I kicked that 76-yarder at Washington State (in 1994). That punt definitely opened my eyes to it. It is definitely attainable. Backed up in the end zone, it could happen."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Brother Paul Stonehouse: "John is a better punter than I am. He has great leg drive. He really gets through the ball better than I do and his hang time is fine. I think he has a great chance to play in the NFL."

GREG TELLAM

Defensive End
6-4, 225
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: Tellam will provide solid depth at the defensive end spots as a junior in 1995 and will also be a key special teams player.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tellam is a good player and he has a chance to establish himself for the future. He'll see lots of action on special teams."

1994: As a sophomore in 1994, Tellam was a reserve outside linebacker. He didn't get any action at that position in 1994, but appeared in 11 games (all but the Stanford contest) on special teams. He had 1 tackle in 1994. He made a key "heads-up" play on a surprise pooched kickoff by Arizona late in the second quarter with the Wildcats leading 14-7, as he called a fair catch and the Trojans took over on the USC 47, leading to a TD 7 plays later.

1993: Tellam was a redshirt freshman reserve outside linebacker who did not see any action in 1993.

1992: Tellam redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior middle linebacker in 1991 at Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.), Tellam had 155 tackles, including 71 unassisted tackles and 4 sacks. As a result, he won Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-State first team, All-Sonoran League first team, and team MVP honors. He led the Sabercats to a 7-3 record in 1991.

Greg made 162 tackles as an outside linebacker during his 1990 junior season while leading Sabino to the state 4A title with a 14-0 record and a No. 17 ranking in the final USA Today poll. He collected 19 tackles in the state championship game against Peoria (Ariz.) High. He also had 19 tackles and an interception in the state semifinal game against Glendale (Ariz.) Catcus High. He also lettered in Sabino's track program (shot put). He was involved in the Arizona D.A.R.E. program and spoke at numerous grade schools throughout the Tucson area.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

RYAN TYISKA

Linebacker
6-2, 175
So.*/Jr.

1995: Tyiska, a sophomore, was switched from safety to linebacker in 1995 spring drills and will serve as the backup to Scott Fields in 1995. He'll also be a main contributor on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tyiska is a fast, explosive, instinctive player. He'll be on the field a lot as a linebacker and as a key special teams performer. He has a really good future here."

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve safety and key special teams player, Tyiska appeared in 11 games (all but the Notre Dame contest). All of his action, except against California, came on special teams. He made 2 tackles.

1993: Tyiska redshirted as a safety in 1993, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Tyiska made 1992 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Fresno Bee Player of the Year, and North Yosemite League Defensive MVP at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.). In 1992, he had 8 interceptions, 11 deflections, 4 fumble recoveries and 4 forced fumbles on defense and rushed for 668 yards with 10 TDs out of the Wing T. His team went 13-0 in 1992 and won the CIF Central Section title.

He had 700 yards and 6 TDs rushing (including a 78-yarder) in 1991, plus 3 interceptions. He also played basketball, soccer and track.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His sports hero is ex-USC and current NFL star Ronnie Lott.

ANTHONY VOLSAN

Wide Receiver
So.*/Jr.

1995: Volsan, a sophomore with great wheels, will battle for playing time at a wide receiver spot in 1995 (he's listed as a backup to Larry Parker and Chris Miller). He might also return punts, a duty he performed at times in 1994. He spent most of 1995 spring practice sprinting for the USC track team.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Volsan has great speed and has shown great improvement. He will be an important player for us."

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Volsan was a reserve wide receiver in 1994. He caught 3 passes for 26 yards (8.7 avg.) in 1994. He also was a backup returner on kickoffs and punts, as he ran back 3 kickoffs for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) and 2 punts for 16 yards (8.0 avg.). He appeared in 6 games (Baylor, California, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA and Texas Tech) in 1994.

1993: Volsan redshirted as a wide receiver in 1993, his first year at USC.

TRACK: Volsan sprinted for the USC track team in the springs of 1994 and 1995. In 1995, he had USC's best time in the 100 meters (10.56 while finishing fourth at the Pac-10 meet). He also ran a wind-aided 10.48 while winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual. He placed in the top 4 of all 8 of his 100 meter races in 1995 (including a first in the UNLV Invitational and a second at the Mt. SAC Relays in 10.60). He also ran the 200 meters 3 times in 1995 (finishing in the top 4 each time), including winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual in his season-best of 21.53. Volsan also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team (primarily as the leadoff runner). The quartet won 6 of 9 races, including at the Pac-10 meet in 39.23 and the USC-UCLA dual in 39.55, and placed fourth at the NCAA meet in a season-best 39.10.

In 1994, he posted season bests of 10.54 in the 100 meters and 21.27 in the 200 meters. He was second in the Pac-10 100 meters final in 10.70 (he ran his season-best 10.54 in the Pac-10 100 heats). He finished in the top 3 in 8 of his 10 100 meter races and 2 of his 3 200s. He ran under 10.70 7 times in the 100 and was under 21.60 in all 3 200 races. He also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Volsan was named to the 1992 Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, All-District, Central California Conference Player of the Year, and team MVP at Merced (Calif.) High. He had 1,506 yards on 167 carries (9.0 avg.) with 18 TDs rushing in 1992, plus 25 catches for 442 yards (17.7 avg.) and 2 TDs receiving. He also returned 2 punts for TDs. He had 2,630 total yards in 1992. On defense, he had an interception. In 2 games in 1992 against archrival Atwater High, he scored on Merced's first play from scrimmage (on a 57-yard pass and a 76-yard run). Against Vallejo High, he had 212 yards and 3 TDs, then added 199 yards and 2 scores against Lincoln High. Set school career records with 3,370 rushing yards and 42 rushing TDs.

In 1991, he was All-District and All-Central California Conference first team. He was the Sac-Joaquin Section Sophomore of the Year in 1990. His team was 30-11 in his 3 years (winning the league title each season), including 14-0 in 1990 (winning the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I title and being ranked No. 1 in the state) and 10-4 in 1992 (advancing to the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I championship game).

He also was a highly-regarded sprinter on the track team, with a best of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 20.8 in the 200 meters. He was named to the 1993 USA Today All-USA Boys Track and Field Team. He was third in the California state 100 and 200 in both 1992 (10.5, 21.16) and 1993 (10.52, 21.55). Merced's track team was the state co-champ in 1993.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ

Quarterback
Sr.*/Sr.

1995: After a year's layoff due to academic ineligibility, Wachholtz returns in 1995 to compete with Brad Otton for the starting quarterback job vacated by Rob Johnson. Wachholtz certainly has the credentials: he's a big, strong, rifle-armed senior with proven ability.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It's nice to have Wachholtz back and able to play. He has outstanding potential and is game-tested. He's a big, tough kid. In fact, if he broke his right hand and couldn't pass the ball anymore, we'd put him at safety or linebacker or tight end and he'd play. People don't mess with him much on the field. He and Otton are equally-talented and should wage a real battle for the quarterback job."

1994: Wachholtz missed the 1994 regular season while academically ineligible (but he was still allowed to practice and served as the scout team quarterback). He regained his junior-year eligibility prior to the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech, but did not play in that game.

1993: As a sophomore, Wachholtz was the backup quarterback behind Johnson in 1993. Wachholtz played briefly in 6 games in 1993, completing 17-of-25 passes (68.0%) for 184 yards, 2 TDs and no interceptions. He also gained 11 yards on 2 rushes (5.5 avg.). He played all of the fourth quarter in USC's 34-9 win over Oregon State, hitting 7-of-9 aerials for 110 yards with a 13-yard TD. In his other appearances, he was 2-of-5 for 13 yards versus Houston, 3-of-4 for 21 yards versus Washington State, 4-of-5 for 32 yards and 1 TD at Arizona (an 11-yarder, USC's only score in the game) and 1-of-2 for 8 yards against Stanford. He got in at the end of the Notre Dame contest, but did not throw a pass.

1992: As a redshirt freshman in 1992, Wachholtz was a backup quarterback (with Reggie Perry) behind Johnson. Although he appeared in only 3 games, he was very impressive in those outings. In a pressure-filled game at Washington, Kyle got his first action as a Trojan midway through the fourth quarter with USC trailing just 17-10. He drove a stalled USC offense to the Husky 28 before his pass was picked off in the endzone with 1:32 to play. He was 3-of-6 in that game for 31 yards. Against California, he guided USC on its decisive scoring drives (USC overcame an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to win, 27-24). He was 3-of-4 for 23 yards against the Bears. In both the Washington and California games, he replaced Perry, who had stepped in for an injured Johnson. Wachholtz also appeared versus Oregon, but didn't throw a pass. Overall, Wachholtz was 6-of-10 (60.0%) for 54 yards with 1 interception. He tore a stomach muscle in practice prior to the Stanford game and missed that contest.

1991: Wachholtz redshirted as a quarterback in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wachholtz completed 116-of-198 (58.6%) passes for 1,868 yards and 20 TDs as a senior at Norco High in Corona (Calif.) and was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division V first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County and Mountain View League Offensive MVP. He led Norco to a 12-2 record, the Mountain View League championship and an appearance in the CIF Division V championship game.

As a junior in 1989, Kyle completed 93-of-203 (45.8%) passes for 1,418 yards and 11 TDs and led Norco to a 12-1 record and the CIF Division V semifinals. He was 33-of-68 (48.5%) passing for 581 yards and 5 TDs as a 1988 sophomore.

He also lettered 2 years in baseball (he made the All-Mountain View League team as a senior and was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays) and basketball (he was named to the Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County second team as a senior) at Norco.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His uncle, Larry Wachholtz, was an All-American defensive back at Nebraska in 1966.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ ON: Entering the 1995 season as a co-starter with Brad Otton: "I'm loving it out there. This is where the wait and hanging in there pays off...I've been here 5 years. I think I deserve a chance to win the job. But I'm going to have to earn it, I know that. We're going to have a great team this year and I want to be a big part of it. Another year on the bench would be kind of hard, but I'd live with it...Brad and I don't really discuss the situation. We're both team players. If I have to be a backup, hold on kicks, whatever, I'll do what it takes to help the team win...Still, playing this year means everything to me. I've been here it seems like forever. I haven't played or competed in a long time. You want to make people wrong."

Comparisons between Otton and himself: "We're both tall, but that's about it."

Changing his mind about transferring in 1994: "I don't think I ever really left USC. I just got a release and talked to other schools...The USC coaches told me I could always stay here. I didn't feel like I couldn't come back. I think this will work out okay for me."

His ability: "My natural ability helps me a lot, but I need to work on the mental part. I realize that knowing the game is 90 percent of it. In high school, it was always easy, just drop back and throw, not much reading of defenses. In some ways, I feel like a freshman again. It's not that I've forgotten stuff, but I definitely need to improve. Still, I think I've proven myself through the years and I've helped the team in the past.

His physical style of play: "You've got to be smart about who you turn it up the field on. But linebackers, I'll take them on."

His personality: "I'm outgoing. I like to have a good time. You only live once and I want to do a lot in my life. I want to have a good time."

Why he shadowed offensive coordinator Mike Riley on the sidelines in the past: "I wanted to know the play he was calling. I wanted to know what was going on. I wanted to see the defense and guess where Rob (Johnson) was going to throw the ball. I simulated what I would do if I were the starter...I even suggested plays and Coach Riley even used some of them. It showed they have confidence in me."

His first action as a Trojan (at Washington in 1992): "I was nervous when they told me I'd go in because I didn't expect it. But once I got going, I really felt like we were going to go in and score...After that, I had confidence that I could play college football. You wonder if you can play at this level coming out of high school...My parents were watching the (1992) Washington game live on TV. All of a sudden, there I was in the shotgun. My mom jumped up over the table to get to the VCR. They hadn't been taping the game to that point. She tried to turn it on, but the picture got all fuzzy and snowy. While she was trying to get it to work right, they missed my first pass (a 25-yard completion to Curtis Conway). They had to tape the game later when it was replayed."

His first year at USC, 1991: "I was lost. I had no idea. All this was new to me...It was frustrating. When I was a true freshman, I couldn't even walk up to the line and make any calls. I was afraid to make a mistake. I had no self-confidence...It was hard. Two quarterbacks were ahead of me, so it was a longshot that I'd get a chance to play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "Kyle's kind of a 'loose-as-a-goose' guy. He just naturally makes things happen when he plays football."

SHAWN WALTERS

Running Back
6-0, 225
Jr.*/Sr.

1995: USC's top rusher the past 2 seasons while starting, Walters--a bruising yet fast junior--returns in 1995 to headline a deep Trojan running backs corps. He has a chance to emerge as one of the top runners in college football and to move up high on USC's prestigious career rushing chart.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Walters has become an outstanding physical runner. He can attack, break tackles and make the consistent gain as well as any back. Although I see him as a power runner--an up-the-field, break-tackles runner--he's an excellent breakaway back. And he's just a junior, but he has lots of experience."

CAREER: With 1,687 career rushing yards on 349 carries (4.8 avg) with 18 TDs, Walters stands 18th on USC's all-time rushing list.

1994: Walters looked like an old-time Trojan tailback at times in 1994 as he led USC in rushing for the second year in a row. As a sophomore, he started for his second season in 1994 and ran for 976 yards on 193 carries (5.1 avg.) with a team-best 11 TDs. That put him 22nd on USC's single season rushing chart and was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Mazio Royster had 1,168 in 1990. His 11 rushing TDs were the most by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had 22 in 1981 in his Heisman Trophy season. He also caught 8 passes for 40 yards (5.0 avg.) in 1994, including 4 versus Oregon. Walters--a 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection--was fourth in the Pac-10 in rushing (88.7) and fifth in scoring (6.2).

At Stanford, Walters rushed for a career-high 234 yards and 2 TDs (4 and 61 yards) on 31 carries, the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had 243 in 1981 against California and the most any runner had against Stanford since UCLA's Freeman McNeil had 248 in 1980. It was Walters' second 200-yard performance of 1994, the first time a Trojan did that since Allen had an NCAA-record 8 in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign. Shawn's 61-yard TD which proved to be the decisive score at Stanford was the longest run by a Trojan since Deon Strother went 92 yards at Cal in 1991. Against Baylor, he ran for 207 yards--tops in the nation that week--on 31 carries with 3 TDs of 39, 1 and 7 yards (he surpassed his career-high by halftime as he had 127 yards). That was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen's 219 versus UCLA in 1981 and the most carries at USC since Mazio Royster had 32 against Michigan State in 1990. It was Walters' first 3-TD outing. For his performance, he was named Sports Illustrated national Offensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week. Walters also ran for 91 yards and a pair of second-half touchdowns (7 and 3 yards) on 26 carries against Washington in the opener, and then added 34 yards on 13 carries at Penn State. He had 78 yards on 17 carries against Oregon, plus 4 catches for 29 yards. The following week at Oregon State, despite playing with a stomach virus, he ran for 68 yards on 16 tries. Walters had a game-best 76 yards with 2 scores (9 and 2 yards) on 15 rushes against California while playing just over 2 quarters before the reserves came in. Against the nation's top rushing defense at Washington State, he had a game-best 62 yards on 18 rushes. He did not play against Arizona because of a sprained and cracked right thumb suffered in that Washington State contest and the next week he only carried the ball 3 times (for 2 yards) at UCLA. Although he didn't start against Notre Dame, he had 42 rushing yards (with a 1-yard TD) on 9 carries. He had a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl in his Dallas hometown and scored the game's first TD on an 11-yard run.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Walters was an often-used backup tailback the first half of 1993, but emerged as the starter by midseason and started the last 7 contests (Oregon State, Notre Dame, California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA, Utah). He was USC's leading rusher with 711 yards on 156 carries (4.6 avg.) and 7 TDs. He also caught 15 passes for 107 yards (7.1 avg.) with 1 TD. He was the only Trojan to rush for 100 yards in a game in 1993, getting 116 yards on 25 carries at Washington (with a 7-yard TD run). His 54-yard TD burst against Houston was the longest run by a Trojan in 1993 (he also had a 3-yard scoring run against the Cougars). He topped the Trojans in rushing in 11 games (besides the Washington game, he had 82 versus Houston, 53 against Washington State, 52 at Arizona, 67 at Oregon, 84 versus Oregon State, 58 at Notre Dame, 40 at California with scoring runs of 1 and 2 yards, 60 versus Stanford with a 2-yard TD run, 29 versus UCLA with a 1-yard TD run and 70 against Utah). He caught 5 passes for 47 yards at California and grabbed a 2-yard scoring pass at Washington.

1992: Walters redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: After leading Lamar High in Arlington (Tex.) to a 12-1 record and the regional semifinals in 1991, Walters was named Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team, and All-Tarrant County Offensive Player of the Year. He rushed for 2,091 yards on 314 carries (6.7 avg.) and 30 TDs. He set school career marks with 4,285 yards and 59 TDs, and a school game mark of 293 rushing yards.

Shawn was the Texas state rushing leader as a 1990 junior with 2,264 yards (6.9 avg.) and 32 TDs as his team was the Class 5A runnerup. In 1990, he was USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-State, All-District, and Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team. Lamar was 26-2 in 2 years with Walters at running back.

PERSONAL: He was born in Pine Bluff, Ark. He's a public policy and management major at USC. He bench presses 315 pounds. He likes to write poetry in his spare time. He is nicknamed "Baby Earl" because of his resemblance to ex-Texas Heisman Trophy winner and NFL star Earl Campbell.

SHAWN WALTERS ON: His ability: "The coaches want me to have more confidence in myself. Sometimes I'm kind of skeptical about myself. I want to help the team as much as possible, and when I think about that, I get nervous. Coach (Charles) White is a very intense guy and he's helped me a lot. He always says to die hard. He wants me to square up and run right at people. But I also have to know when to elude people to get more yardage...My theme is 'Dying hard.' To me, that means I don't want just one guy to bring me down. Be a physical player out there. It's just something personal I felt I had to work on...My attitude is such that if I miss a block in practice, I feel terrible. I want to do everything right. I'm a perfectionist. Others might tell me that I made a great move and ran a play well, but I'll always see something I could have done better. I'm my own worst critic...I'm learning how to be a runner here. In high school, I could get through the line easier because I was bigger and stronger than a lot of the other guys. I was faster than most people, so I just ran past them. But it didn't work when I tried it here. Now I'm using everything out there. If I have to run over someone, I will. But if I can outrun them, I can still do that, too...I feel I have something to prove. Everybody has kind of written off the USC tailback."

The competition at running back: "We have a lot of good running backs around here, but that just makes me more determined than ever. As a returning starter, I feel I should take responsibility for the position. These guys are like my brothers. If I'm the one in the game and something goes wrong, I feel like I let my family down."

Writing poetry: "The first time I ever wrote poetry was for a school assignment in the ninth grade. But I really got into it as a junior in high school when one of my English teachers told me that she thought I was talented. I write poetry for my friends and family. In high school, I would write poetry for my friends who were having trouble with their girlfriends. They would give them the poems and everything would be all right. The girls never knew I was the one who actually wrote the poetry...Whenever I feel like escaping from everything, I put my thoughts down into poetry. As I write, I'm not thinking about anything by what I'm writing. I clear everything else out of my mind and concentrate on each word. I ask myself, 'What do I want to say? How do I want to say it? What's the meaning behind it?' When I'm done writing, I can focus on school, football and everything else, and things seem to get better."

Why he chose USC: "Everyone in Texas dreams of playing for the Southwest Conference schools. But I wanted to see something different. My mom and dad were behind me. They made it clear it was my decision. In choosing USC, I looked at the business school. And the tradition for running the ball."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "When he gets going, he's pretty fast. He doesn't get caught from behind very much. And I don't see too many guys wanting to step in front of him."

USC running back Delon Washington: "The only thing he doesn't have is the cuts like a slashing tailback. He's an Earl Campbell-type of back. He's not scared to run you over. Right now, he's the best man. I'm the underdog. He's wonderdog."

Baylor head coach Chuck Reedy (Walters rushed for 207 yards versus Baylor in 1994): "I had no idea Walters was that caliber of a player."

DELON WASHINGTON

Running Back
5-11, 190
So./So.

1995: Trojan fans can't wait to see Washington run for a full season. Limited to just 3 games in 1994 because of eligibility questions, the shifty sophomore running back figures to play a prominent role in 1995. He might also return kickoffs in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Although Washington had limited opportunities last year, he established that he has potential greatness. His vision and balance are at the highest level. He's just one of those natural backs who constantly does things on the field that you can't explain. He moves from here to there in a way that, even though you watched him do it, you don't know how he did it. He's very special, and that goes for the way he is off the field, too."

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Washington had an impressive start to his Trojan career. In the Washington opener (his first game at USC), the elusive tailback had a team-best 109 yards on 10 carries, including runs of 34 and 33 yards. He became the first USC true freshman ever to run for 100-plus yards in a season opener and only the fourth Trojan true frosh to eclipse 100 rushing yards in a game (Ryan Knight did it twice in 1984, Michael Harper once in 1979 and Charles White 4 times in 1976). Washington also was USC's leading rusher at Penn State, getting 44 yards and a 5-yard TD on 9 carries. Prior to the Baylor game, USC decided to withhold him from competition while questions regarding his eligibility, which was certified by the NCAA Clearinghouse, were being resolved (they were cleared up prior to the Notre Dame game, but he didn't play against the Irish). He played against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl in his Dallas hometown, getting 6 carries for 17 yards and 3 receptions for no yards before spraining his elbow. Overall in 1994, Washington had 170 yards on 25 carries (a team-best 6.8 avg.) with 1 TD, plus those 3 catches for no yardage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Washington was a member of the 1993 USA Today All-USA, Super Prep All-American and Blue Chip All-American first teams, plus Super Prep All-Texas as a senior at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). In 11 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,579 yards and 15 TDs on 230 carries (6.9 avg.) and caught 11 passes for 278 yards (25.3 avg.) and 3 scores.

As a junior in 1992, he was All State honorable mention, All-District and All-Metro while running for 1,876 yards (10.5 avg.) and 29 TDs. He had 1,886 rushing yards and 17 TDs as a 1991 sophomore. He also ran track at Kimball, with bests of 10.33 in the 100 meters and 21.82 in the 200 meters. Current Trojan Micah Phillips also prepped at Kimball.

PERSONAL: Football stars Jessie Armstead (ex-Miami) and Mercury Hayes (currently at Michigan) are his cousins. Delon had promised his older brother, Benny, that he would go to USC and, in fact, signed with Troy 15 minutes after learning of his brother's death in a random drive-by shooting on Jan. 27, 1994.

DELON WASHINGTON ON: His abbreviated 1994 football season: "The biggest question, perhaps, was, 'Why me?' I just had to let it go and keep on living. I know there are going to be better times...I felt like I let a lot of people down because I only played in those 2 games. I think I would have had a good season. I'm just thankful that it's over with...I've got a lot to make up for, for the season I missed."

His deceased brother, Benny: "Benny's death has been very hard, but it really committed me. He was my main motivator...When Benny died, it was like a piece of me died, too...I thought it was the end of the world. It felt like a dream. And I just had to sit there and accept the fact he was gone...I can't understand his death. I get real mad when I think about it. How could someone do that? I'll never understand how someone could do something like that...You couldn't ask for a better brother. He was like an angel down here on earth...I think about him each and every day. It was his dream for me to play football, so he's inside of me...It was like I was his image or something. He was only 5-5, so he didn't have the size to get a college scholarship. I have more size than he did and I think he saw himself in me at times...Everything I do in a game, I do for him. Each carry, I picture him in the crowd. I hear him talking to me all day...I'd hear him yelling, 'You have to be faster than that. Faster.' He told me that I could go to college and go to the NFL. But I had to give everything I had...Everything I do great or good or better, my brother's up there saying, 'He's doing it! He's doing it!'...I haven't forgotten anything he taught me. He's with me every day, every step I take. Every day I woke up, he was there for me. I don't have him now, but I picture him walking with me to school, walking with me to class. I can hear him in my heart and right now he's as happy as he can be...Benny had lots of dreams for me and made predictions that came true. He also said I'd win the Heisman, get a degree, play in the NFL. It's up to me to accomplish those things."

His setbacks in 1994: "My mom (Delores) has always told me, 'God puts obstacles in front of you to see if you can overcome them.' So that what I kept telling myself. I knew I was strong. I could deal with whatever He gave me...I've been through a lot in my life. A lot of people might have given up in the same situation. But when I talke to my mother, she tells me to just hang in there...I feel stronger, but I feel tired."

Why he chose USC: "I know this was the school my brother wanted me to go to. He thought it would be the best place for me. He didn't push me. He wanted me to make my own choice. When he got shot, I guess I just knew what to do...Benny really like John Robinson. And he liked all those Heismans they have here."

Being coached by Charles White: "He's been through it and knows firsthand what it takes to win a Heisman. I think it's a privilege to have someone like that coach you."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Charles White: "Delon has an ability to glide. When he runs, it looks as if everyone else is cautiously picking his way across ice and he's the only one on skates."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "Delon has a lot to prove. His season was taken away from him. He's going to be dangerous. He has something to prove to the school, to the team, to himself. I've got to put a star by his name."

LaVALE WOODS

Running Back
5-7, 190
So.*/Jr.

1995: A small, tough and quick sophomore, Woods adds quality depth to USC's running backs corps in 1995. Expect to see him often in the backfield and on special teams in 1995.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Although injuries have set him back so far at USC, he keeps fighting through them and has shown great promise, especially this past spring. That promise is becoming a reality, too, because he is as competitive as any of our backs. He may be short, but he's very powerful and quick. He has the stuff to be a good running back. He's a leader by example and a very valuable member of our team. He'll play a lot this year as a running back and special teams performer."

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Woods was a reserve tailback in 1994 who spent the last part of the season as a fullback. He appeared in 8 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Penn State, Baylor and Oregon contests) and gained 85 yards on 15 carries (5.7 avg.) overall, plus had 1 catch for 7 yards. He had 71 yards on 8 carries against California. He also played on special teams, getting 2 tackles. He missed 1994 spring practice while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip in his right knee which occurred while he was practicing long jumping for the Trojan track team (the injury even slowed him during the early part of the 1994 football season).

1993: Woods redshirted as a tailback in 1993, his first year at USC. He was looking good in 1993 pre-season fall practice, but then suffered a deep sprain of his left ankle which sidelined him all year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Woods made 1992 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention and Super Prep All-Far West at Dobson High in Mesa (Ariz.). He rushed for 1,300 yards and had 400 receiving yards in 1992, along with scoring 20 TDs.

He was named to the 1991 All-State honorable mention, All-East Valley first team, and All-Conference first team. In 1991, he rushed for 800-plus yards in 7 games (he missed 3 games with bronchitis). He also ran track.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC.

LaVALE WOODS ON: His injuries: "The track injury was a fluke and it was stupid on my part. I went out for track to do some running and get faster, but I'm so competitive that I didn't want to come in last in the 100. So, I figured in the long jump, at least I'd have a chance to do something...The injuries were tough to deal with. I kept costing the school money, that's how I looked at it. I've already used up my whole scholarship with all they've spent on me in rehab. After I got hurt the second time, I wanted to go home. I just tried to keep my head up and stay positive. I did my rehab before and after practice so I'd be out there on the field, learning from the others while watching. A lot of guys talked to me and helped me keep my head in it."

(25) MIKE BASTIANELLI -- Wide Receiver, 6-1, 185, Fr./Fr.

His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-Western, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro MVP as an option quarterback, wide receiver, strong safety, placekicker and punter for De La Salle High in Concord (Calif.). He completed 54% of his passes for 876 yards and 13 TDs in 1994 as a senior, plus ran for 938 yards (9.6 avg.) with 20 TDs. He averaged 40 yards per punt. He set a state record with 162 career PAT kicks. De La Salle went 13-0 in 1994, was the state champ and was picked by ESPN as the nation's No. 1 team.

As a 1993 junior, he passed for 1,135 yards and 14 TDs, ran for 861 yards and 17 scores, and even kicked a 48-yard field goal. He was named to the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first teams. De La Salle never lost (39-0) in his 3-year career, winning 3 North Coast Section 3A titles. He also played soccer as a prep.

(8) RASHARD COOK -- Safety, 6-0, 190, Fr./Fr.

He was named a 1994 Blue Chip All-American, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League pick as a senior safety and quarterback at Morse High in San Diego (Calif.). He made 86 tackles, 5 interceptions, 8 defelctions, 3 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery in 1994. In the option offense, he ran for 823 yards and 8 TDs and passed for 874 yards with 9 TDs in 1994.

As a 1993 junior, he ran for 809 yards with 5 TDs and passed for 726 yards with 7 TDs on offense, while on defense he had 107 tackles, 5 interceptions, 11 deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries (he also returned a punt for a TD). His junior season honors included 1993 All-CIF San Diego Section and All-Eastern League. He added 45 tackles, 6 picks, 10 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League honors on a 14-0 Morse team. He was a 3-year starter at safety and had 16 interceptions. Morse won the CIF San Diego Section Division I title in 1992 and 1994.

Also a fine student, he was a 1994 National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame San Diego Scholar-Athlete and was on the 1993 and 1994 San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic team. He also was on Morse's basketball (he averaged 10 points) and track (with bests of 23 feet in the long jump, 45 feet in the triple jump and 6-4 in the high jump) teams.

"Rashard is very strong and quick and is an extremely tough, hard-hitting player," said Morse coach John Shacklett.

A starting wide receiver and safety as a sophomore on a 15-0 Bishop Amat team which won the CIF Division I crown, he was named to the 1992 All-CIF Division I first team as he caught 29 passes for 690 yards (23.8 avg.) with 5 TDs and intercepted 2 aerials. In his 3 years as a starter (Bishop Amat went 49-2), he had a school-record 15 interceptions (6 of which he ran back for TDs).

He also was a sprinter on Bishop Amat's track team. Current Trojans Scott Fields and Rodney Sermons also prepped at Bishop Amat.

His father, Lawrence, was an All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he has been a scout with the Rams since 1982).

"We've had many great football players at Bishop Amat and Daylon is one of the best ever," said Bishop Amat coach Tom Salter.

(11) BILLY MILLER -- Wide Receiver, 6-3, 210, Fr./Fr.

He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III first team Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura first team MVP, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Marmonte League MVP as a senior at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.). He caught 69 passes for 1,087 yards (15.8 avg.) and 14 TDs. Westlake went 10-2.

As a 1993 junior, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley and All-Marmonte League (where he was Offensive MVP) first teams. He had 85 receptions for 1,465 yards (17.2 avg.) with 13 TDs in 1993.

As a 1992 sophomore, he made the All-Marmonte League first team with 33 catches for 465 yards (14.1 avg.) with 7 TDs. He also played cornerback. In his career, he had 187 catches for 3,017 yards (16.1 avg.) with 34 TDs (the yardage and TDs rank third on the CIF career charts).

He also was a 3-year starter for Westlake's basketball team (he averaged 15 points in 1995), earning 1995 Los Angeles Times All-Ventura and All-Marmonte League first team and 1994 Student Sports All-Grid-Hoop third team honors.

(39) MARVIN POWELL III -- Safety, 6-2, 200, Fr./Fr.

His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-L.A. City 3-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as a senior linebacker and fullback at Birmingham High in Van Nuys (Calif.). Despite missing 4 games with a neck sprain (including the L.A. City 3-A final, which Birmingham lost), he made 124 tackles (82 solo) in 1994, including 8 sacks, and forced 4 fumbles, plus ran for 363 yards and caught 17 passes for 318 yards (18.7 avg.).

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as he ran for 690 yards (9.4 avg.) with 8 TDs and caught 17 passes for 325 yards (19.1 avg.) and 3 TDs.

As a 1992 sophomore, he won All-Mid Valley League first team honors, grabbing 34 passes for 511 yards (15.0 avg.) and 4 TDs. He was a 1991 All-Mid Valley League second team pick as a freshman, leading Birmingham in sacks with 10.

He also was a hurdler on Birmingham's track team, winning the 1994 conference titles in the 110-meter high hurdles (14.6) and 330-meter intermediate hurdles (38.0). He was sixth in the L.A. City high hurdles in 1995. He has run the 100 meters in 10.9.

His father, Marvin, was a 2-time (1975-76) All-American first team and 3-time (1974-76) All-Pac-8 first team offensive tackle at USC who played on Troy's 1974 national champs, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (in 1994), was the fourth pick of the 1977 NFL draft and was an All-Pro during his 11-year NFL career (1977-85 with the New York Jets and 1986-87 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His uncle, Charles Johnson, currently plays in the NFL.

"Marvin was the most dedicated football player in the last 20 years at Birmingham High," said Birmingham coach Chick Epstein. "He responded like a coach on the field. He was a total team player and leader because of his attitude and hitting ability."

(65) BRETT SAMPERI -- Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 270, Fr./Fr.

He was named a 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State second team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team, and All-South Coast League first team as a senior left offensive tackle at San Clemente (Calif.) High.

He made 1993 All-South Coast League second team as a junior. He also was on San Clemente's track team.

"Brett is a tireless worker who is committed to football," said San Clemente coach Mark McElroy. "He dominated every defensive end, whether they were quicker or bigger than him. We would run behind him whenever we needed a critical play and our quarterback always felt his blind side was protected."

(57) AARON WILLIAMS -- Linebacker, 6-4, 230, Fr./Fr.

His 1994 honors included Super Prep All-American, College Sports All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP as a senior at Leuzinger High in Lawndale (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game on defense in 1994 (he had 8 sacks) and ran for 1,029 yards with 16 TDs as a fullback. Leuzinger went 9-2-1 in 1994.

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay, and South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first teams, and was the All-Bay League Defensive MVP while making 88 tackles (8 stops per game) and 1 interception on defense and catching 14 passes for 380 yards (27.1 avg.) and 3 TDs as a tight end.

He averaged 4 tackles and had 15 catches as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-Bay League second team honors. He was a 3-year starter. He also played on the basketball and track (with a best of 160 feet in the discus throw) teams at Leuzinger.

"Aaron has all the attributes of an outstanding player: skill, quickness, size, toughness and intelligence," said Leuzinger coach Fred Boehm.

(9) QUINCY WOODS -- Quarterback, 6-2, 185, Fr./Fr.

He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Midwest, Blue Chip All-Midwest, Detroit Free Press Best of the Midwest, Gatorade Circle of Champions Illinois MVP, Chicago Tribune All-State first team, and Chicago Area MVP as a senior at Rich East High in Park Forest (Ill.). He passed for 2,240 yards and 22 TDs with just 8 interceptions in 1994 while rushing for 700-plus yards and 7 scores.

As a 1993 junior, he threw for 2,395 yards and ran for 788 yards while scoring 13 TDs. He was a 3-year starter.

His brother, Pee Wee, plays football at Oklahoma.

"Quincy can throw the ball well from the pocket or on the run, and he doesn't panic," said Rich East coach Bob Lombardi.

1994 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 -- September 3, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 24, Washington 17
Att: 54,538

Washington	7	7	3	0	--	17
USC	7	3	7	7	--	24

USC (ranked 13th by AP, 14th by USA Today/CNN, and 17th by AP), opening its season against a conference opponent for the first time in 27 years, began its race for the roses with a 24-17 comeback win over Washington (23rd by AP) before an ABC-TV regional audience, plust 54,538 fans in the Coliseum.

It was the first game in the Coliseum since the January 1994 Southern California earthquake which caused $92 million damage to the historic stadium.

USC, which last opened against a league foe in 1967 (beating Washington State en route to a national championship), posted its first season-opening win since 1990. It was the earliest USC ever opened conference play and the earliest that USC and Washington ever faced off. In the process, USC re-discovered its dormant running game, which averaged only 114.6 yards on the ground in 1992 and 108.6 in 1993.

Starting TB Shawn Walters ran for 91 yards and a pair of second-half touchdowns (7 and 3 yards) on 26 carries, while freshman TB Delon Washington--in his first game at USC--had 109 yards on 10 carries, including runs of 34 and 33 yards. Washington became the first USC true freshman ever to run for 100-plus yards in a season opener and only the fourth Trojan true frosh to eclipse 100 rushing yards in a game (Ryan Knight did it twice in 1984, Michael Harper once in 1979 and Charles White 4 times in 1976). Walters was the last USC freshman to break the century mark, but he was a redshirt freshman when he had 116 yards at Washington in 1993 (USC's only 100-yard running game of the season).

QB Rob Johnson got his Heisman campaign off to an efficient start by hitting 78.3% of his passes (18-of-23) for 129 yards and a TD (a 6-yarder to TE Johnny McWiliams). Johnson became only the second Trojan to pass for 6,000 yards and have 500 completions in his career (Heisman runner-up Rodney Peete is the other). After missing on his first pass of the game, Johnson hit his next 9 straight and then connected on his last 8 aerials of the game, including all 7 in the second half. His 9-yard scramble on third-and-7 kept alive USC's winning scoring drive midway through the fourth quarter. USC's other points came on a 32-yard second quarter field goal by PK Cole Ford. McWilliams and WR Ken Grace each had a game-high 5 catches.

The Huskies, ineligible for a bowl because of NCAA sanctions, led 17-10 midway through the third quarter. Heisman candidate TB Napoleon Kaufman had 152 rushing yards and 1 TD on 26 carries (he had 244 all-purpose yards overall). But Washington had 5 turnovers (3 interceptions, 2 fumbles).

CB John Herpin snatched 2 Husky passes, his second straight game with 2 picks (he did it versus Utah in the 1993 Freedom Bowl). OLB Donn Cunnigan and S Micah Phillips led USC with 9 tackles, while OLB Brian Williams added 8 and ILB Jeff Kopp had 7. USC posted 6 sacks.

GAME 2 -- September 10, State College, Pennsylvania
Penn State 38, USC 14
Att: 96,463

USC	0	0	7	7	--	14
Penn State	21	14	3	0	--	38

In a game that was over before the sellout Beaver Stadium crowd of 96,463 was settled in, powerful Penn State (ranked No. 8 by AP and USA Today/CNN, No. 9 by UPI) demolished USC (13th by USA Today/CNN and UPI, 14th by AP), 38-14, as an ABC-TV regional audience tuned in.

The Nittany Lions led 35-0 at halftime (it was 21-0 just 7:51 into the first quarter). It was Troy's biggest halftime deficit ever and the most points scored in any half against USC since California also had 35 in the first half in 1991.

Penn State clearly outdid USC in every key statistical category: total yards (534 to 281), first downs (28 to 16), plays (84 to 67) and third down conversions (11-of-15 to 3-of-13). USC allowed the most total yards since Cal had 601 in 1991 and the most first downs since Stanford had 29 in 1987.

USC, which managed just 60 rushing yards on the day, had just 5 yards on the ground in the first half, along with only 4 first downs, 70 total yards, 28 plays, and 0-of-7 third down conversions in the opening half. Conversely, Penn State's opening half read 363 total yards, 17 first downs, 46 plays and 6-of-7 third down conversions.

Penn State marched 80 yards on the game's opening possession, capped by a 32-yard touchdown burst by TB Ki-Jana Carter, who gained 119 yards on 17 carries overall. The Nittany Lions then recovered a USC fumble 3 plays later and turned it into a TD on the ensuing play, a 44-yard bomb to FL Freddie Scott from QB Kerry Collins, who was 18-of-33 passing for 248 yards overall.

Penn State scored again on its next possession on a 7-yard run by FB Jon Witman. The Nittany Lions added 2 more second-quarter TDs on a 1-yard run by FB Brian Milne and a 19-yard Collins pass to SE Bobby Engram.

USC actually outplayed Penn State in the second half, as CB Quincy Harrison intercepted Collins and returned the ball 68 yards for a score (the longest interception return by a Trojan since Cleveland Colter went 94 yards for a TD at Cal in 1987), and TB Delon Washington, who led USC in rushing for the second straight game (44 yards on 9 carries) ran for a 5-yard score.

USC QB Rob Johnson was 18-of-30 for 221 yards, but was sacked 6 times for the second game in a row. ILB Jeff Kopp had a game-high 13 tackles, while NT Matt Keneley, OLB Brian Williams, and ILB Donn Cunnigan added 9 stops apiece. S Micah Phillips also intercepted a Collins aerial.

GAME 3 -- Sept. 24, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 37, Baylor 27
Att: 45,762

Baylor	10	3	7	7	--	27
USC	14	7	6	10	--	37

Behind the power running of TB Shawn Walters and the precision passing of QB Rob Johnson, No. 19 (AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) USC beat a pesky Baylor team (No. 24 by USA Today/CNN and UPI), 37-27, before 45,762 Coliseum fans and a Prime Ticket local TV audience.

The Trojans, coming off a bye, bounced back after their previous rough outing at Penn State to dump the undefeated Bears.

USC totalled 583 total yards, its most since getting 654 against Utah State in 1989.

Walters ran for 207 yards--tops in the nation that week--on 31 carries with 3 TDs, including a 39-yard score (he surpassed his career-high by halftime as he had 127 yards). That was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had 219 versus UCLA in 1981 and the most carries at USC since Mazio Royster had 32 against Michigan State in 1990. It was his second 100-yard game in his career (and the second by a Trojan in 1994 after getting just 1 all of 1993) and his first 3-TD performance. He was named Sports Illustrated national Offensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week.

Johnson performed much like he did in 1993 as he was 27-of-39 for 364 yards and 1 TD with no interceptions. WR Ken Grace caught a career-best 9 catches for 70 yards (including a 14-yard TD), while FB Terry Barnum (6 catches for 77 yards, the first catches by a Trojan runner in 1994) and WR Keyshawn Johnson (4 for 105) also had personal bests.

Both teams scored on their first 2 possessions of the game and USC was up just 21-13 at halftime. Two of PK Cole Ford's 3 second-half field goals came soon after intermission, but were sandwiched around a 98-yard kickoff return by Baylor's Ben Bronson.

Besides the total yardage (583/365), USC also outdistanced Baylor in first downs (28/15), plays (83/66), possession time (35:12/24:48) and third down conversions (7-of-17/3-of-14). The Bears came in averaging 37.3 points and 231.3 rushing yards (they finished with 124), while allowing 78.0 rushing yards (USC had 219), 266.0 total yards and 11.0 points.

USC's defense, which came up with 4 second-half turnovers (which Troy converted into 13 points), was led by ILB Errick Herrin (7 tackles), OLB Brian Williams (6 stops, 1 fumble recovery), ILB Jeff Kopp (5 tackles, plus a 41-yard interception return) and NT Matt Keneley (5 stops). OLB Israel Ifeanyi also had a theft, while DE Willie Lowery had the other fumble recovery.

GAME 4 -- October 1, Los Angeles Coliseum
Oregon 22, USC 7
Att: 44,232

Oregon	10	6	3	3	--	22
USC	7	0	0	0	--	7

Unranked Oregon, a 19-point underdog, came into the Coliseum--where it hadn't beaten USC since 1971--and shocked the No. 19 (AP, USA Today/CNN, and UPI) Trojans, 22-7, before 44,232 fans and a Prime Network regional TV audience.

The Ducks, who had won just 1 of their last 17 overall meetings with USC, defeated Troy for just the fifth time in 26 tries in the Coliseum. It was John Robinson's 100th game at USC.

Oregon controlled the game from the start and held a 16-7 halftime lead. The Ducks, who had 478 total yards, scored on 3 of their first 4 possessions (including the first 2): a 24-yard Matt Belden field goal, a 49-yard run by TB Dino Philyaw and a 19-yard pass to FL Cristin McLemore from sophomore QB Tony Graziani, who was making his first career start for an injured (finger surgery) Danny O'Neil, the school's No. 2 all-time passer. Graziani was 16-of-31 for 287 yards, Philyaw ran 123 yards on 27 carries and Belden added a pair of second-half field goals of 43 and 24 yards.

The Trojans, whose only score came on a 7-yard first quarter pass from QB Rob Johnson to WR Keyshawn Johnson, saw their offense stall all game. Of their 11 drives, only 3 advanced inside the Duck 40 (besides the TD, the other 2 ended in failed fourth down plays in the fourth quarter). USC gained only 31 of its 347 total yards by rushing and converted just 4-of-16 third downs.

Rob Johnson (20-of-30 for 237 yards, but 1 interception and 7 sacks) sprained his ankle midway through the third quarter and was replaced by Brad Otton (7-of-15 for 79 yards). Keyshawn Johnson (92 yards) and WR Ken Grace (107 yards) each had 6 catches, while TB Shawn Walters had 17 carries for 78 yards and 4 catches for 29 yards.

ILB Errick Herrin led both teams with 13 tackles, while ILB Jeff Kopp added 9 stops and intercepted a pass in the end zone.

Playing without injured QB Rob Johnson, USC came back from an early 11-point deficit to win its 21st straight game against Oregon State, 27-19, before 33,892 fans in Corvallis and a Prime Network regional TV audience.

Down 13-2 midway through the first quarter (Troy's points came on S Micah Phillips' return of a blocked Beaver extra point kick), USC scored 25 unanswered points on 4 consecutive possessions.

QB Brad Otton, who started while Johnson nursed a sprained ankle, played like a veteran, completing 13-of-21 passes for 208 yards and 2 TDs, without an interception and only 1 sack. The TDs went to TE Tyler Cashman (1 yard) and TB Rodney Sermons (31 yards). Sermons, who saw significant action because starter Shawn Walters was affected by a stomach virus, led USC in rushing with 74 yards (including a 1-yard TD) on 23 carries. Walters gained 68 yards on 16 rushes. WR Keyshawn Johnson had 6 catches for 139 yards. USC's other points came on a 23-yard field goal by PK Cole Ford.

The Beavers' option attack rolled up 302 rushing yards (coming in, OSU ranked ninth nationally in rushing with a 272.5 average), with 117 of those coming from third-string QB Tim Alexander. Oregon State threatened late in the fourth quarter, but Alexander broke his clavicle while getting tackled on a 31-yard run to USC's 14-yard line. Three plays later, ILB Errick Herrin forced QB Rahim Muhammad to fumble and CB Quincy Harrison recovered the ball at the USC 7. In all, OSU fumbled 7 times.

ILB Jeff Kopp led USC with 11 tackles.

USC 27, Stanford 20
Att: 60,345

USC	7	10	3	7	--	27
Stanford	10	0	0	10	--	20

Behind another big running game by TB Shawn Walters, USC won its second consecutive game of 1994 for the first time by outlasting Stanford, 27-20, before 60,345 fans in Palo Alto and an ABC-TV regional audience.

Walters rushed for a career-high 234 yards and 2 TDs (4 and 61 yards) on 31 carries, the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had 243 in 1981 against California and the most any runner has had against Stanford since UCLA's Freeman McNeil had 248 in 1980. It was Walters' second 200-yard performance of 1994, the first time a Trojan has done that since Allen had an NCAA-record 8 in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign. His 61-yard TD was the longest run by a Trojan since Deon Strother went 92 yards at Cal in 1991.

For only the second time in 33 games (both in 1994), the Trojans had more yards running (266) than passing (223). USC's 266 rushing yards was its most since getting 301 at Washington State in 1991. And, as has been the case in each of its 1994 wins, USC had to come from behind, as it trailed Stanford 10-0 before going on a 20-0 spurt.

Once again, QB Rob Johnson went down with an ankle sprain (this time in the second quarter after missing the Oregon State game following a similar injury against Oregon) and backup Brad Otton filled in admirably. Otton was 10-of-20 for 114 yards, while Johnson was 7-of-10 for 109 yards, including a 46-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson, who had his third 100-yard receiving game of 1994 (he had 146 yards on 7 catches). PK Cole Ford supplied USC's other points on field goals of 19 and 23 yards.

ILB Jeff Kopp had a game-high 15 tackles, while fellow ILB Errick Herrin added 13 and S Sammy Knight had 11. USC posted 5 sacks, including 2 by OLB Errol Small, who also intercepted a Steve Stenstrom point-blank pass on the Trojan 36 with 4:07 to go in the game and USC up just 20-13 (Walters had his decisive 61-yard TD run on the next play).

USC prevailed even though Stanford had more total yards (494-489), plays (79-69), first downs (22-20) and possession time (32:24-27:36), but the Cardinal sacked Troy just once. The Trojans posted an impressive goal-line stand early in the second half while up just 17-10, stopping the Cardinal on fourth-and-1 at the USC 2. Stenstrom became Stanford's career passing yardage leader by going 27-of-44 for 344 yards, but was intercepted twice.

USC	14	21	14	12	--	61

USC had a field day in its Homecoming game against California, posting a 61-0 victory before 55,213 Coliseum fans and a Prime Network regional TV audience.

It was the most points scored by USC since a 66-10 win over Utah State in 1989 and the biggest victory margin since a 63-0 win over Oregon State in 1985. It was USC's first shutout since a 19-0 win over Stanford in 1989 and its first shutout over the Bears since 1982 (42-0). It was also the most points allowed by Cal since a 61-21 loss to UCLA in 1973 and the Bears largest margin of defeat since a 66-0 loss to Alabama in 1973.

The game was over by halftime, as USC led 35-0. That was the most points USC scored in a half since getting 35 in the second half against Utah State in 1989.

Troy scored on the game's first series, as QB Brad Otton--who started for an injured Rob Johnson (sprained ankle)--hit FB Terry Barnum on a 7-yard TD pass. Then, late in the first quarter, CB Jerald Henry and S Sammy Knight blocked a Ryan Longwell field goal attempt, and Henry picked it up and raced 60 yards for a TD. On Cal's next possession, Henry again blocked a Longwell 3-point attempt.

USC scored 3 more TDs in the second quarter: a 9-yard run by TB Shawn Walters, another Otton-to-Barnum pass (4 yards), and a 2-yard run by TB Rodney Sermons.

After Walters scored on a 2-yard run early in the third quarter, USC's reserves finished the game. QB Matt Koffler threw a pair of TDs, an 11-yarder to TE Jeff Diltz and a 4-yarder to TB Leonard Green, and walk-on TB Jess Holquin ran in from 7 yards out.

Otton completed 75% of his passes (15-of-20) for 196 yards with the 2 TDs and no interceptions (he was 14-of-19 for 188 yards and both scores in the first half), while Koffler was 7-of-13 for 61 yards and the 2 scores. Walters had a game-high 76 yards and the 2 TDs on 15 rushes, while TB LaVale Woods added 71 yards on 8 carries and Green had 46 yards on 10 tries. WR Keyshawn Johnson had his third straight 100-yard receiving game (110 yards on 4 catches). In all, 11 Trojans caught a pass.

USC's special teams played a big role, setting up 3 TDs. Besides Henry's blocks, WR Ken Grace returned a punt 75 yards (USC's longest since Curtis Conway 96-yard TD versus Oregon in 1992) to set up a TD and ILB Brian Haas recovered a fumbled John Stonehouse punt to lead to another score. Stonehouse averaged 44.3 yards on his 6 punts. And all 9 of PK Cole Ford's kickoffs were not returned out of the end zone.

USC dominated the statistics, getting more first downs (24-15), total yards (477-215), plays (81-62) and possession time (33:26-26:34). Cal came into the game ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense (15.4) and 19th in total defense (290.0). USC allowed just 1-of-14 third down conversions and had 4 sacks and 2 fumble recoveries. Cal's 215 total yards was the fewest USC allowed since Houston had 170 in 1993 and the Bears' 95 rushing yards was the fewest against USC since Utah had 64 in the 1993 Freedom Bowl.

USC	0	7	6	10	--	23
Wash. State	3	0	0	7	--	10

It was a "Johnson & Johnson" day as USC (ranked No. 18 by UPI, 20 by USA Today/CNN and 22 by AP) beat Washington State (13th by UPI, 14th by USA Today/CNN and 16th by AP) before 36,686 fans in Pullman and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The win--USC's fourth in a row--kept the Trojans alive in the Rose Bowl race, while knocking the Cougars from contention. It was USC's 29th win over WSU in the last 31 tries and its fifth win in as many games over a ranked Cougar squad.

On a 44-degree day (there was 4 inches of snow ringing the field from the previous day's snowstorm and WSU students constantly pelted the Trojans with snowballs), QB Rob Johnson and WR Keyshawn Johnson hooked up on 3 TD passes of 13, 8 and 64 yards in the second, third and fourth quarters, respectively (another 50-yard score by the pair was called back because of a penalty). Keyshawn's 3 scoring catches tied a USC single game record held by 5 others (most recently by Johnnie Morton in the 1993 Oregon State game). He had 8 catches overall for 145 yards, his fourth straight 100-yard receiving game, while Rob--who hadn't played in the previous 6 quarters because of an ankle sprain (his last full game was the Sept. 24 Baylor contest)--went all the way and was 20-of-31 for 327 yards and the 3 TDs.

PK Cole Ford added a 37-yard fourth quarter field goal to close out USC's scoring. P John Stonehouse averaged 48.3 yards on 8 punts, including a 76-yarder (the longest at USC since Ernie Zampese's school-record 85-yarder in 1956 against Wisconsin).

Troy had 395 yards of total offense against one of the nation's best defenses. Coming in, WSU's "Palouse Posse" was first in the U.S. in rushing defense (58.0) and scoring defense (10.4), second in total defense (216.4) and sixth in pass efficiency defense (89.2). WSU had allowed just 9 TDs all year.

On defense, USC allowed just 283 total yards (only 50 rushing, the fewest Troy allowed since Oregon had -10 in 1989), as WSU converted just 1-of-16 third downs. ILB Jeff Kopp and S Sammy Knight led USC with 9 tackles each (Kopp had 3 for losses, with 2 sacks), while ILB Donn Cunnigan had 8 stops and an interception.

For their performances, Keyshawn Johnson was Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week and Stonehouse won Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

GAME 9 -- November 12, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Arizona 28
Att: 61,264

Arizona	0	14	14	0	--	28
USC	7	7	21	10	--	45

In an unexpectedly high-scoring shootout, USC (ranked 15th by UPI, 16th by USA Today/CNN and 17th by AP) remained alive in the Rose Bowl race with a 45-28 win over Arizona (No. 8 by USA Today/CNN, No. 9 by UPI and No. 13 by AP) before 61,264 Coliseum fans and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was USC's fifth straight win, its longest streak since 1989 (and equalling its best start since 1989), and avenged a 38-7 loss to the Wildcats in 1993, coach John Robinson's worst loss as a college coach. It was also the most points scored against Arizona--whose "Desert Swarm" defense was tied for second nationally in scoring defense (11.3)--since UCLA had 54 in 1991 and the most yards of total offense Arizona--which was sixth nationally in total defense (258.4)--had allowed since Texas Tech had 564 in 1976. USC averaged 7.2 yards per play.

USC threw for a school-record 434 yards, the second most ever allowed by Arizona (only Arizona State's 437 in 1986 was greater). Most of that yardage came from QB Rob Johnson, who was 25-of-35 for 390 yards and 3 TDs with no interceptions before leaving the game midway through the fourth quarter after re-spraining his ankle. He also scored USC's decisive TD on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter. His passing yardage was 2 yards shy of equalling his school single game record. He finished the game with 15 consecutive completions, tying his career best and just 2 off the Pac-10 record. For his effort, he was named Sports Illustrated national Offensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week.

The game see-sawed until the final quarter. It was 28-28 until Johnson ran for his score, then in the fourth quarter TB Leonard Green--who had a game-high 92 rushing yards (the most against the Wildcats by a runner in 1994) on 18 carries--ran for an 11-yard TD and PK Cole Ford kicked a 37-yard field goal.

USC scored first, on a 2-yard Johnson pass to TE Johnny McWilliams late in the opening quarter. Arizona came back on second-quarter scoring losses to WR Lamar Lovett (14 yards) and WR Richard Dice (36) from QB Dan White, who was 26-of-48 for 370 yards and 3 TDs, but threw 2 picks. TB Rodney Sermons scored on a 1-yard run to make it 14-14 at halftime. In a 35-point third quarter, Wildcat TB Ontiwaun Carter scored on a 1-yard run and a 65-yard pass from White, while McWilliams caught his second Johnson TD aerial (7 yards) and WR Edward Hervey grabbed a 32-yard Johnson scoring bullet.

Hervey (5 catches for 120 yards) and WR Keyshawn Johnson (5 for 109) became the first pair of Trojans with 100 receiving yards in a game since Gary Wellman and Johnnie Morton did so in 1990 versus California.

USC's defense had 2 impressive goal line stands with the game in the balance on consecutive Wildcats drives in the second half, the first ending with a pick by CB John Herpin and the other giving Troy the ball on downs. USC's top tacklers (with 7 each) were OLB Brian Williams, who also had an interception, and S Mario Bradley.

For Arizona, Carter became the school's career rushing leader off his 67-yard, 18-carry performance, while Dice had a game-best 9 catches for 171 yards, the most yards against USC since UCLA's J.J. Stokes had 263 in 1992.

GAME 10 -- November 19, Pasadena, California
UCLA 31, USC 19
Att: 91,815

USC	3	9	0	7	--	19
UCLA	0	3	21	7	--	31

UCLA--behind a strong running attack, a blitzing defense and a 28-point second half--upset USC (No. 11 by UPI, No. 12 by USA Today/CNN and No. 13 by AP), 31-19, before 91,815 fans in the Rose Bowl and an ABC-TV regional audience.

USC, needing a win over the Bruins and an Oregon State upset of Oregon to earn a Rose Bowl berth, saw neither happen (the Ducks won, 17-13). It was UCLA's fourth straight win over Troy, a Bruin first. It also snapped USC's 5-game 1994 win streak.

USC led 12-3 at the half on a pair of field goals by PK Cole Ford (37 and 29 yards) and a 29-yard TD pass from QB Rob Johnson to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rob Johnson completed his first 8 passes of the game, giving him an NCAA season record for consecutive completions with 23. He was 20-of-28 for 246 yards overall and became USC's career pass completion leader with 645. Keyshawn Johnson, who caught 11 passes for 175 yards (both career highs; it was his sixth straight game with 100 receiving yards and seventh of 1994), became the third Trojan with 1,000 receiving yards in a season (1,026, joining Johnnie Morton's 1,520 in 1993 and Gary Wellman's 1,015 in 1990).

UCLA scored on 4 of its first 5 possessions of the second half (a 10-yard pass from QB Wayne Cook to SE J.J. Stokes, a 5-yard run by TB Sharmon Shah, a 30-yard Cook pass to SE Jim McElroy, and a 1-yard Cook run), including getting 3 unanswered TDs in the third quarter. The Bruins gained 234 of their 450 total yards (including 143 of their 232 rushing yards) in the final half. Cook was 15-of-23 for 218 yards, Stokes caught 6 passes for 121 yards and Shah had a game-high 135 yards on 25 rushes. Five of the Bruins 6 sacks of Johnson came in the second half.

USC's only score of the second half came on a 4-yard run to open the fourth quarter by TB Leonard Green, who had 86 yards on 18 carries overall.

ILB Jeff Kopp and OLB Brian Williams each had a USC-best 9 tackles, S Sammy Knight had 8 stops and CB John Herpin intercepted a pass in the end zone (for the second week in a row).

GAME 11 -- November 26, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 17, Notre Dame 17
Att: 90,217

Notre Dame	3	7	7	0	--	17
USC	0	7	3	7	--	17

For the first time in 25 years (and only the fifth time in the 66-game series), the USC-Notre Dame game ended in a tie, this time 17-17 on a blustery (48 degrees and 25 mph winds with the wind chill factor pushing the temperature into the low 30s) in front of a sold-out Coliseum (90,217) and an ABC-TV national audience.

The tie snapped USC's 11-game losing streak to the Irish, but the Trojans still haven't beaten Notre Dame since 1982.

USC (ranked 17th by AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) had to score late in the game to tie. With Notre Dame ahead 17-10, USC OLB Israel Ifeanyi blocked PK Stefan Schroffner's 32-yard field goal try and S Sammy Knight returned it 56 yards. Four plays later, TB Shawn Walters scored on a 1-yard run with 4:53 in the game. The Irish got the ball back twice and USC once (getting to the 50), but neither team could score.

Notre Dame dominated the statistics, getting more total yards (341-274, including 226 rushing), plays (75-55) and possession time (38:30-21:30). USC missed several prime scoring opportunities, twice getting into the red zone but coming away empty (a missed field goal in the second quarter and an interception in the third quarter) and another time advancing to the ND 31 in the first quarter before turning the ball over on downs. Troy also had a first down on the ND 7 in the third quarter, but had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by PK Cole Ford.

After ND opened the game with a 29-yard field goal by Schroffner, USC scored on a 5-yard pass in the second quarter to TE Johnny McWilliams from QB Rob Johnson, Johnson's Trojan career record 55th scoring toss. But ND marched 80 yards on the ensuing possession, with QB Ron Powlus hitting FB Ray Zellars for an 11-yard TD. Powlus, who was 13-of-22 for 115 yards, also ran for a 1-yard TD in the third quarter.

Johnson was 15-of-29 for 187 yards, while WR Keyshawn Johnson caught 6 passes for 114 yards. ND TB Lee Becton rushed for a game-high 156 yards on 26 carries.

USC OLB Brian Williams had a game-best 10 tackles, while Knight and ILBs Jeff Kopp and Errick Herrin added 8 each.

P John Stonehouse, who averaged 48.8 yards on 5 boots, set USC career records for punts and punt yardage.

It was the 750th consecutive USC game viewed by Giles Pellerin.

GAME 12 -- January 2, Dallas, Texas
Cotton Bowl
USC 55, Texas Tech 14
Att: 70,218

USC	28	6	14	7	--	55
Texas Tech	0	0	7	7	--	14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience.

It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939).

The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986.

Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After TB Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, QB Rob Johnson hit FB Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, CB John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player.

USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to WR Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from QB Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history).

The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to TE Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by PK Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record.

Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards.

USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games.

ILB Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while S Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

USC'S RECORD AGAINST CONFERENCE FOES

The information in this opponents' year-by-year section is, reading from left to right: (1) year; (2) date (with "Th" indicating a game played on Thanksgiving Day); (3) AP ranking going into the game, with USC's given first, and USC's opponent's given second; (4) other miscellaneous information ("N" for night game if contest began after 5:00 p.m. local time, "U" for upset if the result was considered a significant upset, time remaining in the game if a late score resulted in a win or tie, and weather conditions, with "R" indicating most of the game was played in the rain and "Sn" indicating most of the game was played in snow conditions); (5) game result (W, L or T); (6) game score, with USC's given first; (7) game site (home, away or neutral); and (8) attendance. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938---USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939-- USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988-USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton,Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton), the 1993 Penn State game (Rob Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds to go fell bounced incomplete, allowing the Nittany Lions to hold on to a 21-20 win), and the 1993 UCLA game (a win or tie would put USC in the Rose Bowl, but Rob Johnson's 3-yard, third-down pass with 56 seconds to play to Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by Bruin Marvin Goodwin to preserve UCLA's 27-21 victory).

"THE COMEBACK"
1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fifth highest bowl winning percentage (.649) among the 50 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Georgia Tech's .680, Florida State's .652, and Notre Dame's .650). In the prestigious group of 8 schools that have played in 30 or more bowl games, Troy has the highest winning percentage of all. USC is just 3 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 27 to 24. Troy's 37 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (47). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (USC did it in the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (10).

USC's overall post-season record is 24-13. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 27 Rose Bowls, where it has a 19-8 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 6 of its last 8 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 9 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, John Hancock Bowl, Freedom Bowl (twice) and Cotton Bowl.

ROSE BOWL

USC BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1923 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

USC	0	7	7	0	-- 14

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Campbell, Baker. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Penn State--Field Goal, Palm.

Attendance: 43,000 Date: Jan. 1

1924 Christmas Festival: USC 20, Missouri 7

Played on Christmas Day in the Coliseum, USC posted one of its biggest wins in its early history, 20-7 over Missouri. The Trojans stopped the Tigers early, then dominated the latter part of the contest, with Hayden Pythian, Wallace Newman and Henry Lefebvre starring.

Missouri	0	0	0	7	-- 7
USC	0	0	20	0	-- 20

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Lefebvre, Badgro, Pythian. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Missouri--Touchdown, Walsh. PAT, Unknown.

Attendance: 47,000 Date: Dec. 25

1930 Rose Bowl: USC 47, Pittsburgh 14

Quarterbacks Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield combined to pass for 279 yards and four touchdowns to lead Coach Howard Jones' first USC Rose Bowl team past Pittsburgh, 47-14. Saunders' first three passes went for touchdowns, two to Trojan end Harry Edelson. USC built a 26-0 halftime lead in coasting to the triumph.

USC	13	13	14	7	-- 47
Pittsburgh	0	0	7	7	-- 14

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Edelson (2), Duffield (2), Pinckert, Saunders, Wilcox. PAT, Shaver (2), Baker (2), Duffield.

Attendance: 72,000 Date: Jan. 1

1932 Rose Bowl: USC 21, Tulane 12

Erny Pinckert ran for touchdowns of 25 and 30 yards to lead USC's Thundering Herd to a 21-0 halftime lead, and the Trojans held off Bernie Bierman's Tulane team in the second half for a 21-12 victory. Six USC players on that team were named All-American during their college careers.

USC	0	7	14	0	-- 21

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Sparling, Pinckert (2). PAT, Baker (3).
Tulane--Touchdowns, Haynes, Glover.

Attendance: 75,562 Date: Jan. 1

1933 Rose Bowl: USC 35, Pittsburgh 0

Quarterback Cotton Warburton scored two touchdowns as USC wore down a lighter Pittsburgh team for a 35-0 win. Warburton, a 145-pounder who went on to become one of the Trojans' greatest backs, broke the game open in the second half.

USC	7	0	7	21	-- 35

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Palmer, Griffith, Warburton (2), Barber. PAT, Smith (4), Lady.

Attendance: 78,874 Date: Jan. 2

1939 Rose Bowl: USC 7, Duke 3

A fourth-string quarterback, Doyle Nave, who had played only 281/2 minutes all year, came off the bench to fire four straight passes to second team end Al Krueger, the last a 19-yard touchdown aerial, in the last two minutes to edge Duke, 7-3. Those were the only points scored on previously undefeated Duke all season.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Schindler, Krueger. PAT, Jones, Gaspar.

Attendance: 92,200 Date: Jan. 1

1944 Rose Bowl: USC 29, Washington 0

In the only Rose Bowl game which was not intersectional (because of wartime travel restrictions), USC raced past Washington, 29-0. Quarterback Jim Hardy led the Trojans, throwing three touchdown passes. Washington entered the game as a strong favorite.

USC	0	7	13	9	-- 29

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, G. Callanan (2). G. Gray (2). PAT, Jamison (3). Safety, Planck blocked Austin's punt which was recovered in end zone by Washington.

Attendance: 68,000 Date: Jan. 1

1945 Rose Bowl: USC 25, Tennessee 0

Quarterback Jim Hardy passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third as USC defeated Tennessee, 25-0. Hardy thus in two games threw for five touchdowns and scored a sixth. Tennessee fielded a predominantly freshman team.

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, J. Callanan, Salata, J. Hardy, MacLachlan. PAT, West.

Attendance: 91,000 Date: Jan. 1

1946 Rose Bowl: Alabama 34, USC 14

Harry Gilmer, known more as a passer, ran for 113 yards while Alabama's defense choked off USC to give the Crimson Tide a 34-14 victory. Alabama allowed USC just six yards of rushing and 35 passing. It was USC's first loss in the Rose Bowl following eight victories.

Alabama	7	13	7	7	-- 34
USC	0	0	0	14	-- 14

Scoring: Alabama--Touchdowns, Self (2), Gilmer, Tew, Hodges. PAT, Morrow (4).

1975 Liberty Bowl: USC 20, Texas A&M 0

In coach John McKay's final game at USC, his Trojans shook off a four-game losing streak and surprised favored Texas A&M in Memphis, 20-0. USC's defense came up with many big plays, while the offense was able to move against the nationally-ranked Aggie defense. Vince Evans threw a 65-yard bomb to Randy Simmrin to set up one touchdown and Liberty Bowl MVP Ricky Bell ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another TD.

1977 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Michigan 6

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

1979 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

1982 Fiesta Bowl: Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

1985 Rose Bowl: USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

1985 Aloha Bowl: Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl: Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl: Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl: USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with Ttight endJohnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 COTTON BOWL: USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

1995 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked first or second inthe nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team.

The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, and one of the teams is ranked first or second in the nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or, if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team. If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

NOTES: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the NACDA Kickoff Classic or the Disneyland Pigskin Classic shall not be counted in the point system.

PAC-10 BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

In the ever-changing world of post-season bowl games, one matchup remains constant--the Pacific-10 champion will meet the Big Ten champ in the Rose Bowl. The 1996 Rose Bowl marks the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement and a season full of celebration is planned. Thus, while much about it changes, the Rose Bowl Game, in conjunction with the world-famous Rose Parade, maintains its preeminent position as the nation's most prestigious and glamorous New Year's Day attraction.

In addition to the champion appearing in the Rose Bowl, the Pac-10 is assured of at least 4 participants in post-season bowl competition (assuming all win the NCAA-mandated 6 games against Division I-A opponents), as agreements have been struck with the Cotton, Plymouth Holiday, Sun and Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowls. The Pac-10 also is eligible for an at-large berth in any given year in the newly-formed Bowl Alliance, which encompasses the Fiesta, Nokia Sugar and Federal Express Orange Bowls. While eligible to be selected for a berth in the Bowl Alliance, a berth is not guaranteed.

After the Rose Bowl berth is filled (and the Bowl Alliance, if applicable), a second Pac-10 team will participate against a Big 12 team in either the Cotton or Plymouth Holiday Bowl. Four teams will participate in the Cotton/Plymouth Holiday Bowl parlay--one for the Pac-10, the WAC champion and 2 from the Big 12. The Big 12 teams will fill 1 berth in each bowl. The Cotton Bowl will then select between a Pac-10 team and the WAC champion. The team not selected to participate in the Cotton Bowl will receive a berth in the Plymouth Holiday Bowl. It is not necessarily the second-place team from the Pac-10 that will participate in this Cotton/Holiday parlay, but rather a second team. This second team is selected at the discretion of the Cotton/Holiday Bowls and can be any eligible Pac-10 team other than the Conference's Rose Bowl representative (or Bowl Alliance selection, if applicable).

A third and fourth Pac-10 team will participate in the Sun Bowl and Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl, respectively.

There have been 29 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (19 times during the regular season, 10 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 17 times, the No. 2 team has won 10 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 2-2 in such matchups, winning both times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC IN THE POLLS

USC FOOTBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Here is a list of USC's college football championships as selected by every recognized authority. USC is recognized for having won eight national championships (1928-31-32-62-67-72-74-78). The Trojans were not picked by enough selectors in 1929-33-39-76 to claim a legitimate national crown.

#The 1972 USC team was the first team to ever receive a unanimous first-place vote by both AP and UPI.
+Selectors:

Ann--Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41). A rating system published in the highly-regarded fan magazine by William F. Boand.

AP--Associated Press (1936-current). Poll of sportswriters and broadcasters which began in 1936. The award actually originated in 1924 with the awarding of the Rissman Trophy to the top-rated team in the Dickinson System. It was retired in 1930, then the Knute Rockne Trophy was awarded beginning in 1931 (again to the winner of the Dickinson System through 1935, then to the winner of the AP poll). That was retired in 1940, then the Dr. Henry L. Williams Trophy was awarded beginning in 1941. That was retired in 1947, then the Father O'Donnell Trophy was awarded beginning in 1948. That was retired in 1956 and beginning in 1957, the award has been known as the AP Trophy.

Davis--Park H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935). Chosen by Davis, a former player at Princeton and former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette. First published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

Dick--Dickinson System (1924-40). Based on point formula devised by Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson.

Dunk--Dunkel System (1929-current). A power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel.

FWA--Football Writers Association of America (1954-current). Chosen by five-man committee representing membership. Award called the Grantland Rice Trophy.

Helms--First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982). Originally called Helms Athletic Foundation, then changed to Citizen Savings Athletic Foundation before new name adopted in 1981.

HF--National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1991). Chosen by a committee representing membership. Award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Merged with UPI in 1992.

Lit--Litkenhous System (1934-1972). A rating method developed by Fred and Edward Litkenhous.

Thes--The Football Thesaurus (1927-58). A system devised by D. Houlgate.

UPI--United Press International (1950-current). Originally a poll of college coaches, in 1991 voters comprised of college football enthusiasts. In 1992, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame co-sponsored poll, with voters consisting of 100 NFF members (athletic administrators, journalists, ex-players, and ex-coaches) and award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Beginning in 1993, voters were 16 bowl representatives.

USA/CNN--USA Today/Cable News Network (1982-current). From 1982 to 1990, voted on by a panel of Gannett Co. sportswriters. Starting in 1991, voted on by 59 college coaches.

USA/HOF--USA Today/Hall of Fame (1993-current). In 1992, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame co-sponsored poll, with voters consisting of 100 NFF members (athletic administrators, journalists, ex-players, and ex-coaches) and award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy.

Wms--Williamson System (1932-1963). A power rating system by Paul Williamson, a geologist and Sugar Bowl committee member.

USC IN TOP 20 RANKINGS

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 751 times. USC has been ranked in the poll's Top 20 491 times (65.4% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams:

1.	Notre Dame	575	6.	USC	491
2.	Michigan	548	7.	Nebraska	481
3.	Ohio State	525	8.	Texas	449
4.	Oklahoma	518	9.	Penn State	419
5.	Alabama	516	10.	UCLA	390

In those 751 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 47 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Notre Dame	95	6.	Texas	40
2.	Oklahoma	71	7.	Miami (Fla.)	37
3.	Ohio State	62	8.	Alabama	31
4.	USC	47	9.	Michigan St.	29
5.	Nebraska	46	10.	Michigan	28

USC has the second longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with 17 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Only Notre Dame has a longer streak, with 19 from Nov. 1, 1988 to Nov. 21, 1989. Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	Notre Dame	19	6.	LSU	13
2.	USC	17	7.	Notre Dame	12
3.	Army	15		Texas	12
	Nebraska	15		Ohio State	12
5.	Nebraska	14		Florida State	12

DEFEATING NO. 1

Below is a list of USC games in which a No. 1-ranked team was defeated or tied. From AP rankings. Asterisk (*) is home team. (N) is neutral site. In parentheses following winning or tying team is its rank in previous week's poll (NR is not ranked), its won-loss record entering game, and its score. Next is the defeated or tied No. 1 team, its score, and its rank in poll the following week.

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--UPI, AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 26 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing --1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all-purpose running.

HEISMAN SALUTE

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

OUTLAND SALUTE

RON YARY--1967

Ron Yary is the only USC player to win the Outland Trophy, which goes to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and is selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Yary was a two-time All-American offensive tackle for the Trojans and was a unanimous All-American pick in 1967 when he won the Outland. That season he led the way for O.J. Simpson. The first player picked in the 1968 draft, he was a perennial All-Pro tackle with the Minnesota Vikings and also played for the Los Angeles Rams.

LOMBARDI SALUTE

BRAD BUDDE--1979

In 1979, offensive guard Brad Budde became USC's first recipient of the coveted Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top college lineman who also "best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi."

Budde was an unanimous All-American as a senior and was also runnerup in the Outland Trophy voting. A four-year starter at Troy, he was the first freshman to start a USC season opener since World War II.

The son of ex-Kansas City Chiefs' All-Pro Ed Budde, Brad followed his father there as the Chiefs' first- round draft pick in 1980.

LOMBARDI WINNERS

1970--Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State, MG

Note: USC has had 3 finalists for the Lombardi Award--NG George Achica in 1982, OLB Jack Del Rio in 1984 and DT Tim Ryan in 1989.

THORPE SALUTE

MARK CARRIER--1989

As just a junior in 1989, free safety Mark Carrier became USC's first-ever winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's best defensive back.

A 2-time first team All-American, Carrier had 7 interceptions in 1989 (tied for 10th in the nation), plus 107 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 10 pass deflections.

A 3-year starter with 13 career thefts, Carrier was a Thorpe semifinalist in 1988.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 53 Trojan players selected (including Keyshawn Johnson and Jeremy Hogue in 1995), as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1995 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC'sTony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, is the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

Here is a list of USC's Playboy pre-season All-Americans:

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letter winners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen.

There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

USC VS. HEISMAN WINNERS

John Lujack--1947
Notre Dame 38, USC 7
Irish quarterback Lujack completed 5-of-7 passes for 59 yards and no TDs, but it was his interception and 37-yard return of a Trojan pass that led to a score. Eventual national champion Notre Dame knocked off No. 3-ranked USC, 38-7, at the Coliseum.

Leon Hart--1949
Notre Dame 32, USC 0
Hart scored on a 36-yard pass for Notre Dame's first score as the top-ranked Irish rolled to a 32-0 win in South Bend over the No. 17 Trojans. It was USC's worst loss in the series at the time.

John Lattner--1953
Notre Dame 48, USC 14
Lattner set then-series records by scoring 4 touchdowns and rushing for 157 yards in No. 2 Notre Dame's 48-14 victory over No. 20 USC in the Coliseum.

Paul Hornung--1956
USC 28, Notre Dame 20
Hornung, who played quarterback during his Heisman Trophy season, switched to halfback against USC because of painful injuries to both thumbs. His 95-yard kickoff return and PAT in the third quarter drew the Irish to within a point, 21-20. Hornung accounted for 215 all-purpose yards in the Coliseum game.

John Huarte--1964
USC 20, Notre Dame 17
Huarte completed 18-of-29 passes and threw a touchdown pass in leading top-ranked Notre Dame to a 17-0 lead. But unranked USC rallied to score 20 second-half points to upset the Irish, 20-17, in Los Angeles. It was Ara Parseghian's first loss as Irish coach.

Gary Beban--1967
USC 21, UCLA 20
With the national championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl on the line, Beban threw for 301 yards and 2 touchdowns for the top-ranked Bruins. The effort wasn't enough as O.J. Simpson, USC's 1968 Heisman winner, scored on a 64-yard TD to give the No. 4-ranked Trojans a 21-20 win.

Jim Plunkett--1970
Stanford 24, USC 14
Plunkett ended No. 4-ranked USC's hopes of a fifth straight Rose Bowl trip by completing 19-of-31 passes for 274 yards and a score in No. 12-ranked Stanford's 24-14 win at Palo Alto. The loss ended USC's 25-game unbeaten string in regular season play.

Archie Griffin--1974
USC 18, Ohio State 17
In the 1975 Rose Bowl, Griffin fumbled twice and was held to 75 yards and no TDs, as USC rallied to take an 18-17 win. The victory over the No. 3-ranked Buckeyes gave USC its seventh national title.

George Rogers--1980
USC 23, South Carolina 13
Rogers broke free for a 34-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter in Los Angeles as part of a 141-yard rushing game. But it was Marcus Allen, USC's 1981 Heisman Trophy winner, who rushed for 104 yards and 2 touchdowns to give USC a 23-13 win in its home opener.

Tim Brown--1987
Notre Dame 26, USC 15
Brown was held to 4 catches for 46 yards, but it was his 5-yard run in the second quarter that put the Irish up 17-3 in South Bend. Notre Dame's seventh Heisman winner rushed 5 times for 41 yards in the Irish's 26-15 win.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" --has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 212 times over the years, including 138 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 135-69-8 (the mark is 83-50-5 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. All 13 of USC's 1990 games were on some form of live television, as were all 12 in 1992, all 13 in 1993 and all 12 in 1994.

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. TV sets that are tuned to a game. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC was 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1925, 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games. The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 43,323,747 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

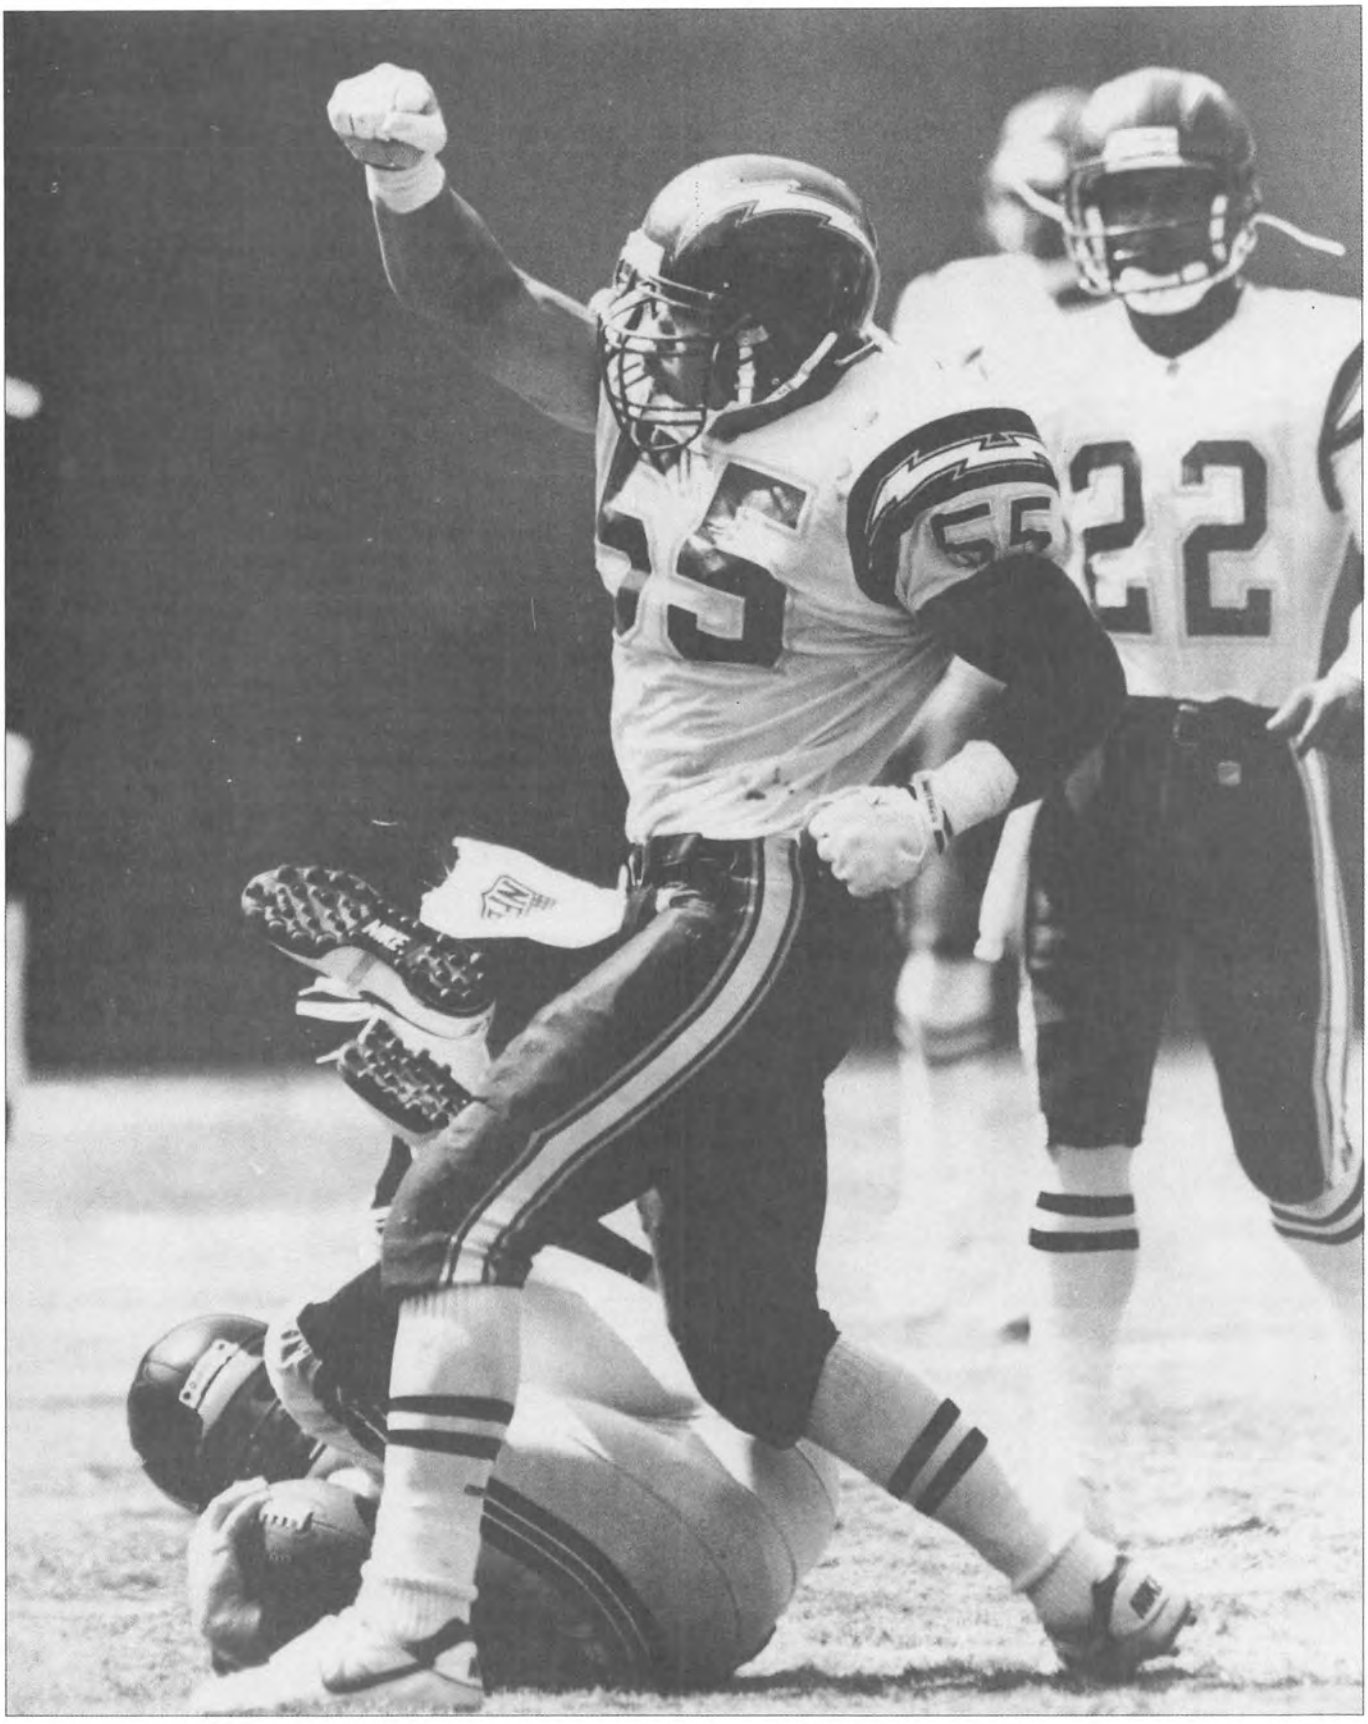
NFL TROJANS



SAN DIEGO CHARGERS LINEBACKER JUNIOR SEAU

USC: NO. 1 IN THE PROS

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC usually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this past summer, there were 51 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 11 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 25 of the NFL's 30 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (13), linebackers (10), defensive backs (6), wide receivers (6) or running backs (5). There also were 4 Trojan quarterbacks and 4 tight ends.

In 1994, there were 38 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, the most from any university (since records are available, USC has been No. 1 in 17 of the last 19 years). Notre Dame was second in 1994 with 34.

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft is an NFL record.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1995 (which followed the 1935-1994 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

Round	Player	Pos.	Team	Overall Draft Selection
1937--1
10	Gil Kuhn	T	Brooklyn Dodgers
1939--4
8	Ray George	T	Lions
12	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins
16	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins
17	Amerigo (Tony) Tonelli	B	Lions

(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES--USC is 35-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 12 contests it has played after a tie, dating to 1968.

BIG TEN COMPETITION--USC has won 20 of its last 27 games (and 27 of its last 35) against Big Ten opponents.

DIAMONDS--During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in a stadium with a baseball field (Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego, then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl, 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic and 1993 Freedom Bowl). Before then, the last time USC played on a baseball field was in 1961, when the Coliseum was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

EARLY BIRDS--USC's Aug. 29 opener in 1993 marked the earliest that Troy's season has opened in the modern era. Before then, the earliest was Aug. 31, 1990. (The earliest that USC's season has ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

GOLDEN GRIDDERS--Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES--USC is 70-37-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 31-8-1 following byes (4 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA).

GRID/HOOPS--USC is 11-6-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS--Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne--All-American").

HOMECOMING--USC has a 46-21-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IMPROVEMENT--USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA--USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

IRISH REBOUNDS--USC is 5-10-1 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were in 1950-55-70-80-82, the losses were in 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92, and the tie was in 1994.

NICKNAMES--Some of the more famous nicknames in Trojan gridiron lore: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell) Bear (Byron Darby), Blackjack (Harry Smith), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Bug (Kevin Williams, who was 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Comet (Curtis Conway), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Gazoo or Gnat (Ken Grace), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Izzy (Israel Ifeanyi), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. (John Jackson), Juice (O.J. Simpson), Jupiter (walk-on Jupiter Ehrlich; yes, that's his real name), Lone Ranger (David Webb, who put a bar of grease paint across his eyes when playing), Mad Dog (Tim Lavin), Mystic (Jim Powers), The Noblest Trojan of Them All (Morley Drury), Pinball Wizard (Ricky Ervins), Prince Hal (Hal Bedsole), Racehorse (Russ Saunders), Razor (Mike Battle), Red (Morris Badgro), Rolls (Mazio Royster), Sam Bam (Sam Cunningham), Slam (Sam Anno), Slinky (Marvin Pollard), Speedy (Alcee Hart), Squeeze (John Kamana), Sugarbear (Charles Hinton), Sweet (Jim Musick), Sweet Peete (Rodney Peete), Tay (Raymond Brown), Tee (Artimus Parker), Tex (Michael Williams), The Thundering Herd (Coach Howard Jones' teams), Tree (Charles Young, who was 6-4 and 228 pounds), Turd (Pete Adams' dog, the unofficial mascot of the 1972 team), Turk (Derrell Marshall), The Wild Bunch (the 1969 defensive line of Al Cowlings, Jimmy Gunn, Willard Scott, Tody Smith and Charlie Weaver).

NIGHT TIME--USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1--The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

OFFENSIVE LINE--There have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 18 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND--USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS--USC's record in all season openers is 73-21-8 (.755), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 53-15-7 (.753), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-6-1 (.759).

In conference openers, USC is 57-11-5 (.815) and Troy has won 19 of its last 24 (and 32 of its last 38). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 34-6-3 (.826). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 23-5-2 (.800) and they've won 18 of their last 21.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 3, 1994 against Washington.

USC's record for home openers is 76-17-7 (.795). In road openers, USC is 66-25-8 (.707).

Incidentally, in games immediately following USC's 28 non-winning openers, Troy is 20-5-4, including wins the past 12 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-10 WINS--In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS--Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Allipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

RAIN--USC has an 18-19-2 record in games in which it rained during a major portion of the contest. USC's last such rain game was at Ohio State in 1990 (USC won, 35-26).

RAIN OUT--The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SAME STADIUM--USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawaii in the same Honolulu location.

SEASON ENDERS--USC is 55-37-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT--USC's last home sellout was the 1994 Notre Dame game.

SNOW--The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS--USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25 game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION--USC won 9 of its last 10 games (and 17 of its last 19) against foes from the Southwest Conference.

SUNDAY--USC has played only 1 game on a Sunday: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Class (USC lost, 31-9).

3 FOR THE ROAD--1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games in a row (in 1918 Troy began with 2 on the road and 1 at a neutral site, while in 1900 USC opened with 2 at a neutral site and 1 road game).

1,000-YARD RUNNERS--USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 23-19. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was tailback Mazio Royster in 1990, with 1,168 yards.

TOUGH STARTS--USC's last 6 head coaches--Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson (twice), Ted Tollner and Larry Smith--all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE--USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT--USC's record is 5-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS--In 102 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 29 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

VERSUS NO. 1--USC is 7-11 all-time versus teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest --and largest-- stadiums in America. It combines the traditional and the modern into a premier athletic environment.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than 2 years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball. The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $93 million of repairs. And, in the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 94,159 seats (almost all are chair-back seats). However, for most USC games, a retractable fabric covers many seats, bringing the Coliseum's capacity to about 68,000. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

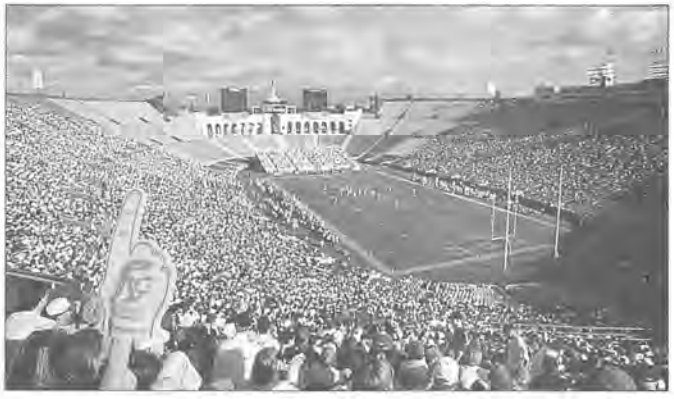
The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

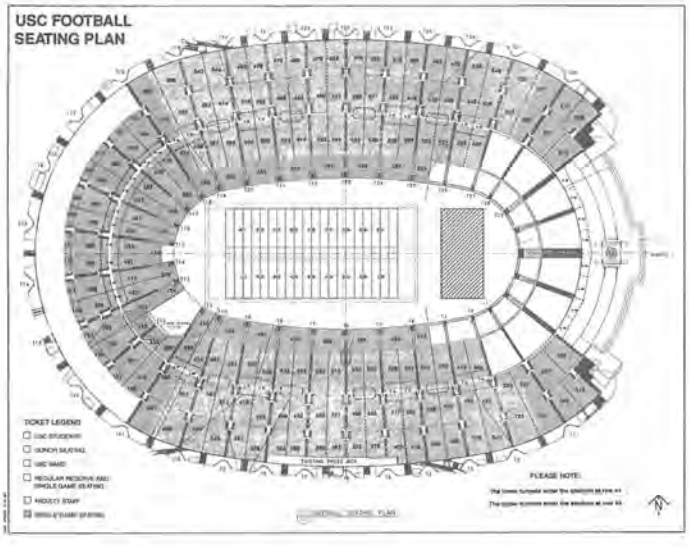
The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.





HERITAGE HALL

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has won more national team championships, produced more Olympic athletes and developed the second most NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients than any other university.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It has been expanded twice: once in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room) and in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center). Heritage Hall is located close to USC's various athletic practice and competition on-campus facilities.

Between the north and south wings on the building's ground level are some of USC's numerous athletic trophies, including various NCAA team championships, 4 Heisman Trophies and the jerseys of the Troy's winners (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen), swimmer John Naber's Sullivan Award, and a display honoring 1992 Olympic gold medalist 400-meter runner Quincy Watts. There are also busts of USC athletic directors Willis O. Hunter and Jess Hill, football coaches Howard Jones and John McKay, and track coach Dean Cromwell, as well as one of actor John Wayne (who played football at USC in the 1920s under his real name, Marion Morrison). A video display highlights USC's football history. Wall plaques acknowledge special financial contributors to the USC athletic program. The north wing houses a 200-seat auditorium and a formal lounge, while some coaches and administrators have offices in the south wing. A patio area extends outside to the west (placed in the patio floor are plaques commemorating the members of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame).

Heritage Hall's upper level is the home to many administrative and coaches' offices (located on the south "Jess Hill Wing" and north "John McKay Wing," respectively). The Honors Rail, which encircles the open-air foyer above the first floor lobby, has bronze medallions saluting every Trojan who won an Olympic gold medal, captured an NCAA individual championship, or was named a first team All-American in an NCAA sport in which there are no individual champions (i.e. football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, water polo). Also on the second floor are busts of USC football running backs Morley Drury ("The Noblest Trojan of Them All") and Ricky Bell. Like on the ground floor, tucked in alcoves on both ends of this floor are other athletic trophies and team displays.

The underground lower level of Heritage Hall houses various locker rooms, plus the equipment room, medical training room, weight room, and the Academic Resource Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes).

Because of space limitations, USC's baseball, golf, swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby Kennedy Aquatics Building.

HERITAGE HALL

—TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT—

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Tom Nolan, a USC alumnus, is the current rider of Traveler. He and Rick Oas shared riding duties in 1991and Nolan took over full-time in 1992 (Oas, also a USC graduate, began riding Traveler in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's longtime rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker now 32 years old, took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Twenty-six-year-old Traveler III, a 1,000-pound, 15 1/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 15-year-old Arabian brother who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games, but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 34 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including the last 9 years in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, at halftime of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, a costumed Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented white horse. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years and then George III for 5 years.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

COLORS: CARDINAL AND GOLD

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin, an 88-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is perhaps USC's most loyal football fan. He might even be the most rabid college football fan ever.

Going into the 1995 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 751 consecutive Trojan games, home and away. The 1994 Notre Dame contest was his 750th game. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and auto more than 600,000 miles (and spent upwards of $75,000 doing so).

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 478-197-38 record. Pellerin has seen every USC-Notre Dame and USC-UCLA game ever played.

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including in 1993. But Trojan fate stepped in. Pellerin was about to leave his hotel the day after the 1993 Penn State road game when he suffered a ruptured aortic abdominal aneurysm. He was hospitalized in a Harrisburg (Pa.) hospital for 12 days, but fortunately USC had a bye that week and he was released in time for USC's next game, at home against Washington State. His streak was intact, with 2 days to spare!

Another near miss came in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours later after USC dumped Oregon, 40-13.

In the summer of 1994, Pellerin was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame. And in the summer of 1988, he was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest. He was flown to New York City for the festivities.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 85, of Hawthorne, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1945. That's 554 in a row. Another brother, Max, 83, of Palm Springs, had a 300-plus string interrupted several seasons ago when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This reignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 23 times while in UCLA's hold (there have been 4 ties).

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The shillelagh awarded for year-long possession and display to the victor of the Trojan-Irish game was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was originally devised as the trophy by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it.

The foot-long shillelagh has emerald-studded shamrocks with the year and game score representing Notre Dame victories, while ruby-adorned Trojan heads stand for USC wins. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle."

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band--known as "The Spirit of Troy" --is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including "Hello Dolly"), plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, and John Wayne.

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner is also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders and Yell Leaders.

TOMMY WALKER

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 76 men's and 13 women's, than any other university in the nation;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (268) than those from any other school in the nation;

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 273 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 87 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 53 silver and 46 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 44 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, second among all schools. In addition, USC has had 22 first team Academic All-Americans and 3 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 20 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 638-257-53 (a .701 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 325-124-28 (.711). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 4 other occasions.

USC has the nation's fifth best bowl winning percentage among the 50 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.649) and its 27 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 24-13, including 19-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 119 times, with 39 of those consensus selections and 20 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and has led USC to a pair of bowl wins.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 57 first round picks), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott and Junior Seau.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,872-891-14 (.677) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 35 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 35 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire and Bret Boone. In all, more than 70 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college foes, making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1995 squad was the runnerup at the College World Series (his 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams were NCAA regional participants).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,217-856 (.588), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and led Troy into the post-season playoffs 4 times. Charlie Parker succeeded Raveling prior to the 1995 season.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours over the last 15 years.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1993-94 and has led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995 years, including advancing to the regionals 3 of the last 4 seasons. Lisa Leslie won the Naismith Award in 1994.

The Women of Troy made the NCAA tourney the past 5

WOMEN'S CREW--The women's crew team, under head coach George Jenkins, has varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 36 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over the coaching duties in 1993. Kurt Schuette became head coach in 1995 and guided the Trojans to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney, Troy's best placing in 18 years.

WOMEN'S GOLF--The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their second, third, fourth, fifth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships in 5 of the past 10 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989. Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year.

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti , Denise Strebig and Jill McGill.

SAILING--Mike Segerblom, John Shadden and Russ Silvestri are among the long line of All-Americans produced by the USC sailing team, perhaps the most successful program on the West Coast. In fact, Troy has produced more All-Americans than any other West Coast school and has sent participants to the America's Cup, as well as the Olympics and other prestigious world events. USC's program, first recognized as a varsity sport in 1965, is co-ed. Segerblom serves as the coach.

WOMEN'S SOCCER--The women's soccer team began competing in 1993 under head coach Karen Stanley.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 69 times, winning 18 gold, 10 silver and 11 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 98 NCAA meet individual and relay titles and have earned All-American honors an amazing 468 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His men's teams have placed sixth and 10th at the NCAAs.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 14 of the last 19 years, and have produced 130 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd and current star Kristine Quance (she won 3 events at the 1994 NCAA meet as the Women of Troy placed sixth).

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 15 team champions (tied for most in the country), 12 singles champions (second most in the country), and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school).

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 434-84 (.838) mark in 16 years. His 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 119 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1 doubles champ and 60 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989. Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, becomes head coach for the 1996 Women of Troy.

MEN'S TRACK--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 74-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 30 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 375-102-4 (.784).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995 (the men finished fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet).

Fifty-eight USC tracksters have won 84 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 24 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 102 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1993, 1994 and 1995 NCAA champion Balazs Kiss in the hammer throw).

The Trojans also have had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY--The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 4 times, including third in 1987.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her in 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson was coach in 1992 through 1994.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. And Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall under coach Tom Walsh.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there in the 19 years since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and 25 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 5 of her 6 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 29 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

MEN'S WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 745-440-7 (.628) record, winning 10 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Fifteen of his last 18 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987, 1993 and 1994 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney.

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and 89 have made various All-American teams. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris and Robert Lynn.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO--USC's newest sport, the women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. The Women of Troy finished third in the Division II tourney.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 68--far more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 13 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.

TROJANS NO. 1 IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only lead the nation in the number of national team championships (76 by the men and 13 by the women), but rank second (behind Air Force) in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (44, including 18 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 3 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh and trackster James O'Toole), 22 first team Academic All-Americans (including 19 footballers, tied for tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for sixth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award, 9 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell) and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990. The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE GARRETT

Michael L. Garrett, so much a part of USC's unparalleled athletic tradition, was named the school's sixth-ever athletic director in January of 1993.

Garrett, Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback who has a background in business, law, government, athletic administration, and community affairs, oversees the 20 men's and women's teams and the accompanying $20 million budget that make up the nation's most successful athletic program.

Already during his tenure, USC has won 2 NCAA titles (in men's tennis, 1993 and 1994).

Garrett, 51, succeeded Mike McGee, who became the athletic director at South Carolina after 9 years at USC.

Garrett became the seventh African-American athletic director at a major Division I-A institution.

Garrett had served as USC's associate athletic director since December of 1990. In that role, he was responsible for the athletic department's budget, personnel, contract compliance and corporate sponsorships. He also handled day-to-day supervision of 5 men's sports--volleyball, golf, tennis, swimming and water polo.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was director of business development for the Great Western Forum (1988-90), including its highly-successful boxing program.

Earlier in his career, he worked for the San Diego district attorney's office and as a youth counselor, held management position in the retail, construction and real estate industries, did color commentary on USC football telecasts, and ran for Congress (1982) and San Diego City Council (1983).

Garrett has been involved in community affairs since his days at USC. While in college, he helped found the Cool-Head Program, an organization that met with youth groups to try to offset racial tensions in Los Angeles, and volunteered at the MacLaren Children's Center, a home for abused children. Later, he founded San Diego's Harambee House, a community-based institution for juvenile delinquents.

He helped establish the East Los Angeles Youth Activities Foundation in 1989, a community-based group that ran boxing/educational clubs as a gang-intervention program. The program (now called the Mike Garrett Foundation), funded in part by a grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation, continues to grow with additional sports and services, and now serves the entire Boyle Heights and Lincoln Heights areas of East Los Angeles.

Born April 12, 1944 in East Los Angeles, Garrett was a prep All-American at that neighborhood's Roosevelt High.

As a student at USC, Garrett set the standard for the modern-era "I" formation Trojan tailbacks. He was a 2-time All-American (1964-65) who set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including a then-NCAA career rushing mark of 3,221 yards and a then-USC season mark of 1,440 yards in 1965. He was the first Trojan since 1927 to run for 1,000 yards in a season.

A versatile athlete, he also started at cornerback for the Trojans and was an All-League outfielder for USC's baseball team (he hit .309 in 1965 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers).

Garrett played 8 seasons (1966-73) in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers, becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards for 2 teams. An All-Pro, he played in Super Bowls I and IV.

Garrett was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and won the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1990. He was a charter member of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame, which he founded in 1994.

Garrett graduated from USC in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a law degree from Western State University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif., in 1986.

Garrett and his wife, Suzanne, have 2 children, Sara, 13, and Daniel, 8.

Beth Woodin serves as Garrett's executive assistant.

USC ATHLETIC DIRECTORS

Willis O. Hunter	1926-57
Jess Hill	1957-72
John McKay	1972-75
Richard Perry	1975-84
Mike McGee	1984-93
Mike Garrett	1993-

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The University of Southern California is a research institution of international distinction. Founded in 1880, it is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States.

The university enrolls more than 28,000 students annually on 2 campuses, the 150-acre University Park Campus in Exposition Park and the 30-acre Health Sciences Campus, 4 miles to the northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

Some facts of significance about the university include the following:

--USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 60 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, do about two-thirds of all federally funded academic research and development.

--Enrollment stands at 28,185, including 15,082 undergraduates and 13,103 graduate and professional students.

--In basic research, USC is nationally and internationally prominent. Currently, USC ranks among the top 10 private universities receiving federal funds for research and development support and in the top 20 among all universities.

--USC professor George A Olah was the sole recipient of the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

--Many of USC's academic programs rank in the top 10 nationally.

--USC has 36 faculty members who are members of the National Academy: 6 in the National Academy of Sciences, 14 in the National Academy of Engineering, 5 in the Institute of Medicine, and 11 in the National Academy of Public Administration. Membership in these prestigious academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on a faculty member's distinguished and continuing achievements.

--The University is the home of 18 professional schools, in addition to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. These schools train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to architecture, theater, education and business. Graduates of USC professional schools are serving society's needs in the United States and many foreign countries.

--USC's schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work, Public Administration and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.

--USC maintains one of 27 comprehensive cancer centers in the U.S. The university's $40 million USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center opened in 1983.

--Among USC's distinguished alumni are musicians Herb Alpert, Lionel Hampton and Patrice Rushen; astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; columnist Art Buchwald; sportscaster Frank Gifford; architects Frank Gehry, Jon Jerde and Carey K. Jenkins; rapper "Young M.C." (Marvin Young) and opera star Marilyn Horne; directors George Lucas, John Singleton, Ron Howard and Paul Mazursky; Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf; U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher; California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. Kennard; U.S. Ambassador to Australia Edward Perkins; actors John Ritter, Tom Selleck, and the late John Wayne and Michael Landon; actresses Marlo Thomas and Ally Sheedy; symphony conductor Michael Tilson Thomas; and producers David L. Wolper and Barney Rosenzweig.

INTERESTING, LITTLE-KNOWN USC FACTS

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States? (Yes, older and larger than Stanford.)

--USC was founded in 1880 with 53 students; today, USC enrolls more than 28,000 students in the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and in its 18 top-ranked professional schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is now above the 96th percentile of all colleges and universities nationwide in student selectivity?

--USC's entering freshman class is among the strongest in the country. The majority of entering freshmen come to USC from the upper sixth of their high school graduating class. They boast an average GPA of 3.6 and an average SAT score of 1100.

--Also, USC is among the top dozen schools in the nation in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's Thematic Option Program was cited by the New York Times Guide to Colleges as one of the nation's best undergraduate honors programs?

--In 1994, the average SAT score for students who entered the Thematic Option Program was 1348. The program is home to about 500 students.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is among the top 1% of all colleges and universities west of the Mississippi in the number of Rhodes Scholarships received by its students?

--USC has had 8 Rhodes Scholars, including 3 in the last 6 years.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC professor George Olah received the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry?

--Professor Olah, who has been at USC for almost 2 decades, has transformed the field of chemistry through his pioneering work with hydrocarbons, work which has led to less polluting gasoline, more effective oil refining and many modern drugs.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Cinema-Television is ranked No. 1 by U.S. News & World Report's Annual Guide to America's Best Graduate Schools?

--USC tied for top honors with New York University's Tisch School of the Arts, and was ranked ahead of the American Film Institute, UCLA and the California Institute of the Arts.

--Every year since 1950, at least one USC graduate has been nominated for an Academy Award.

--USC alumni have held key creative or production positions in 10 of the 12 highest-grossing movies in history.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC researchers played a key role in the early development of the Internet?

--USC's Information Sciences Institute, part of the School of Engineering, has won a $9.2 million contract to upgrade the Internet, the electronic "Information Superhighway" which now links more than 20 million users all over the planet.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center is considered to be the nation's premier program for studies of aging?

--The Leonard Davis School of Gerontology, founded in 1975, was the nation's first school in this critical, emerging field.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Southern California Earthquake Center is based at USC?

--The SCEC was established by the federal government in 1991 to coordinate geological research relating to earthquakes.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is home to the world's largest university-based research effort in photonics technology?

--This light-based technology is believed by many to hold the key to the next major advance in information processing and control.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC physicians serve more than 1 million patients each year through the Health Sciences Campus and 12 affiliated hospitals?

--Four USC-affiliated hospitals are ranked by U.S. News & World Report as being among the best in the nation: Rancho Los Amigos Medical Center, Doheny Eye Institute, Childrens Hospital Los Angeles and Women's and Children's Hospital at the Los Angeles County+USC Medical Center.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's endowment has grown by more than 4,000% in the last 30 years, a record unequaled in American higher education?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's crime rate is lower than that of most other large research universities located in or near major cities?

--Latest available figures show USC's overall crime rate to be lower than that of Stanford or UCLA, and less than half the crime rate of the nation as a whole.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the largest private employer in the city of Los Angeles, and one of the largest in Southern California?

--USC's operating budget of just under $1 billion per year contributes some $3 billion each year in total impact on the Southern California economy, which in turn generates some 40,000 jobs outside the university.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC ranked in the top 3 last year among private universities in the number of times its faculty were quoted as experts in the national press?

--In print, only faculty from Harvard and Columbia were called upon more often for expert comment on current affairs; and in broadcast, only Yale experts appeared more than USC faculty, and USC was No. 1 in coverage on CBS.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Music is the most active producer of live music performances in all of Southern California, with more than 500 concerts and recitals each year?

--The USC School of Music is ranked in the top 10 nationally by U.S. News & World Report's Annual Guide to America's Best Graduate Schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the only university that broadcasts its own daily national news program?

--"Marketplace," the nightly business news program produced by KUSC and broadcast nationally on Public Radio International, is heard by more than 2.3 million listeners each day. It has been described by the Columbia Journalism Review as "the best business program on radio and television."

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on march 31, 1991, is a professor of electrical engineering at USC and regularly teaches undergraduate courses, the most recent being a freshman seminar titled "Science and Technology in Human Culture" and a junior-level course in electro-magnetic theory.

He began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Washington, D.C.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering.

His paper on electronic motor starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue University. His patents in the field of digital appliance controls have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions. In 1980, Sample was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the department of electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, the flagship campus of the SUNY system. Sample held this post he held until accepting the USC presidency in 1991. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 60 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

In 1994, Sample was appointed chair of the AAU's committee on postdoctoral education.

Sample currently serves on the boards of directors of First Interstate Bancorp, Los Angeles; the Presley Companies Inc., Newport Beach, Calif.; Western Atlas, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Galaxy International, Los Angeles; The Los Angeles Metropolitan Project (LAMP); and Rebuild L.A. (RLA). He is a trustee of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN), the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and the Regenstrief Medical Foundation, Indianapolis. He is a member of Project California and the Coalition of 100 of Los Angeles.

Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively, prior to receiving his Ph.D. at the same university in 1965. He has received honorary degrees from Canisius College in Buffalo, the University of Sheffield in England, Purdue University, Hebrew Union College and the University of Nebraska.

Sample received an Alumni Achievement Award from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1994 and the University of Illinois College of Engineering's Alumni Honor Award in 1985. He was chosen to receive Purdue University's prestigious Outstanding Electrical Engineer Award in 1993. The award, given yearly by the faculty of the university's School of Electrical Engineering, recognizes contributions made by alumni and faculty to the field of electrical engineering and related industries.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

Sample married the former Kathryn Brunkow of Park Ridge, Ill., in 1961. they have two daughters, Michelle Sample Smith and Melissa Ann Sample. Mrs. Sample is a certified surgical technologist.

USC NORRIS COMPREHENSIVE CANCER CENTER ON THE HEALTH SCIENCES CAMPUS

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With 9 NCAA team championships claimed in 1994-95, more than any other conference, plus 41 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference--which combines 10 of the finest academic institutions in the nation--once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

In the 1995-96 academic year, the league celebrates its 80th season for men and 10th season for women.

Pac-10 members have now won 215 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference, and 47 women's crowns, also more than any league.

Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 20 of the last 25 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics. The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--14 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 29 baseball titles; 18 of the last 36, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 18 of the last 32 in swimming and diving; 33 of the last 36 in tennis; 22 of the last 36 in water polo; and 19 of the last 26 in volleyball. Pac-10 men have also claimed an incredible 945 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 14 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 89occasions. Included in this are 10 of 14 tennis crowns, 11 of 14 softball championships, 4 of the last 5 volleyball titles, and 5 of the last 7 golf and swimming and diving trophies. Plus, the 243 NCAA individual titles lead all leagues.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 80 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed intercollegiate competition. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's teams.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 10 men's and 11 women's sports, while Conference members are part of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in 5 additional men's sports and 2 other women's sports.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

USC FOOTBALL TICKET INFORMATION

Season and individual game tickets are available from the USC Ticket Office for all 6 1995 Trojan home contests. Reserved tickets cost $22 per game, with the UCLA game priced at $33 (a season ticket package is $143). There is also a Family Plan season ticket package (seating in west end zone, no UCLA tickets) available for $85. General admission tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for children 12 and under (there are no general admission seats for the UCLA game). Group rates (25 or more) are also available by calling (213) 740-4170.

The USC Ticket Office also has tickets on sale for 3 of Troy's road games (Arizona, California and Oregon State).

For tickets and information, contact the USC Ticket Office at File No. 2235, Los Angeles, Calif. 90074-2235, (213) 740-GO SC (4672). The office is located in Student Union 100 and is open between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

USC home game tickets are also on sale at the Los Angeles Sports Arena box office, as well as at all Ticketmaster agencies. On the day of home games, tickets are on sale at the Coliseum, starting 3 hours prior to kickoff.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian,and assistants Conni Shrope and John Tamanaha) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach John Robinson. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season.

JOHN ROBINSON MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Robinson hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to 7 days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning 2 hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), TV and photo (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the written press, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the lower level during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through the door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary hot meal is served in the press box. Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Robinson and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play is announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact the Convention and Special Events Department at Pacific Bell at (818) 576-3204 (or 800-339-3204 for calls from inside California). Tell Pac Bell that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone. To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for the press box extension). USC provides complimentary fax service in the press box. Fax, telecopier and computer terminal service for a fee also is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Robinson will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050, Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835 or Pat McClenahan of McClenahan-Kelly Productions at (818) 567-4220. Kirkpatrick and McClenahan (or McClenahan's assistant, Jim Marinkovich) also can be reached at Prime Ticket at (310) 286-3800.

Trojans in the Pros

PLAYERS

Seventeen of the last 19 years, USC has had the most players on National Football League rosters. This year alone, 49 Trojans grace the rosters of 25 of the NFL's 30 teams.

DRAFT

Nearly 400 Trojans have been drafted into the NFL, with many more making rosters as free agents. Since the first USC player was drafted in 1940, 57 Trojans have been 1st round selections- -an average of one a year!

PRO BOWL

Trojan alums are among the brightest stars in the NFL. The annual showcase of the league's top talent, the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl, has had 166 Trojan participants.

SUPER BOWL

Seventy-one Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. USC has been represented by a player in all but one of the 29 games. In Super Bowl XI alone, 9 Trojans played in the game. Two Trojans- -Lynn Swann in Super Bowl X and Marcus Allen in XVIII - were named the game's MVP.

COACHES

USC provides the NFL with some of its best coaches. Among the former Trojans coaching in the NFL are Detroit's Wayne Fontes, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren, Chicago's Dave Wannstedt, Houston's Jeff Fisher, and Washington's Norv Turner. About two dozen Trojans were on NFL coaching staffs last year.

HALL OF FAME

Seven Trojans have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Among the recent inductees are O.J. Simpson, Willie Wood and Al Davis.
